Synod Prayer—Year of St. Joseph

Heavenly Father, who gave St. Joseph to Jesus and Mary as protector and guide, grant that our Archdiocesan Synod, under his protection and guidance, may help us discern your direction for our Church. May we listen as he listened, trust as he trusted, obey as he obeyed, receive as he received, love as he loved, and share in his life of devotion to Jesus and Mary. Amen.
St. Joseph, pray for us.

Gospel Reflection

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

If I only knew then what I know now, how different life would be. This sentiment, expressed in myriad ways, is found on every human being's lips at one point or another. Life may have brought us to a vulnerable place where we see some of the poor choices we made and the effects they are having. Perhaps we fell into some destructive and dysfunctional relationships or behaviors and are finding how they held us captive. Our zeal and passion for life may have drifted away and we are waking up to the reasons apathy has taken hold. Life can be hard. In fact, some would describe their lives as a drudgery. They walk through each day with an anxious unsettledness, wondering when their restlessness will cease. There is a temptation to believe that what I see is all I will get. Mortality and hopelessness await the dawn. If I could only have known what would come in the future, I could have made better choices and avoided all of this misery!

Really? While we can certainly give into weakness, sin, impulsiveness, and idiosyncrasies that cause us to stumble over ourselves, life is really a journey. If we don't make the mistake of wallowing in the mire of self-pity and realize the new life God is calling us to, then there are thrills, adventures, surprises, and soul-searching graces we can surely miss. We are not tethered to our past nor are we bound to the ills life can bring upon us. We are never hopeless or helpless. The problem is that our myopic vision only allows us to see the misery and misfortune that is before us, not the potential that can come from choosing healthier and more life-giving options. Jesus came that we might have fullness of life. We need to learn how to reach for Jesus' hand and let him help us to our feet.

We need to allow God into our pain and heal our past. We have to wrestle with our histories, agonize and search and cry out for the Divine healing we need to restore our faith, hope, and love. Job could not see how his story would end or trust the guidance of the God who called him. We live in that same blindness and suffer from the same lack of confidence. Once we allow ourselves to be touched by God's healing power, we begin to see that all of the pieces of our lives are necessary parts of a greater whole. Along the way of our lives, God uses our omissions and failures to create new things and possibilities. When doors close, others open and we can be amazed by the joyful and unexpected surprises we receive. Once we know the power of God's creative, healing, life-giving, forgiving, and dynamic presence, it is no wonder we want to put ourselves at the service of others and show them what life can be. ©Lpi

Faith Formation

Preparing for Lent

Lent begins on February 17th; these next few weeks are a great time to start preparing what prayers and sacrifices you will make this Lent. Our lower nature finds things like sacrifice and fasting uncomfortable, but our souls and spiritual lives are strengthened and are greatly enriched by these important disciplines. The Church in her wisdom knows this and gives us seasons where we are obligated to offer extra prayer, fasting and alms giving. These things are so fruitful and help us to have a deeper appreciation for our dependence on God and they also strengthen us, helping us not to be a slave to our whims and self-indulgences. Spend some time these next couple weeks making a plan, asking the Holy Spirit to guide you to what things would most benefit you to take on spiritually this Lent. The Faith Formation families will be receiving a Lenten packet with activities, suggestions, and prayers to use for the season. These will be ready to be picked up on February 10th.

First Communion Clothing Donation

Each year we set out a stand with donated First Communion clothing for anyone who would like to donate new or gently used First Communion dresses or suits. Anyone preparing for First Communion may take the donated items. This stand is by the office.
