Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, You made each of us to use our gifts in the Body of Christ. We ask that You inspire young people whom you call to priesthood and consecrated life to courageously follow your will. Send workers into Your great harvest so that the Gospel is preached, the poor are served with love, the suffering are comforted, and Your people are strengthened by the sacraments. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GOSPEL MEDITATION - 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Thomas Aquinas reminds us that, "Three things are necessary for the salvation of man: to know what he ought to believe, to know what he ought to desire, and to know what he ought to do." Everyone is called to work toward their salvation, which is ultimately union with God. Those who take this call seriously must embark upon a journey inward to the deepest recesses of their soul. In the adventure and wonder of that journey, we work out the details of our union with our Beloved. We cling to what we need to believe, remain firm in what we truly desire, and are guided by what we know we have to do. Once we know that our goal is to be one with our Creator, life becomes an exciting expedition to pursue that end. We make necessary preparations, follow the map, and remain on course.

Whenever we really want something, we put our entire selves into achieving it. Being fully invested in our labor, we willingly work extra hours, devote an abundance of energy and effort, and remain vigilant for beneficial opportunities that may come our way. We certainly do not passively sit by doing nothing! Such an attitude leads to laziness and the accomplishment of little. Worse yet, some look to others to do the work for them, hoping to reap the benefits of another's efforts. Conscientiousness and diligence are the only means to success.

For the one who eagerly awaits the day when they can be fully with God, life becomes a joyous adventure indeed! Alert, ready, focused, convicted, and willing to be a servant they constantly watch and prepare themselves for meeting the Lord. Loving the journey and being in love with their Creator, their lives become joyful witnesses of love and service. They are secure in their hope, confident in their faith, and perfect in their love. Never looking for recognition or gratitude, they stand as gentle inspirations of what the Holy Spirit can do in the hearts of those who believe. Because we do not know what tomorrow will bring, we stand ready to be used as God wills and run eagerly toward Him when He comes. How much do we desire to experience the joy of salvation?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - Caught in the Rising Action

Think of some of your favorite iconic movies. I'm not talking about the feel-good comedies or the offbeat coming-of-age flicks. I'm talking about the movies that you found had a profound impact on you or made you go "Hmmm."

I'm willing to bet that the plot of this film features some tough moments and difficult scenarios. However happy the ending, at some point, the situation for the protagonist might look awfully hopeless. The script speaks some truth to you about what it is to be human in difficult circumstances. What it means to persevere.

We're attracted to the tension that exists when the hero is besieged. We're captivated by the decisions he makes in the darkest hour of the night when it seems like the dawn will never come. Why? Because we know that feeling so well. This is the essence of our human life on earth: waiting, hoping, doubting — and enduring.

We know the ending to our story, but we don't know when it's coming. We live our whole lives in the rising action of the narrative. Sure, it gets old. Tiresome, even dull. We may start to despair that the climactic scene is coming at all.

But faith is the realization of things hoped for, and evidence of things not seen. We feel it watching a great movie, because we recognize it intuitively: it is faith which earns the happy ending. No one is drawn to the story when the hero gives up or gets tired of waiting for the payoff. Everyday stewardship is the collection of choices we make while we're waiting, because we are called to action, not idleness, even in our perpetual state of expectation. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

In almost nine cases out of ten, those who have once had the Faith but now reject it, or claim that it does not make sense, are driven not by reasoning but by the way they are living. Fulton Sheen

NEW! Guardian Angel Scholarship Fund

St. Isidore School believes that Catholic education should be available to all students regardless of their families' ability to pay for tuition. We would like to begin a Guardian Angel Scholarship Fund, available to families who would otherwise not qualify for assistance through the Children's Scholarship Fund of Omaha.

The Guardian Angel Scholarship Fund would be completely supported by private donations, from benefactors who would like to help a child to enjoy the benefits of Catholic education. If you would like to support a student through the Guardian Angel Scholarship Fund, please contact Carrie Maguire or Amy Evans, or simply drop off a donation in the rectory in an envelope labeled: Guardian Angel Scholarship. A full one-year scholarship would be $2600, but ANY donation amount would be gratefully accepted! Thank you for supporting Catholic education!

All 1st graders attending public school who would like to sign up for PRE please call Mary Throener 402-649-0341 or Cherie VanDyke 303-918-1363.

Mary did not feel ashamed. She proclaimed Jesus her son. At Calvary we see her standing upright-the mother of God, standing next to the cross. What a deep faith she must have had because of her love for her son! To see Him dishonored, unloved, and object of hatred. Yet, she stayed upright.

SEEKING TRUTH BIBLE STUDY

Seeking Truth Bible Study series to start again at St. Isidore this fall. A 22-week Bible study of Isaiah will start on Wednesday evenings beginning Sept. 14th in the Family Room at St. Isidores. Two sessions will be offered: 4:30 p.m.-6:00 p.m. and 6:15 p.m.-7:45 p.m. We will be using Sharon Doran’s Seeking Truth video bible series which has been commissioned by the Omaha Archdiocese. Each week consists of a 45-50 minute video and then a small group discussion time to go over questions covered in the week’s lesson. During the series we will not meet during holiday weeks. All are welcome! If you would like more information about the bible study series you may go to www.seekingtruth.net. Here is one parishioner’s comments from their experience in taking part in this bible study, “ I’ve recently completed my first year of Bible Study through St. Isidore Church. It was my first time joining a group to learn more about our Catholic Faith. I was a little apprehensive and didn’t know what to expect, but it turned out to be a wonderful spiritual experience. I thoroughly enjoyed the Seeking Truth Catholic Bible Study Old Testament lectures given by Sharon Doran which was the basis for our group discussion. Our leaders, were so gracious and led our group into interesting conversations. It was time well spent and I am looking forward to learning more in our next Bible Study Group in the Fall.” Sign up for the classes will begin in August. Look for further information in the bulletin. If you have questions, please call, email or text Laurie Lange at 402-564-8053, laurielange5@gmail.com or Bonnie McPhillips at 402-276-1287, bonniewilliam1983@gmail.com

Reminder: Habitat For Humanity Giving Tree is in the Narthex. Please pick up a donation from the tree and drop in the collection, or at the rectory. Thanks!
