GOSPEL MEDITATION

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Our families need to ask for the gift of the Spirit! Through prayer, even in the busiest times, we give time back to God, we find the peace that comes from appreciating the important things, and we encounter the joy of God’s unexpected gifts. Through daily prayer may our homes become, like the house of Martha and Mary, places where Jesus always finds a warm welcome (Pope Francis).” While it is necessary to attend to the details of hospitality, learning how to be present to people, experiences, and God is sometimes more important. Creating homes that are welcoming environments requires not only organization and structure but members who truly enjoy being there and celebrating life with one another.

Details can often get the best of us. While attending to details is important to success, our obsession with them can be problematic. Whether wanting to make a good impression, fear of failure, insecurity, or emotional immaturity, throwing ourselves into the “details” of hospitality can distract us from being present to those we want to serve. Conversely, focusing exclusively on being present without any attention to detail also sets our attempts at hospitality up for disaster! We need a balance of both. But creating a truly welcoming space in our homes and within ourselves requires still more. We have to be empty of ourselves. Becoming a welcoming, hospitable person is not possible in someone focused on their own needs and desires. If the one we serve is the one who looks back at us in the mirror, then there is no space for anyone else.

While Martha and Mary had different ideas of what it means to serve, they both had the inner space and freedom to do so. They were detached from themselves. Detachment becomes the challenge to hospitality and creating a God-centered, open-hearted space in our lives. When we impulsively act out of our personal agendas, violence, abuse, pride, greed, lust, power, control, passion, and self-aggrandizement encroach upon the space needed to be present to another human being. Not only can others not find a home in us, but even God cannot find a home in us! ©LPi

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Be Ready for God to “Stop By”

In my experience, most people can be divided into two groups: those who are old enough to remember when you kept food on hand for company, and those who aren’t. For those of you in the latter group, let me explain. Before text messaging and social media made us all unconditionally, mercilessly reachable, people would do this thing called “stopping by.” They would be passing by a friend’s house, maybe on the way home from work or shopping, and they would just ... stop. With no warning. No notice whatsoever. “I was just in the neighborhood,” they would say. I remember my mother and I would do this on many a Saturday. It wasn’t an everyday occurrence, but it was common enough that you had to be ready.

“Crazy,” you might exclaim. “People just appeared on your doorstep? How did you cope with the uncertainty?” Well, most of us had moms who kept a little something on hand to eat or drink that was extra nice, just in case anyone stopped by. That way, we were always ready.

Today’s readings are about a lot of things: prayer, hope, redemptive suffering. They’re about what it means to be a Christian, and not just what it means to do Christian things.

Most of all, though, they’re about readiness. If God showed up at your door, would you be ready for Him? Would you be ready for what He gives you, or what He takes away? Would you be ready for Him to interrupt the plans you have for yourself? To disrupt the idea you carry in your mind of what a servant or a steward is supposed to be?

Read your Bible. Say your rosary. Go to Mass. Get to Confession. Talk to God — every day, not just when you think you need Him. That way, you are always ready

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

The new atheism is not of the intellect, but of the will; it is an act of free and eager rejection of morality and its demands. It starts with affirmation of self and the denial of the moral law.

NEW! Guardian Angel Scholarship Fund

St. Isidore School believes that Catholic education should be available to all students regardless of their families' ability to pay for tuition. We would like to begin a Guardian Angel Scholarship Fund, available to families who would otherwise not qualify for assistance through the Children's Scholarship Fund of Omaha. The Guardian Angel Scholarship Fund would be completely supported by private donations, from benefactors who would like to help a child to enjoy the benefits of Catholic education. If you would like to support a student through the Guardian Angel Scholarship Fund, please contact Carrie Maguire or Amy Evans, or simply drop off a donation in the rectory in an envelope labeled: Guardian Angel Scholarship. A full one-year scholarship would be $2600, but ANY donation amount would be gratefully accepted! Thank you for supporting Catholic education!

What is it?

FAMILY.FRIENDS.FAITH.FUN.FOOD

The GodTeen program consists of small peer groups of teens, meeting in the homes of the "GodTeen couple" to talk about faith, how it applies to their daily lives & support for living out their faith. The groups meet on Wednesday evenings (during the school year) and the night includes icebreakers, prayer, lessons, & activities designed to springboard into discussions of current topics & issues, all through the lens of our Catholic faith. This is NOT a religion class! GodTeen families form a special bond and they become like a second family. It's one of the most unique experiences for both the teens & the GodTeen couples!
