THE HOLY FAMILY

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man. - Lk 2:51-52

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph

Families can be very difficult things to negotiate. This is true not only of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our Church, our society, and our global family as well. Everything human can be found in family stories. Those stories speak of wonderful life-giving successes as well as painful spirit-robbing abuses. Our greatest joys and our greatest wounds are usually connected with the experience of family. Our needs, experiences, and unresolved baggage often color what we bring to our familiar relationships. They contribute to our level of defensiveness, how guarded and protected we become, and what prejudices we believe.

In order to break the cycle of dysfunction we have to remember that it is not only by human effort that we negotiate the difficult and challenging events of our lives. There is a Divine Effort at work as well. For sure, the human effort can create quite a mess and easily destroy lives. This is true of any family with which we are associated. Today's Feast of the Holy Family serves to help us understand that there is a Divine Story being told as well. It is a story of perseverance in the face of hardship, determination in the face of despair, healing when we see nothing but wounds, and light where there is darkness.

Do we believe that God is always working, guiding, restoring, and leading? Unless we do, we will never be free from the imperfections and wounds that bind us and never be able to understand what it really means to forgive. Pope Francis tells us that the "light which comes from the Holy Family encourages us to offer human warmth to other families." While this is most certainly true, we can only really begin to do this when we realize that we are still works in progress, not anchored to the wounds and sins of our past, and still a leading star in God's continually unfolding story of love. The Holy Family persevered and radiated warmth because they knew they were not alone. We can too.

Options for Women | Cornerstone

"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God." (Philippians 4:6) St. Paul reminds us that God is an abundant God. He is the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. Remember, that we are created in God's image and likeness. We, too, are made to be generous with all our gifts as well. Placing our trust in God allows us to share ourselves and our goods gratefully and generously with others and sharing with Cornerstone saves lives! Please consider supporting Cornerstone as part of your year-end giving. Cornerstone Women's Center is a registered 501(c)3 organization, FEIN: 45-3801536, and is eligible to receive qualified charitable distributions that count toward your required minimum distribution. Missionaries receive a $2,520 stipend for the summer, and meals and lodging are provided. Q & A

Q: I have been away from the Church for a few years and really want to get active again, not so much for me, but for my children. Is this a bad reason to come back to church?

A: If you are on your way to the supermarket, and you are forced to detour from your usual route because of road work, does the food you buy taste different? Is the meal less filling? Are the vegetables less tasty? Of course not. In our faith journey, there are many detours called sin. Some are greater than others, some are even a bit longer. But God's grace comes to us in ways we understand and recognize and need. Your children leading you back to the Church is not as important as the fact that you are back. This is an opportunity for you to renew, strengthen, and deepen your faith. Regardless of how we get to Church, or what draws us closer to God, the fact is we are there. Do what you need to do to get right with God and the Church. Go to confession, begin good family religious practices, and be involved in the ministries your parish offers. Be more than a lukewarm parishioner. Be the kind of Catholic you want your children to be. ©LPI

Faith Formation

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd

We have been working on expanding and growing our program for 3-6-year-old children. We use the Catechesis of the Good Shepherd which is a Montessori environment for teaching the Faith. It is a beautiful hands on atrium with materials that teach the children the most essential scriptural and catechetical elements of the Catholic Faith in a way that works with the developmental stage of the child. We will be co-hosting a training with St. Michael January 21-22, Feb. 18-19, March 18th-19th (this weekend will be at St. Michael) from 9AM-4:30PM. This will be a Level I part I training and the following year there will be a Level I part II training to complete the certificate. We would love to have many more people trained to facilitate this incredible program. If you are interested in learning more please contact Jessica Soden: soden@sthenrycatholic.com or 763.271.3079.

First Communion Clothing

Each year we put out a donation rack for new or gently used First Communion clothing that anyone may take. This rack will be in the hallway by the office.
