99 EFFECTIVE WAYS

TO EVANGELIZE AS A CATHOLIC

No. 19: Wear a crucifix or scapular. Say a brief prayer before you put it on.

CENTRO HISPANO

I am not sure of the history of Centro Hispano on St. John Campus, but I am sad to announce their move from our campus to their new location at 543 Lawrence Ave., Lawrence 66049. It was great to be physically associated with the Center. Our closeness to all the good work that they have done was a great sign to us and the neighborhood of the concern for those in need. As a parish we will continue to support them in their work through a meager monthly stipend that they will use for gift cards to Checkers. If parishioners want to continue donating, please send your support to them directly. I am also happy for them. I have been at their new location and it is a great place where they will be able to talk and help people in a space that has the necessary office space and pantry. To all the people that make up Centro Hispano – We will miss you. God bless you in your service and enjoy your new home!

FIRST FRIDAY ROSARY

The Knights of Columbus pray the Rosary the first Friday of the month. Everyone is welcome. Please join us in the church July 1 at 6:30 pm.

FIRST SATURDAY

We will celebrate the 1st Saturday in July with a Rosary at 7:30am followed by Mass at 8:00am. Our celebrant will be Fr. Jason. Join our rosary mediation on July 2 as we focus on the 4th Joyful Mystery. The fruit of the Presentation of Jesus in the Temple in our tradition is "obedience." We will reflect on the connection between obedience and freedom on a spiritual level. Do the laws of God really restrict our freedom as some would have us believe? How is it that our obedience to the Will of God truly frees us? There will be no formal discussion after mass, but feel free to hang around for a while if you want to talk informally.

GROCERY CARDS SOLD AFTER MASS TO PAY GYM MORTGAGE

Grocery cards will be sold after all Masses on the July 9 and 10. Please bring cash or check to purchase Checkers, Merc, and Hy Vee* grocery cards. Sales will be set up outdoors near the north door of the church. Grocery cards are sold to you at face value, and the grocery stores donate 5 to 6 percent of sales toward St. John School. Donations will be targeted to the mortgage on the gymnasium.

To pre-order cards, or to help, email Nora at: noramurphy777@gmail.com, or phone 785-727-5083. *If you shop at Dillon's and need help setting up the auto-donation there, please call.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SOCIAL ACTION

By The Social Concerns for Peace and Justice Committee

We have, as a country, once again been shaken to the core by the multitude of incidents of the misuse of guns in our communities; in Buffalo, New York; in Uvalde, Texas; at a medical clinic in Tulsa, Oklahoma; in a Presbyterian Church in California; and in 10 communities last weekend which experienced mass shootings. Maybe these prayers can help guide us as we contemplate our spiritual and social responses, knowing that the culminating step in the process of prayer is action.

Let The Shooting End

God, our hearts are broken with pain at the senseless deaths caused by gun violence. Families mourn, children live in fear, and some in our nation respond by arming themselves with more guns with greater capacity to end life. Our disconnection and alienation has caused some to turn to guns for protection and safety. We ask that you touch our hearts with your love, heal our brokenness, and turn us away from violence toward peace. Help us to transform our own hearts and to seek peaceful ways of resolving our differences. Let our hands reach out and connect with those who feel alone, those who live in fear, and those suffering from mental illness. Let our voices be raised asking our legislators to enact gun laws to protect all in our society, especially those most vulnerable. Let our pens write messages demanding change while also scripting words of hope and transformation. We ask this in the name of the God who desires that we live together in peace. Amen

--Sisters of Mercy of the Americas

Merciful Lord, we come to you heavy hearted, for we have heard the cries of the slain calling to us from the ground. We come remembering all the lives lost to the weapons of war that have flooded our communities. We come reminded of the many bodies locked in jails and prisons all across this country. And we ask for your mercy.

