FAMILY TABLE
LET'S TALK

In Sunday's Gospel, Jesus states that Nathanael is a "true child of Israel" because there is no duplicity in him. We can understand that Jesus is emphasizing that being duplicitous (meaning two-faced, false, or insincere) is not good. Jesus goes on to say that he saw Nathanael "under the fig tree." (The fig tree is a symbol of peace.) Jesus makes a strong connection between being sincere and honest, and living under God's peace. Share a time you felt the peace of God because you were honest and sincere like Nathanael.
