The Epiphany of the Lord

In his Apostolic Exhortation, The Joy of the Gospel, Pope Francis references a thought from Pope Benedict XVI: "Being a Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction." Today we celebrate an encounter with the Person of Jesus Christ! This simple but holy event in time dramatically changes human life, pointing it toward a new horizon and giving it a decisive direction. This is a message and truth that is not meant to be shared with only a select few who qualify but with the entire world. Pope Francis continues saying, "Thanks solely to this encounter or renewed encounter with God's love, which blossoms into an enriching friendship, we are liberated from our narrowness and self-absorption. We become fully human when we become more than human, when we let God bring us beyond ourselves in order to attain the fullest truth of our being."

Look around at people. Where is life heading for them? What gives them direction? Even we who are people of faith can get distracted and lose our focus. God, in all of His fullness, is revealed in Jesus Christ and we can encounter Him! God is tangible, real, vulnerable, poor, and full of wonders, surprises, and opportunities. For those who are struggling and lost, today is a day of great joy. All they have to do is reach out and touch the truth of Christ. This presence is revealed in the poor, exploited, and vulnerable ones who cry out for compassion and love. But it is also found in the faithful ones who see in the Epiphany of God a liberation from structures and systems that hurt us, a narrowness of mind and heart that constricts us, and an absorption in our self-agenda that prevents us from seeing anything other than ourselves as important.

We have been given the charge of preaching this Good News. If only we could find a way to be more effective, it might stand a chance of doing what God intended it to do. There is always tomorrow and our memory of that bright new light that shone so brilliantly that Bethlehem night pointing us to truth and reminding us that we are loved.

The three kings in today's Gospel traveled a great distance at considerable cost to offer their richest gifts to the Infant Jesus. How far will I go and what will I offer to do homage to this newborn King and Savior?

Operation Andrew Dinner

Archbishop Bernard A. Hebda and Father David Blume, Director of Vocations, invite men, ages 16 and older, who are discerning their vocations, to join them for dinner and conversation about priesthood and religious life. Typically, guests invite their pastor, youth minister or a religious brother to meet them at the Archdiocesan Catholic Center for the Operation Andrew Dinner. Online registration is required. For more information and to register, see 10000vocations.org.

A Journey Through the Bible

The Catechetical Institute invites you to A Journey through the Bible. This 8-week course taught by Jeff Cavins, will help you understand your faith and deepen your relationship with God by teaching you to read the Bible as a story. Weaving in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, this unique Bible study will show you how a knowledge salvation history and its relationship to Church teaching can help you live God's plan of sheer goodness!

Cost is $100 for in person attendance, or $75 via live stream. For more information, live stream satellite parish locations, and to register, visit Clstudent.com.

Prayer Service for Life

A prayer service will be held on Saturday, January 22, 10:30 a.m., at the Cathedral of Saint Paul. This prayer service commemorates the millions of lives lost to abortion and the many women and men wounded by abortion's aftermath. All are invited and welcome. Saint John Paul II Champions for Life Awardees will be recognized during the prayer service. This event is sponsored by the Office of Marriage, Family and Life. FMI: visit archspm.org/prayer-service-life or call 651.291.4488.

Question & Answer

Q: What happens to a consecrated host if it accidentally falls to the ground?

A: This is a very practical question because, as we all know, accidents happen, even during the most careful celebration of the liturgy. The short answer to this question is that nothing happens to the consecrated host. The Real Presence of Jesus remains in the consecrated host or any consecrated wine that might accidentally be spilled.

Another question we might ask is: How should the ministers respond if the Eucharist is dropped or spilled? If this happens, the priest, deacon, or extraordinary minister of holy Communion should immediately pick up the dropped host and consume it. If it is a case of the Precious Blood being spilled, the minister would use the purificator (and additional purificators if needed) to clean the spill and then the area should be reverently washed as soon as the Mass is over and the water poured into the sacrarium (a special sink that is located in church sacristies for reverently disposing of holy water, the water used to clean sacred vessels, etc.). ©LPi

Faith Formation

The Three Kings

On January 2nd we celebrate the Magi, the three Kings finding Jesus the Christ Child and presenting their gifts. Epiphany is Greek for "to manifest" or "to show". The Feast of the Epiphany marks the first manifestation of the birth of Christ to the Gentiles. The Three Kings – Melchor, Caspar, and Balthazar — had come from the East in search of the Christ child. The Three Kings, also known as the Magi or the Wise Men, brought with them gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh – gold signifying that Jesus is King; frankincense, the symbol of prayer, signifying that Jesus is the Son of God, and myrrh, which is used to anoint the dead, signifying that Jesus would die for the salvation of all. This great day let us present ourselves and what gifts we can offer to our King. There is also a great blessing for the home that you can do today. Please go to this website for the house blessing on the feast of the Epiphany: <https://secureservercdn.net/198.71.233.213/91i.9be.myftpupload.com/wp-content/uploads/2021/11/epiphanyceremony2022.pdf?time=1640099160> There are also copies of this blessing along with blessed chalk that you can pick up in the gathering space.

First Reconciliation Parent/Child Retreat

The required retreat for all those preparing to receive their First Reconciliation will be on Saturday, January 8th from 8:45 am-Noon. All students are asked to have one parent or guardian attend the retreat with them. We are also in need of volunteer adult station leaders and teen helpers for this retreat. If you are interested in helping please contact Jessica Soden for more information: 763-271-3079, jsoden@sthenrycatholic.com.

First Communion Clothing

Each year we put out a donation rack for new or gently used First Communion clothing that anyone may take. This rack will be in the hallway by the office.
