CENTRO HISPANO

I am not sure of the history of Centro Hispano on St. John Campus, but I am sad to announce their move from our campus to their new location at 543 Lawrence Ave., Lawrence 66049. It was great to be physically associated with the Center. Our closeness to all the good work that they have done was a great sign to us and the neighborhood of the concern for those in need. As a parish we will continue to support them in their work through a meager monthly stipend that they will use for gift cards to Checkers. If parishioners want to continue donating, please send your support to them directly. I am also happy for them. I have been at their new location and it is a great place where they will be able to talk and help people in a space that has the necessary office space and pantry. To all the people that make up Centro Hispano – We will miss you. God bless you in your service and enjoy your new home!

99 EFFECTIVE WAYS

TO EVANGELIZE AS A CATHOLIC

No. 20: Recognize that special moments in life – the birth of a child, baptism, a marriage, the reception of a sacrament, a death, a funeral – are all privileged moments for evangelization. People share in these events, and are moved by them, even if they do not participate in “a faith walk” or “church” regularly.

GROCERY CARDS SOLD AFTER MASS TO PAY GYM MORTGAGE

Grocery cards will be sold after all Masses on the July 9 and 10. Please bring cash or check to purchase Checkers, Merc, and Hy-Vee* grocery cards. Sales will be set up outdoors near the north door of the church. Grocery cards are sold to you at face value, and the grocery stores donate 5 to 6 percent of sales toward St. John School. Donations will be targeted to the mortgage on the gymnasium.

To pre-order cards, or to help, email Nora at: noramurphy777@gmail.com, or phone 785-727-5083. *If you shop at Dillon's and need help setting up the auto-donation there, please call.

SECOND COLLECTION THANK YOU

Thank you for your generous support in last week's Peter's Pence Collection! Our contributions will join those from our brothers and sisters worldwide to help Pope Francis in his ministry to the Universal Church, including relief to people in need and support for the Holy See. If you missed the collection, it is not too late to give. Visit: www.uscch.org/peters-pence.

FOCUS ON THE WORD

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

WHEN GOD SPEAKS LIKE A POLISH GRANDMOTHER

A friend of mine had a Polish grandmother who was famous for giving her children some blunt advice every time they left the house: "Eyes straight ahead. Mind your own business."

Every mother knows her children best, and this mother knew hers liked to argue and sometimes liked to show off. She knew that could lead to trouble. She could not anticipate every scenario they would encounter each time they departed from her. All she could do was distill what she knew about life, safety, and manners into a few simple words, and hand them over to her children like a set of car keys or a hastily scribbled map. In this way, a woman who rarely said "I love you" expressed her devotion. And long after she was dead and buried, her aging sons and daughters repeated these words to themselves, like a child wrapping himself in a warm blanket.

Jesus does much the same for us, in many portions of the Gospels. "Ask the master to send out laborers for his harvest... Carry no money... Eat what is set before you... Know that the Kingdom of God is at hand... Rejoice because your names are written in Heaven."

He knows us best — knows our strengths, but even more importantly, he knows our weaknesses. He doesn't always have the space to address each of these explicitly in the pages of Scripture, but what he can do is distill the truth of effective evangelization into a few simple words, and hand them over to us as food for our journey of discipleship. In this way, a God who addresses the entire world and every soul who ever lived also speaks intimately to each one of us.

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, "the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited." That same dictionary defines liberty as, "the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to." Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that "the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ." There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one's soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one's character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached.

Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. "I am sending you like lambs among wolves," Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That's what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

A Benediction for Calling Our Representatives

If a song can be a prayer,
The so, too, can a phone call,
A cry to the living to remember,
To respect those who have died
By ensuring that no more
Will fall prey to indiscriminate bullets.
And when we grow weary of dialing,

of waiting, of pleading,
May we remember the grief
Of parents who have lost children,
Children who have lost parents.
Great God of mercy, give us endurance
To call out unceasingly,
To You, and to those in power,
To midwife into birth
A better, safer country.
Amen

KIDS SHARING THE GOSPEL

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus sent out 72 of his followers to spread the good news about God. They were not to bring anything with them - no food, no extra clothes or shoes, not even money to spend. They were to visit strangers and completely depend on God to give them what they needed. That took a lot of faith!

God, help me to remember that you will give me what I need.

ARCHDIOCESE THOUGHTS

EUCCHARISTIC AMAZEMENT INITIATIVE TO LAUNCH THIS JUNE MAY 6, 2022

Revival: Eucharistic Amazement is a three-year initiative in which parishes and the archdiocese will offer parishioners opportunities to learn about and experience the ever-unfolding mystery of the Eucharist.

We all have jobs and important terrestrial tasks to juggle, but each of our primary sacred jobs is to be in a thriving relationship with Jesus and his church and to share the joy of that relationship with others.

Revival: Eucharistic Amazement asks each of us to more deeply understand and experience Jesus in the Eucharist, and to nurture eucharistic faith in our families and friends.

Revival: Eucharistic Amazement kicks off the archdiocesan phase on the solemnity of Corpus Christi, June 19, but you do not have wait until then to dive in. The revival websites, local and national, are up and running. A free course is offered there. The archdiocesan revival site offers many opportunities in the three main areas of concentration:

- formation of the laity
- enhancement of eucharistic zeal in priests, deacons and liturgical ministers

by Deacon Dana Nearmyer

- experiences of eucharistic amazement

We will be offering formation of the laity for all ages. Exciting eucharistic reading and experiences for young people are highlighted on the website.