Although we find ourselves in a broken world – a world in which hurting people hurt other people, it is no mystery that you are a God capable of healing our world through justice and fairness. Your own revelation has shown us that you stand firmly with those people whose backs are against the wall. Your own life demonstrates how you came from heaven to earth to redeem creation, our communities and our own lives. So we ask for this same redemptive power to be unleashed among us as it was on the day of Pentecost. May we be empowered by your Spirit to reverse the conditions that produce young men and women who are driven to resort to violence and destructive behavior in their fight to stay alive and struggle to remain free.

We know that you have no pleasure in the death of anyone, so we boldly come to the throne of grace today dear Lord, seeking your wisdom as we create strategies that provide pathways and lifelines to hope and healing. Help us to remember we are all your children, created in your image, and we are connected by a single garment of mutuality and destiny. Cause us to never forget how our needs are the same and our calling to address these needs are the same. Reveal to us Lord, that the pain felt in Newtown is the same pain felt in Chicago. The tears shed in Oak Creek are the same tears shed in Oakland. The lives lost in Tucson are the same lives lost in Camden. The children being buried in Aurora are the same children being buried in Detroit.

We cry out to you, heal our souls from this scourge of violence. Endow us with the courage to step down from the pulpits and out from behind our desks to seek the peace of the city. In the coming days and weeks as our leaders debate solutions, Lord we ask that you grant us the voice to speak truth power and demonstrate sacrificial compassion to the hurting.

Teach us your ways, O God. Bless us with the wisdom and strength to put down our swords and be peacemakers. Use us, work through us and, if necessary, work in spite of us to mend our nation's brokenness.

We thank you for your protecting embrace and unfailing love. All of these requests we bring to you, in the name of Jesus the Christ we pray.

Amen.

ST. OLIVER PLUNKETT | JULY 1

Saint Oliver Plunkett was the last Roman Catholic Martyr to die in England. He was canonized in 1975, the first new Irish saint in almost 700 years.

Oliver was born in Loughcrew, Oldcastle, County Meath in November 1625, the son of the Baron of Loughcrew. As a young man, he wanted to become a priest, but it was illegal to travel to the continent to enter seminary. Even so, he undertook the dangerous journey with four other young men and a Papal Envoy. They were pursued by English privateers, storms at sea, and robbers on land. However, Oliver entered Rome in 1647, and was admitted to the Irish College. He was an excellent student and was ordained on January 1, 1654. Oliver remained in Rome, studied law and served as chaplain at Spienza University, ministered at Santo Spirito hospital, and cared for the poor and ill. By 1657 he was a professor of Theology and later of Apologetics or Controversies at Propaganda College.

The 1650s were a difficult time for Catholics in Ireland, the majority of population, as Cromwell passed many penal laws against them, and the practice of Catholicism was banned. During this time Oliver was appointed by Irish bishops to be their agent in Rome. Following the Restoration of Monarchy, Pope Clement IX appointed Oliver Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of all Ireland 1669. Oliver returned to a country where the Catholic Church was in disarray and divided. He had to travel largely incognito and perform his duties in makeshift locations. He is credited with unifying the Church and in traveling across the 11 dioceses under his purview, confirming thousands, and ordaining several priests.

In 1673 persecution of Catholics was again on the rise and bishops were banned. Oliver went into hiding, but in 1679 he was arrested and charged with treason. He was hanged, drawn, and quartered at Tyburn in July 1681. Before his death he publicly forgave those responsible.

ARCHDIOCESE THOUGHTS

TAKE THE OPPORTUNITY TO 'RESET' THIS SUMMER

JUNE 3, 2022

Take a very deep breath . . . inhale . . . and exhale.

We have survived May and it's worth a moment of silence! We have acknowledged the end of the school year with everything from kindergarten commendations to college graduations. We've celebrated a long season of preparation for key sacraments with first Communion and confirmations.

Spring is marked with a flurry of excitement that leaves us counting the days until June.

As we head into summer, as our schedules change and our attentions shift, we have an opportunity to establish (or re-establish) some key connections in our life. Every change in our lives offers us a chance to redefine our goals and reset our priorities.

This summer, I encourage you to take the opportunity to reset, to plan with a priority on strengthening your connection with God, your family and your community.

