Lastly, please be sure to return the receiver to the Sanctuary after Mass.

Happy Easter Season
and
Divine Mercy Sunday!

Pray for our first communicants this Sunday as they receive Our Lord in Holy Communion for the first time at a special Mass for them at 1:00pm.

Pope Francis preached at Easter Vigil "it is always possible to start over again, because there is always a new life that God is capable of restarting in us beyond all our failures... Even from the rubble of our heart God can build a work of art." Many graces are available to us on this Divine Mercy Sunday. God is merciful and there is a fresh start available for everyone. The only unforgivable sin is the one we do not ask mercy for; the sin we think God can't forgive or won't forgive. This is to place limits on God's unlimited power and love. Today the truth again rings loud and clear that Jesus is Risen from the Dead and has conquered sin and death.

As Catholics who practice our faith, let us be bold in seeking mercy for ourselves in the honest practice of going to confession, and in the daily showing mercy and forgiveness to the world around us. Living mercifully, we will become humble in our need, receptive to God's mercy for our sins, and examples of mercy to the world around us.

Peace,

Fr. Jordan Samson

Gospel

John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, Who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, Who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon: Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.