Camp Tekakwitha's theme this summer is Revival: Eucharistic Amazement! Please sign up your young people and take a look at our three family camps. All are welcome to the camp's annual Echo of Kateri picnic and Mass on July 30; it will be an afternoon and evening of eucharistic learning and experience.

Camp will be celebrating its 25th anniversary this year, as is the Kelly Youth Rally. Both are featuring eucharistic formation. Eucharistic formation and eucharistic processions are being offered in late summer in both the Southern Region and Nemaha-Marshall Region.

Many things are planned.

Priests are encouraged to attend a study day on Ars Celebrandi, which involves:

- fidelity to the texts and rubrics of the church
- prayerful understanding of the liturgical texts, feasts and seasons
- reverent sense of the ministers and assembly engaging in an exchange, which is the dialogue of the Father and the Son in the Holy Spirit
- proper preparation for celebrating the liturgy

Deacons will attend a regional workshop on the Eucharist. The archdiocesan office of liturgy and sacramental life will be offering workshops for musicians and liturgical ministers.

Each of our parish liturgies and times of eucharistic adoration are opportunities for us to be amazed by the love of the Lord, through the sacrifice of Calvary and gift of the Eucharist.

In year one, parishes are to plan for what they will offer and implement officially starting on the solemnity of Corpus Christi in 2023. The goal is to create a culture of Eucharist amazement for all ages.

Explore the opportunities to grow closer to our eucharistic Lord.

ST. ELIZABETH OF PORTUGAL | JULY 5

St. Elizabeth was born to Peter III of Aragon and his queen Constantia in 1271. Like most royal girls of the time, she was betrothed at an early age, and was married to King Diniz (or Dinis, English: Denis) at the age of 12. Although her husband's infidelities and life of sin caused much scandal, Elizabeth was a good and pious queen. She attended Mass daily and dedicated her life to helping the poor. She established orphanages and shelters for the homeless. She also founded a convent of Poor Clares at Coimbra, Portugal.

Often called Peacemaker, Elizabeth was from her birth a reconciler of conflict. Her birth brought her father and his estranged father James to peace. Later when her own son and husband came to war out of jealousy, she rode between armies and reconciled the two men.

After King Diniz died in 1325, she went to live as a lay member at the convent of Poor Clares that she had founded. But her fight for peace was not over, she undertook a long ride to keep the army of her son Afonso IV, from fighting that of Alfonso XI of Castile. Although she was successful, she died shortly after from a fever. Saint Elizabeth was canonized on May 25th, 1625, by Pope Urban VIII. In the United States her memorial has been transferred to July 5th since July 4th is Independence Day, a national holiday. © LPI

MEDITACIÓN DEL EVANGELIO ALENTAR UN ENTENDIMIENTO MÁS PROFUNDO DE LA ESCRITURA

14º Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

“Jesús no quiere obrar solo, vino a traer al mundo el amor de Dios y quiere difundirlo con el estilo de la comunión, con el estilo de la fraternidad. Por ello forma una comunidad de discípulos, que es una comunidad misionera.

Inmediatamente los entrena para la misión, para ir. La finalidad es anunciar el Reino de Dios, ¡y esto es urgente! También hoy es urgente” (Papa Francisco). Que importante noticia anuncia Jesús en su tiempo y hoy. Compartir la Buena Nueva a pesar de los tiempos que estamos viviendo. Llevar la alegría a la familia y amigos cercanos de que Jesús está entre nosotros. Y nos envía a la misión como nos lo indica el Papa Francisco.

Ir en misión no es cosa de una sola persona, es cuestión de dos en dos. “Después de esto, el Señor eligió a otros setenta y dos discípulos y los envió de dos en dos, delante de él, a todas las ciudades y lugares a donde debía ir él” (Lucas 12,1-2). Hay mucho trabajo por hacer, y espero que ustedes hayan sido elegidos para la misión del Sínodo. Cada diócesis tiene la responsabilidad de preparar sus misioneros. Y estos, a la vez, de compartir la alegría del Reino. Se debe de compartir la felicidad, de saber que tenemos vida y salud y que nuestro nombre forma parte de la historia de salvación. “Alégrense no porque los espíritus se someten a ustedes, sino más bien porque sus nombres están escritos en los cielos” (Lucas 10,20). ©LPi

#3 Did you know? ↓
A 2019 Kansas Supreme Court ruling took away the ability of Kansans to have a say on how the abortion industry is allowed to operate in our state.
The majority of Kansans believe there should be limits on this industry. The Value Them Both Amendment will restore the right of Kansans to regulate the abortion industry through our elected officials.
Vote "YES" on August 2nd!

FAMILY CAMP TEKAWITHA

Family and faith are two of the most important things in all of our lives. Family Camp celebrates both of these through their adventure activities like climbing a rock wall, horses, canoeing, and archery; community building with other families; and formation experiences. Your family will live together in an air-conditioned cabin, and will enjoy family-style meals throughout the weekend. On July 15-17 we welcome Spanish speaking families to enjoy family camp and our adult formation sessions and large group activities will be in Spanish. Take time to enjoy your precious loved ones away from the busyness of everyday life. For more information and to register go to: <https://archkck.org/camp/camps/family-camp/>.
