PASTOR'S CORNER

This week kicks off our communal penance services throughout Johnson County. Confessions will be available Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Saturday, and again next Sunday. Our communal penance service at St. Michael will be Monday, April 7, at 7 p.m. We will have around 12 priests for confessions.

On a human level most of us put off doing things we really don't like to do. Perhaps we approach confession in this same vain. It's not easy to acknowledge our sins and to take responsibility for what we have done, let alone tell someone else all our failings. Furthermore, we have an enemy that loves to play on our weakness. The devil especially wants us to feel ashamed or embarrassed of our sins. The evil one knows the moment of grace and healing is when we are willing to bring our darkness to the Light of Christ.

Rather than approaching confession with trepidation, we should approach it with confidence in God's mercy. We hear in the gospel today that Jesus tells the woman caught in adultery, "Neither do I condemn you." Jesus has not come to condemn us but to save us. All he asks of us is to have a repentant heart and to express contrition for our past sins.

Jesus told St. Faustina, "It is in confession that I wait for you." We so easily focus on ourselves and our sins rather than approaching confession with our eyes on Christ and his Mercy. In each confession we encounter Jesus who truly touches our soul and heals us.

One of the reasons I like to go to confession is to truly know in my heart the peace of God's forgiveness. Jesus wants each of us to know the peace that flows from his mercy as we prepare for Easter.

Night of Healing Through Forgiveness

What wound is renting space in your heart that needs to be evicted? What does that wound have to do with Forgiveness? Chuck Jansen, founder of the Forgiveness Institute, KC Inc. has been studying and teaching "Forgiveness 101" for the last 12 years. Join us April 10, at 7 p.m. in the Parish Hall for a 90-minute night full of inspiring, thought provoking, guided meditation that hopes to be contrite, empathetic, and pleading to the Divine for help in letting go of wounds and moving on. ## Important! Virtus Background Check Updates Needed

All parishes in the Archdiocese are working towards getting all volunteers with a background check older than five years updated. Many of you have received an email requesting that you login to your Virtus account and complete the background check renewal. This will be a phased rollout at SMA, as we are blessed with hundreds of volunteers working with our youth and vulnerable adults.

How you can help: If you know it has been over five years since you completed a background check, login to your Virtus account at virtusonline.org from your computer and if you have a background prompt, complete it in one transaction, without hitting the back button. If you haven't received a prompt and know you need one, contact Safe Environment Coordinator Jessica Klein at jessica.klein@stmichaelcp.org to get the process started.

Thank you to those who have already completed.

Formation Series with Fr. Waldeck

As we continue to seek the freedom of Hope in this Jubilee Year, Fr. Waldeck is offering a four-week series on the pillars of the Catechism from 7-8:30 p.m. in the Parish Hall, April 9 and 16. Topics focus on What we believe (the profession of faith), how we worship (the celebration of the Christian Mystery), how we live (life in Christ), and concludes with how we pray (Christian prayer).

You may attend any or all sessions.
