WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

'And you shall be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the ends of the earth' (Acts 1:8).

Each of us is missionary by our Baptism and called to give witness to Christ by our lives. This year is unique as it marks the 200th anniversary of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith and its founder, Pauline Jaricot, who was beatified in 2022, as they guide us together to pray, to share and to serve God's mission to the ends of the earth. Funds collected on World Mission Sunday go to support the pastoral, catechetical, charitable and evangelizing work of the Church in over 1,150 mission dioceses in 120 countries.

Envelopes are in your parishioner packets as well as in the pews. A Second Collection will be taken for World Mission Sunday. Thanks for your generosity.

Gospel Meditation - 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In last week's readings we were encouraged to remain persistent and constant in our prayer life. Today we focus on the proper attitude of a steward at prayer.

In the Gospel passage from Luke, Jesus illustrates the humble attitude we must have as we approach God in prayer through a parable of two praying men. One is a Pharisee, a man with respected status, theological training and all the right credentials. He marches right up to the front of the temple to speak a prayer "to himself," thanking God for making him just a little bit superior to everyone else!

The other man is a tax collector, known by those of his day to be a cheater and a sell-out to his fellow Jews. In contrast to the Pharisee, he stands near the back and cries out to God in a simple and honest way: "Be merciful to me a sinner."

Jesus tells us that it is the tax collector and not the Pharisee who leaves the temple justified. Why?

The Pharisee was full of self as he approached God. He felt no real need for God as he rattled off his resume of good works and spiritual practices. He was simply going through the motions of prayer. His lack of humility prevented him from entering into a real dialogue with the Father. He was not transformed by his time of prayer because he was so full of himself that He left God no space to enter in.

The tax collector, by contrast, emptied himself as he approached God. He recognized who he truly was (a sinner) and asked simply for mercy, leaving all the rest up to God. This is the kind of attitude that God can work with! This is how a good steward prays - with trust, with complete openness to God's will, with a listening mind and heart, ready to serve as God leads.

Stewardship Reflections by Catholic Stewardship Consultants

What color vestment is Father wearing?

Throughout the Church's liturgical year, priests wear several different color vestments. The colors signify a deeper meaning with a specific spiritual theme according to the day in the church's calendar. When attending Holy Mass, recognize the color and associate it with a season or day celebrated.

Color	Meaning	Time of Year
Green	Hope/Life.	Used during Ordinary Time.
Red	Sacrifice.	For Pentecost, the Holy Spirit, Passion Sunday, Good Friday, Feasts of apostles, martyrs.
White/Gold	= Joy/Purity.	For Easter, Christmas, feasts of Jesus, Mary & certain saints.
Pink	Joy/Love.	For 3rd Sunday of Advent and the 4th Sunday of Lent.
Purple	Preparation/Penance.	For Lent and for Advent.
Blue	Blessed Virgin Mary

A Prayer for Post-Abortive Mothers

Lord of all Life,
You have entrusted us to the care of one another,
And called us to be one Body in Christ.
You call us to rejoice with those who rejoice,
And to weep with those who weep.
Lord, you have compared the love you have for us
To the love a mother has for her own child.

Hear our pray today
For all mothers who have lost children to abortion.
Help us to understand
The Pain that is in their hearts,
And to be a living sign to them
Of your welcome, your mercy, and your healing.
Help them to undergo with courage
The process of grief and the journey of healing.
Never allow them to feel alone;
Always refresh them with the presence of Your Spirit
And of their brothers and sisters in Christ.
Console them with the sure hope
That you love and care for their children.

Give them new strength,
That even while they grieve what they have lost,
They may look forward to all the good
That you still have in store for them.

Lord of healing and hope,
Give us all the forgiveness of our sins,
And the joy of your salvation.

We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord.
Amen.
