THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

The question of the use of vaccines, in general, is often a topic of public debate. Currently, we find ourselves in the middle of such a debate over the use of Covid-19 vaccines. As with any topic of debate, it is prudent for us, as Catholics, to know and understand what the Church is telling us regarding the issue.

How do we know what the Church says? There are many questions raised about the morality of using the Covid-19 vaccines. The Church takes these questions very seriously and discusses them thoroughly, in order to provide guidance for her faithful.

The moral question at the center of this debate is related to the research and production of the vaccine itself, which employed cell lines drawn from tissue obtained from two abortions that occurred in the last century.

The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith (CDF) has addressed this topic in several documents in the past several years. One of these, entitled Dignitatis Personae, states that in cases where cells from aborted fetuses are employed to create cell lines for use in scientific research, “there exist differing degrees of responsibility” of cooperation in evil. For example, “in organizations where cell lines of illicit origin are being utilized, the responsibility of those who make the decision to use them (drug companies) is not the same as that of those who have no voice (us) in such a decision.”

What does this mean? the CDF states that “When vaccines without any ethical problems are not made available to physicians and patients in a time of serious need (like in the current pandemic) “It is morally acceptable to receive Covid-19 vaccines that have used cell lines from aborted fetuses in their research and production process.” The CDF further states: “It must therefore be considered that, in such a case, all vaccinations recognized as clinically safe and effective can be used in good conscience with the certain knowledge that the use of such vaccines does not constitute formal cooperation with the abortion from which the cells used in production of the vaccines derive.” It is important to note however that there is a certain degree of remote cooperation involved with the use of the vaccines.

The Church is saying that the cooperation for the faithful Catholic is remote enough, and the threat of the Covid virus is grave enough, to constitute the ability of the faithful Catholic to receive the vaccines in good conscience. They also state that: “Practical reason makes evident that vaccination is not, as a rule, a moral obligation and that, therefore, it must be voluntary.”

We will be making information on the specific vaccines available in the near future. Be safe, be well, and God bless.

You can expect to receive your letter by January 30th. Thank you all for your generosity throughout the year!

PASTOR'S NOTES

Merry Christmas on this Feast of Epiphany and a Happy New year!

As we continue to celebrate the Holy Season of Christmas, the birth of Christ, together with Fr. Grossman, Msgr. Pilon, Deacon Bredemeier, Sara Dudley-our school principal, and our Parish and School staff, I pray God's grace and blessing upon our parish family.

May you know the peace of Christ and may His light, the Star of Bethlehem, shine truth and goodness upon your heart and mind.

Thank you again for your kindness to us.

Thank you for your Christmas greetings, treats, cards and gifts. Your kindness and generosity are a blessing to us. I pray we may serve you faithfully through the New Year.

Thank you for your financial support to your parish.

God's humble service to us began as a child, as one of us. He continued to love and serve us, to the point of offering His life on the Cross.

As followers of Christ Jesus, I thank you for the gifts of your time, your talents, and your treasure that you have shared with St. Michael's this past year!

It is heartwarming during the pandemic challenge to see many offering their donations to support St. Michael parish ministries and the mission Christ has called us to fulfill—to preach and teach in His Name for the salvation of humanity.

God bless you for your generosity. God bless you for caring. Thank you again for your kindness. We will be sending out individual financial giving statements towards the middle to late January.

Christmas Memorials.

We are blessed to celebrate our Sacred Liturgies surrounded by the glowing warmth of a beautiful Christmas environment.

We thank those who offered Christmas Flower Memorials on behalf of their loved ones this year. Your gifts helped provide for a beautiful Christmas environment in which to celebrate our Lord's Birth. May God bless your loved ones as we remember them in our prayers at Mass.

Thank you for the Christmas and New Year's Liturgies.

Once again I wish to extend our appreciation to everyone who served in our Christmas and New Year's liturgies. Thanks to our adornment volunteers who provided a beautiful Christmas setting for our celebrations. We thank our Choir for their wonderful choral music, our Organists and Cantors for the sacred music you shared with us. We thank our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Proclaimers, Greeters, and Altar Servers. And we thank our children and parents who assisted with the Christmas Eve Posada. It was delightful.

What to make of the COVID vaccine?

I wonder whether the suffering of the COVID pandemic and its many hardships and deaths, weigh little alongside the scale of death perpetrated against innocent human life in the womb.

However, prudential judgment and common sense bids us to do what we can to help prevent the further spread of the virus. To that end, the USCCB and The Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith (CDF) have issued statements concluding that "it is morally acceptable to receive Covid-19 vaccines that used cells lines from aborted fetuses in their research and production process."

There is no moral ambiguity here, but the well-reasoned understanding of moral principles founded on the teaching authority of the Church. Elsewhere in our bulletin Fr. Grossman has offered a summary from our Bishop letter and the CDF regarding the Church's consent to receiving the vaccine. We leave it up to the competence of those in the medical arts to speak to the efficacy of the vaccine and your own conscience in pursuing it.

Heads up, join us for a special "Right to Life" Mass Edmund Burke stated that "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing." I believe that with the changing political landscape, we will again see a renewed onslaught of ominous forces maliciously attacking innocent human lives in their mother's wombs.

Many may not all be able to fight this evil in the political sphere, but God will ask an accounting of how we tried to help protect the sanctity of life with our prayers. The Mass will be held on Friday, January 22 at 7:00 p.m.

I will be away on a vacation break.

I will be taking a vacation break with priest friends returning on Tuesday, January 19. I am grateful to Fr. Grossman, and Msgr. GOSPEL MEDITATION

“Where is that thing?” mumbled Bob as he searched frantically on his dimly lit desk for the current electric bill. “I know I put it right on top of these papers this morning!” Growing in frustration and bordering on anger, he flies stuff around, moves books and opines why simple tasks need to be so hard. Enter his wife, who calmly says, “Maybe it would help if you put the light on, dear.” The desk light goes on and lo and behold, there is the electric bill right where Bob left it earlier. All it took was a little light!

We stubbornly refuse to turn on the lights! Either we are distracted, determined, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Or perhaps, we fail to do the obvious. We would rather live our lives with the dimmest of lights or even in total darkness. Why are we afraid to do something so that we can actually see? It might help us to find quicker and better answers to problems, the meaning of life, relationships, happiness, and what is ultimate truth. Yet, we stumble along, moving things from one side to the other, getting angry, feeling cheated, being unsettled, resigning ourselves to the agony of defeat once again.

“And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was.” The light has come into the world in the person of Jesus Christ! We no longer have to fumble in the darkness. We have been gifted with the illumination we need to see our way through things and find what we really are looking for. All these years later, however, so many are still reluctant to accept him. Perhaps they are unconvinced, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Everyone has their own reason for not wanting to turn on the switch.

But there are so many answers to so many of our problems in this humble Child of Nazareth. A simple birth teaches us about God’s tender wedded relationship with humanity. It speaks to the expanse of God’s salvation across the globe, and the incarnate Divine wonders and blessings that are a part of our life moment to moment. It calls us to understand the design of world order God intended as found in the Beatitudes, the sacredness of every human life and all of creation and the meaning of things we struggle with most, like suffering and death. We have a lot of Good News to share, not just with a privileged few but with all the world. All races and creeds can receive God’s healing word. God continues to manifest himself even now! Use the light to find what you are really looking for!

Everyday Stewardship

Wise Men See God in the Simple Things

If you’re on social media, you have probably seen a meme going around that features this quote: “God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace.”

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God’s and Herod’s. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn’t entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn’t say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I’ll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod’s charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe.

The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it’s enough to remember this: God’s plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let’s have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration.
