WELCOME TO ST. JOHN

St. John the Evangelist, a Catholic Capuchin Franciscan Parish, welcomes all who are called to be disciples of Jesus Christ and proclaims His Gospel through prayer, worship, His Word, and the sacraments. Members, inspired by the Holy Spirit through faith formation and spiritual renewal, witness to the Gospel in lives of justice and charity, build up families and children through education, hospitality and fellowship, and serve those in need with compassion.

“LET NOTHING DISTURB YOU, LET NOTHING FRIGHTEN YOU,
ALL THINGS ARE PASSING AWAY: GOD NEVER CHANGES. PATIENCE OBTAINS ALL THINGS.
WHOEVER HAS GOD LACKS NOTHING; GOD ALONE SUFFICES.”

VALUE THEM BOTH

VOTE YES!

On August 2, 2022, we will have our chance to protect women and babies in Kansas by voting in favor of the VALUE THEM BOTH Amendment to our state constitution. VALUE THEM BOTH will allow us to:

- ♥ Protect current Kansas law, which prevents babies from being aborted up to the moment of birth.
- ♥ Prevent taxpayer-funded abortion and extreme procedures such as partial-birth and live-dismemberment abortions.
- ♥ Preserve safeguards that require the abortion industry to protect women with important clinic health and safety standards.

The abortion industry will pour millions into our state in an attempt to mislead voters. We must show them that the people of Kansas VALUE THEM BOTH. VOTE YES on August 2nd, 2022!

WHAT JESUS DOESN'T SAY

"If Jesus wanted us to (fill in the blank), he would have said so."

We hear this argument applied to every controversial topic under the sun — and even some not-so-controversial topics, too. Whenever someone is trying to make a case for a decision they have already made, they call in Jesus' scriptural silence on the matter as their expert, unimpeachable witness.

And sure, there's much Jesus doesn't talk about in the Gospels. But by this logic, we would have to assume that Jesus doesn't care, for instance, if we drive well over the speed limit (he doesn't discuss cars and highways in the Bible) or what we do online (he never mentions the Internet or websites at all!), when we know that certainly is just not the case.

Like the scholar of the Jewish law who challenges Jesus to define who exactly his "neighbor" is, we can argue semantics all we want. But if we rest in prayer and look deep into our hearts, we know what path we need to take, and it's usually not the easy one.

I find that I do this plenty in ways that are far more subtle. I lament that the situation facing me is not sufficiently "black and white." I become frustrated by the shades of moral grey and toss up my hands, claiming I don't know what the right answer is, insisting that I can't be blamed for the ramifications of whatever decision I make.

What I need to be doing in these situations is asking God for His guidance, even if it makes me nervous. I need to be like the scholar. He was brave enough to ask, even though I think he knew he wouldn't particularly like the answer. Let's strive for that same courage.

SOCIAL JUSTICE SOCIAL ACTION

By The Social Concerns for Peace and Justice Committee

Choose to bless the world

Your gifts—whatever you discover them to be—
can be used to bless or curse the world.

The mind's power,
the strength of the hands,
the reaches of the heart,
the gift of speaking, listening, imagining, seeing, waiting

Any of these can serve to feed the hungry,
bind up wounds,
welcome the stranger,
praise what is sacred,
do the work of justice
or offer love.

Any of these can draw down the prison door,
hoard bread,
abandon the poor,
obscure what is holy,
comply with injustice
or withhold love.

You must answer this question:
What will you do with your gifts?

Choose to bless the world.

The choice to bless the world is more than an act of will,
a moving forward into the world
with the intention to do good.

It is an act of recognition,
a confession of surprise,
a grateful acknowledgment

that in the midst of a broken world unspeakable beauty, grace and mystery abide.

There is an embrace of kindness
that encompasses all life, even yours.

And while there is injustice, anesthetization, or evil
there moves a holy disturbance,
a benevolent rage,
a revolutionary love,
protesting, urging, insisting
that which is sacred will not be defiled.

Those who bless the world live their life
as a gesture of thanks
for this beauty
and this rage.

The choice to bless the world can take you into solitude
to search for the sources
of power and grace;
native wisdom, healing, and liberation.

More, the choice will draw you into community,
the endeavor shared,
the heritage passed on,
the companionship of struggle,
the importance of keeping faith,
the life of ritual and praise,
the comfort of human friendship,
the company of earth
the chorus of life welcoming you.

None of us alone can save the world.
Together—that is another possibility, waiting.

—Rebecca Parker

BASEHOR ADORATION CHAPEL GAINS NATIONAL ATTENTION

JUNE 17, 2022

by Therese Horvat

Special to The Leaven

BASEHOR — As the National Eucharistic Revival initiative launches across the United States, a eucharistic adoration chapel within the archdiocese has earned special distinction as an intriguing travel destination.

In an article in the May 27 edition of Our Sunday Visitor, the Our Lady, Queen of the Holy Angels Adoration Chapel at Holy Angels Parish, Basehor, was named one of the “top 10 destinations devoted to the Blessed Sacrament.” The list includes shrines, basilicas, a cathedral and a retreat center.

Father Richard McDonald, Holy Angels pastor, said, “I’m very humbled by this recognition. All of the locations identified are very beautiful places, and many are well-established. For Holy Angels to be included pays special tribute to the dedicated people who shared their talents and came together to praise God in supporting, designing and constructing our adoration chapel.”

The Basehor chapel takes its inspiration, architecture and name from a small chapel

now housed in the basilica near Assisi, Italy. The original chapel was intimately connected with the life of St. Francis. He repaired the structure and marked many important occasions in or near the chapel.

Marion Amberg, who wrote the Our Sunday Visitor article, compiled the list of eucharistic travel destinations after extensive research. When she googled “adoration chapels,” Holy Angels, Basehor, appeared first on the page. The writer selected locations based on geography and interesting features. Amberg said that no two chapels are alike. She encouraged a road trip to these destinations with time allowed for adoration and prayer in observance of the Eucharistic Revival.

#3 Did you know? ↓

A 2019 Kansas Supreme Court ruling took away the ability of Kansans to have a say on how the abortion industry is allowed to operate in our state.

The majority of Kansans believe there should be limits on this industry. The Value Them Both Amendment will restore the right of Kansans to regulate the abortion industry through our elected officials.
