GOSPEL MEDITATION

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We can learn a great deal from Mister Rogers. Remember him? He was the gentle soul who found his way into living rooms worldwide starting as far back as 1968. Mister Rogers' Neighborhood was a beloved program that celebrated and exalted people, especially children. He taught us that we are neighbors and that everyone has a place. Everyone matters. He had a vision, born of his relationship with God that highlighted every human life's innocence, beauty, and uniqueness. To that end, he called us to be responsible for each other, saying nothing different than what Jesus said. Viewers quickly learned that life is not just about me.

"We live in a world in which we need to share responsibility. It's easy to say, 'It's not my child, not my community, not my world, not my problem.' Then there are those who see the need and respond. I consider those people my heroes (Fred Rogers)." It is so easy to look the other way. After all, I'm not the one who needs to leave home out of fear and try to find somewhere safe. I am not the one who is hungry and without shelter or food. I am not the one who has a child being bullied or ridiculed because of the way they dress or act. I am not the one being threatened with violence or unable to find meaningful work. The distress and agony of our neighbors are our distress and agony. We cannot walk by it with an attitude of indifference, especially if we call ourselves believers. When we no longer care, we have suffocated our souls. This is a great sin. God's law "is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out." We all have a need for love and acceptance. That's why Mister Rogers' television show was so popular. It spoke to something deeper, something sacred about humanity. God didn't give us his law in a book. He wrote it on our hearts. We know what we need to do. It's a matter of choice. Love is sacred. When we love another human being, especially without regard for ourselves, it is a holy moment. These moments are often missed due to our self-serving agendas and rules. ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

What Jesus Doesn't Say

"If Jesus wanted us to (fill in the blank), he would have said so."

We hear this argument applied to every controversial topic under the sun – and even some not-so-controversial topics, too. Whenever someone is trying to make a case for a decision they have already made, they call in Jesus' scriptural silence on the matter as their expert, unimpeachable witness.

And sure, there's much Jesus doesn't talk about in the Gospels. But by this logic, we would have to assume that Jesus doesn't care, for instance, if we drive well over the speed limit (he doesn't discuss cars and highways in the Bible) or what we do online (he never mentions the Internet or websites at all!), when we know that certainly is just not the case.

Like the scholar of the Jewish law who challenges Jesus to define who exactly his "neighbor" is, we can argue semantics all we want. But if we rest in prayer and look deep into our hearts, we know what path we need to take, and it's usually not the easy one.

I find that I do this plenty in ways that are far more subtle. I lament that the situation facing me is not sufficiently "black and white." I become frustrated by the shades of moral grey and toss up my hands, claiming I don't know what the right answer is, insisting that I can't be blamed for the ramifications of whatever decision I make.

What I need to be doing in these situations is asking God for His guidance, even if it makes me nervous. I need to be like the scholar. He was brave enough to ask, even though I think he knew he wouldn't particularly like the answer. Let's strive for that same courage. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MT ©LPi

You want perfect life, and perfect truth, and perfect love. Nothing short of the Infinite satisfies you, and to ask you to be satisfied with less would be to destroy your nature... Why do you want Life, Truth, and Love unless you were made for them? How would you enjoy the fractions unless there were a whole?

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ. We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow your will. Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

What is it?

FAMILY. FRIENDS. FAITH. FUN. FOOD

The GodTeen program (formerly known as Godparents) consists of small peer groups of teens meeting in the homes of their "GodTeen couple" to talk about faith, how it applies to their daily lives & support for living out their faith. The program began at St. Bonaventure in 1995 and now has grown into a Tri-Parish ministry that includes 27 couples, 20 volunteers & 250 teens from all three high-schools!

The groups meet on Wednesday evenings (during the school year) and the night includes icebreakers, prayer, lessons, & activities designed to springboard into discussions of current topics & issues, all through the lens of our Catholic faith. This is NOT a religion class!

GodTeen families form a special bond and they become like a second family. It's one of the most unique experiences for both the teens & the GodTeen couples!

We would LOVE to hear from you! Please reach out to Sarah at columbuscym@gmail.com OR call 402-564-8993!

Scan QR code to hear from some of our past GodTeen couples!

Connected

The goal of "Connected" is to help teenagers grow in relationship with Christ and each other through recreation and prayer. God created man not to be alone but for communion with one another. "Connected" will focus on providing teenagers with the opportunity to grow closer to each other and teach them several different ways to pray and strengthen their relationship with Christ. When: Thursday nights July 14, July 21, July 28 Who: Fall of 2022 high school freshmen through college freshmen Where: At one of the three Catholic churches in Columbus each week. (The location will be sent out through text each week.) Time: 7:30 p.m.-9:15 p.m. Each Thursday night will consist of an exciting recreational activity, followed by a unique form of prayer, and finally social time with snacks.* *There will always be at least 4 adults present each night to chaperone this event.

To sign up to receive messages about Connected that include the location for each week and any other important information, send your name and phone number to the numbers below.

If you have additional questions, please call or text Dana Ritzdorf at 402-745-0425. If you text, please include Sarah Doerneman in the message at 402-615-3898.
