WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

Our parish is partnering with Communio – a nonprofit ministry that will consult with us on evangelization and discipleship of marriages and relationships. Later in the year, we'll implement skills-based ministries for all stages of romantic life – whether you're single, dating, engaged or married – to help strengthen your relationships.

Before we launch this new initiative, we need to understand your unique relationship needs. This will help us select the right events and ministries.

We are asking adult parishioners to complete a 90-second, anonymous survey this weekend at Mass. If you will be out of town, please take the survey using the QR code. Your responses are vital to our mission - thank you!

PORNOGRAPHY OR OTHER STRUGGLES WITH LUST

Sam Meier, MA, LPC, provides counseling from a Catholic perspective.

913-952-2267
smeier.ma@gmail.com

Today is Trinity Sunday, the first Sunday following the great Feast of Pentecost which marks the end of the Easter Season. As a Church, we return to Ordinary Time, a time to grow and deepen our understanding of our Catholic Faith.

Jesus makes clear in today's Gospel (John 16: 12-15) that He, the Father, and the Holy Spirit are one. Jesus says to his disciples, "Everything that the Father has is mine; for this reason I told you that he will take from what is mine and declare it to you."

What stood out to you in this passage? Discuss the great mystery of the Holy Trinity.
