Gospel Reflection

In Blaise Pascal's work, Pensees, he says: "What else does this craving, and this helplessness, proclaim but that there was once in man a true happiness, of which all that now remains is the empty print and trace? This he tries in vain to fill with everything around him, seeking in things that are not there the help he cannot find in those that are, though none can help, since this infinite abyss can be filled only with an infinite and immutable object; in other words by God himself."

We have a difficult time accepting that fulfillment and happiness are not achieved by our own merits but through a relationship with God. We are hardwired for this relationship and it is in our DNA. The simple fact is that we come from God and are designed to return to God. If our beginning and our end define who we are, why would we not want to seek the One who can truly satisfy? The world does not realize that it is waiting. It is waiting for the birth of God in time, within one's soul and in eternity. We get so confused by seeking other momentary satisfactions that we misinterpret the hunger within. We crave God.

The union of God and humanity, revealed in Jesus Christ, is precisely what sets us on a straight path, orders our relationships, establishes proper focus and goals and tells us whose kingdom we really are meant to serve. We are so lost. God is with us. The prophet Nathan told this to King David, the angel said this to Mary and the birth of Christ brings this Good News to us. We do not need to be busily looking for more things but must learn to find contentment and blessing in the One Presence. This is the beautiful simple message of Advent!

If you are feeling unsettled, anxious, angry, disgruntled, disconnected, unhappy, worried, fearful, off center, becoming overly self-indulgent, unable to spend time alone and without distraction, then there's a good chance you are lost. Now is the time to allow God to find you! Ponder the holy simplicity of Mary's call to be the Mother of God. "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word." When we are helpless and at home with our emptiness, God will fill us. Our Savior has come.

Stewardship
a way of life

In the first reading, God promises King David that his house and his kingdom will endure forever. It is through Mary's 'Yes" – "I am the handmaid of the Lord Let it be done to me as you say." – that the promise finds fulfillment.

Question of the Week

Q: What is the difference between apostles and disciples

A: When we look at the gospel accounts of the life of Jesus, we see two special titles applied to his followers: apostles and disciples. At first glance, we might think that these two words are interchangeable, but when we look at what each one means, we quickly see that the evangelists were using them very specifically. When we look more closely, we see that while Jesus had many disciples, the group of apostles was much more limited and referred to Jesus' closest collaborators.

The word apostle essentially means "one who is sent forth" or, as we might think of it today, "an ambassador." The group of apostles — sometimes called the Twelve — included those twelve men who formed Jesus' inner circle (see Mark 3:13-14; Luke 6:12-13). It was this group that received the gift of the Holy Spirit and who were sent out by Jesus with the special mission of forgiving sins on that first Easter Sunday (see John 20:19-23). In time, the Catholic Tradition also recognize Saint Paul and Saint Barnabas as apostles, recognizing that they also shared the mandate of going out in the Lord's name to pray, to bless, and to preach. In 2016, during the Jubilee of Mercy, Pope Francis raised the liturgical celebration of Saint Mary Magdalene to the rank of feast, recognizing that she also received a special mandate to proclaim the good news of Jesus' resurrection to the Eleven, becoming the "apostle to the apostles." In a particular way, the bishops continue the mission of the apostles in our own time.

When we think of the word disciple, we see that it has a very different meaning. Rather than referring to those who were sent out to carry on the mission of Jesus, disciple literally means "student" or, more specially, an "apprentice learner." The task of the disciple is to learn and integrate into their lives the teachings, values, and way of life of their master teacher. Although a disciple might be called on to explain or represent aspects of their life, in light of the teachings they receive from this master teacher, Christian discipleship is ultimately about living our lives with faith and integrity, guided by the life and mission of Jesus, our Master Teacher. The call to discipleship is the common vocation of all Christians. ©LPi

High School Guys & Girls Morning Retreats – Sat., January 2nd, 9am-12pm

(NEW DATE/TIME!) All 9th-12th grade youth are invited to a morning retreat titled "True North". Due to COVID-19, we're making adjustment to our youth ministry events: the high school Guys' and Girls' retreats will be shortened to just the morning (9am-12pm) and run simultaneously on the same day (Saturday, January 2nd). We hope you'll join us for this powerful and packed morning of retreat! During each retreat, we will discuss what it means to follow Jesus, who is our True North. We'll have real conversations about authentic love, dating and relationships, and the struggles of living chastity. There is no cost to attend, but participants must sign up in advance. All participants who register by Wed, December 30th will receive a free "True North" sticker (for your water bottle or computer!).

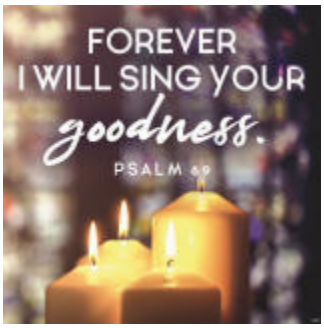
Youth Book Club

(Most Fridays, 6:30-7pm before Fyshbowl in the Social Hall) (NEW TIME!) Join your Fyshbowl family 6:30-7pm social-distanced in the Social Hall before Fyshbowl youth nights, for our Book Club! This Fall, we'll study Scripture using the book "Bible Basics for Catholics" by Dr. John Bergsma. All 6th-12th grade youth are invited.

Fyshbowl

(Most Fridays, 7-9pm in the Social Hall) Verso L'Alto! To the Heights! These words were used by mountain climber, Blessed Pier Georgia Frasatti's and are the 2020-2021 Fyshbowl theme! Join us as we strive towards the heights of holiness at Fyshbowl youth nights, most Friday nights this year, 7-9pm social-distanced in the Social Hall. Nights are lead by our High School Core Team and will include a game, lesson, small group discussion, and prayer. All 6th-12th grade youth are invited. There is no cost to attend Book Club or Fyshbowl, but you must sign up in advance: https://www.sthenrycatholic.info/fyshbowl

Faith Formation



This week in Advent we light the fourth candle on the advent wreath. This is called the Angels candle. This candle is for love. The angels announced the good news of a Savior. "…I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord" (Luke 2:10b-11). God sent his only Son to earth to save us, because he loves us! "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him" (John 3:16-17) As we grow closer to Christmas the candles lit on the advent wreath symbolize the light that is penetrating the darkness in our lives. The reflection of the light is especially poignant this year as we hear this will be one of the darkest winters. Let us remember that no matter how difficult things are, the darkness can never overpower the light. John 8:12 "Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world; he who follows me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

We will have our Parent/Child First Reconciliation retreat on January 16th from 8:45am-Noon. PLEASE NOTE THE DATE CHANGE. We are in need of a few station leader volunteers. Please contact Jessica Soden to help!
