School Corner

At St. Elizabeth, stewardship (the faithful sharing of time, talent, and treasure) has always been the cornerstone for funding all of our parish ministries, including our school. This funding model is rare in Catholic schools today and ensures an affordable Catholic education for the children of our active parishioners. This school year it will cost us more than $6,800 per student to educate the children of our parish.

We have been able to sustain this model at St. Elizabeth for 100 years because of the generosity of all parishioners, whether or not they have children currently enrolled in the school. THANK YOU for helping keep St. Elizabeth Ann Seton's legacy of affordable Catholic education alive here at STE with your tithing, and annual gifts to the Heritage Fund and Endowment Trust Fund.

Pastor's Corner

Dear Parishioners,

In 1997, I traveled to El Salvador with a group from Visitation when I was Associate Pastor there. It was such an exciting and eventful experience, and I remember looking out the window when the plane took off from El Salvador and saying, "I'll be back someday." In the meantime, I took two trips to Guatemala when I was pastor at Our Lady of Guadalupe in St. Joseph. Each journey was equally full of grace as the trip to El Salvador. But I haven't forgotten my promise about El Salvador from 1997: "I'll be back someday."

Someday has finally arrived. I am traveling with our delegation to El Salvador this Wednesday, 2/2, through Wednesday, 2/9! I'm excited about this journey, as I will see El Salvador again, and encounter the people and places with whom we as a parish are connected. It will be an honor to meet the young people and their families who benefit from the scholarship program. It will be exciting to see the people and places we help with basic needs of clean water and safe shelter. And it will be inspiring to listen to people's stories of faith in the midst of challenging life journeys.

What I learned on my previous trips to Central America is that the travelers, even as we give significantly to support our brothers and sisters in El Salvador, receive much more than we give. The dynamic of such a relationship offers tremendous blessing in both directions. I remember so many people I've met in both El Salvador and Guatemala who, in spite of significant challenges and hardship, have a deep and lively faith, a joy that is enduring, and a generosity and concern for one another that is inspiring and instructive.

I'm excited about the journey. There are some extra steps to take since we're traveling during a pandemic, of course, including a negative COVID test prior to departure and return. We have also been assured that Covid protocols, including masking and social distancing, are being practiced there faithfully, and that every step will be taken to keep us healthy. Pray for us as we travel. And know that we will pray for you, and give thanks for the honor to represent St. Elizabeth once again on this journey of faith!

Peace,
Fr. Greg

Pray for our Military

We remember in our prayers the loved ones of our parish family who serve in the military:

Major James Harris, son-in-law of John and Kieran Cullinan; SPC Riley Head, nephew of Sarah Darmitzel; John Kelly, son of Joe Kelly; Captain Michael Medina, son of Frank and Teresa Medina; Luis Moen, son of Gary and Bridget Moen; Ross Ryan Nigro, grandson of Gloria Nigro; Jeremy Rice, son of Mike and Catherine Rice

Please notify the parish office when a loved one is serving in and returning home from the military.

Dollars and Sense

In an effort to increase awareness and understanding of our parish's finances, each week in this column we will provide updates and information regarding a variety of topics.

Year-End Statements

Thank you to everyone who was able to meet or exceed their 2021 tithing commitment to St. Elizabeth. We finished December with no year-end shortfall. Please prayerfully consider your role in helping to continue this positive momentum in 2022.

2021 contribution statements will be mailed on or before January 31, 2022, to all contributing households. Due to ongoing postal delays please allow extra time to receive your statement.

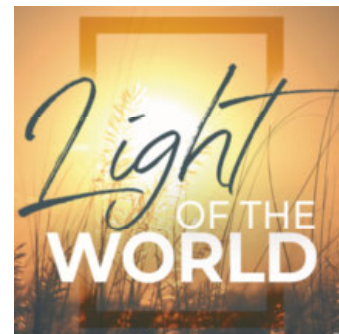

Stewardship

In today's second reading we find one of the most beautiful and familiar passages in the Bible; a recitation of fifteen characteristics of Christian love typically read at weddings and anniversary celebrations. Of course, this was not what Saint Paul had in mind when he was chastising the Christian community at Corinth for its lack of love. He admonished the members of the community to exercise better stewardship of Christian love. The practice of patience, humility, joy, truth, peace, affirmation, and hope are ways good stewards put love into action. Might there be one or two of these attributes we can work on in order to grow in our love for God and others?

~International Catholic Stewardship Council

Stewardship Shout-Outs:

- To the generations of parishioners and school families who have generously shared their time, talent and treasure over the past 100 years to help build our STE school community

Life Corner Presented by The Respect Life Ministry (RLM) of St. Elizabeth

As we prepare to celebrate Catholic Schools Week, we commend our school parents for prioritizing a Catholic education for their children. St. Elizabeth School teaches children much more than reading, writing, and arithmetic. Children receive religious and moral formation, in a world badly in need of Gospel values. St. Elizabeth Respect Life Ministry celebrates our school's commitment to pass on the teachings of Pope Francis and our U.S. Bishops, especially on pro-life issues.

"The threat of abortion remains our preeminent priority because it directly attacks life itself, because it takes place within the sanctuary of the family, and because of the number of lives destroyed," Archbishop Joseph Naumann of Kansas City, Kansas, Chairman of the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops Respect Life Committee