It is tempting to fill the empty spaces in our summer schedule with a different type of busy. We want to be movers and shakers that get stuff done, plowing through our to-do list!

by Emily Lopez

Maybe we're looking forward to taking our busyness on the road, planning that action-packed vacation with all the bells and whistles. We might be interested in using our busyness to tackle that house project that has needed our unbridled energy to finish.

However ambitious our endeavors might be, I encourage you to also plan times to connect. Look for gaps in your schedule that can be reserved for non-busy engagements — a weekly family movie or an evening dedicated to eucharistic adoration.

If you're juggling a number of work and family schedules, have a conversation about finding a mutual weekly commitment for everyone. Maybe it's a Wednesday evening walk? Or a Saturday morning pancake breakfast?

It's also important to encourage each individual to schedule time for connecting with God. What opportunities exist to grow in our prayer life? Can we dive deeper into Scripture or seek a quiet place for interior reflection? How are we prioritizing time with God in our daily schedules?

Finally, how is God calling us to more deeply connect with our community? Maybe your community shares your refrigerator and driveway. If you have college students or young adults in your life seeking genuine community, have them check out the activities and gatherings offered through our young adult communities.

As this beautiful weather entices us out of our houses, maybe there's a new neighbor or someone you feel pulled toward engaging in conversation. If you're new to an area, how are you initiating conversations and/or building community?

No doubt you've already penciled in a number of fun activities, camps and vacations.

But also schedule times for connection . . . and write them in pen.

As we shift into summer, let's limit our busyness and plan moments of encounter with God and others.

CMEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

13º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

La Pascua se ha ido, las solemnidades especiales también, nuevamente iniciamos el Tiempo Ordinario. Tiempo de reflexión en las enseñanzas de Jesús para su seguimiento al discipulado. "Hemos sido llamados por Dios y llamados a permanecer con Jesús, unidos a él. Es precisamente la 'vida en Cristo' lo que garantiza la fidelidad de nuestro servicio. Contemplantarlo, adorarlo y abrazarlo en nuestro encuentro con Cristo en la Eucaristía, en nuestra vida de oración, en nuestros momentos de adoración, y también reconocerlo presente y abrazarlo en las personas más necesitadas (Papa Francisco).

"Los zorros tienen cuevas y las aves tienen nidos, pero el Hijo del Hombre ni siquiera tiene donde recostar la cabeza" (Lucas 9:58). Seguir a Jesús, implica caminar con él sin cosas que nos impidan ver su camino. Empezar el viaje con Jesús en este Tiempo ordinario, será todo un reto. El Señor nos llama a cada uno a seguirlo de acuerdo a la vocación que hemos elegido. Una firme determinación es esencial. Se espera, que, no seamos cristianos del pero no estoy listo, pero cuánto tiempo debo servir, pero tengo muchas limitaciones. Ojalá, que el Señor nos ayude a ser valientes y decididos con esa libertad alegre de la que nos habla Pablo, en su Carta a los Gálatas. Servirnos unos a otros con amor. Para vivir dignamente el cristianismo, no bastan las ideas. Hay que llevar a cabo los hechos, que aunque pequeños, si salen del corazón, son la expresión de fe y seguimiento a Jesús. ¿Listos para la aventura de seguir a Jesús en este Tiempo Ordinario? ¿Está mi determinación firme a pesar de mis dudas? ©LPi

#3 Did you know?

A 2019 Kansas Supreme Court ruling took away the ability of Kansans to have a say on how the abortion industry is allowed to operate in our state.

The majority of Kansans believe there should be limits on this industry. The Value Them Both Amendment will restore the right of Kansans to regulate the abortion industry through our elected officials.

FAMILY CAMP TEKAWITHA

Family and faith are two of the most important things in all of our lives. Family Camp celebrates both of these through their adventure activities like climbing a rock wall, horses, canoeing, and archery; community building with other families; and formation experiences. Your family will live together in an air-conditioned cabin, and will enjoy family-style meals throughout the weekend. On July 15-17 we welcome Spanish speaking families to enjoy family camp and our adult formation sessions and large group activities will be in Spanish.
