Opening Hymn: O Come, All Ye Faithful

1. O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant, O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem; Come and behold him, born the King of angels;

Refrain

O come, let us adore him, O come, let us adore him O come, let us adore him, Christ, the Lord!

2. Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation, Sing, all ye citizens of heav'n above! Glory to God, all glory in the highest;

3. Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning, Jesus, to thee be all glory giv'n; Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing;

Text: Irregular with refrain; John F. Wade, ca. 1711-1786; tr. by Frederick Oakeley, 1802-1880, alt. Music: John F. Wade.

Entrance Antiphon: The shepherds went in haste, and found Mary and Joseph and the Infant lying in a manger.

Gloria Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, We give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14

God sets a father in honor over his children; a mother's authority he confirms over her sons. Whoever honors his father atones for sins, and preserves himself from them. When he prays, he is heard; he stores up riches who reveres his mother. Whoever honors his father is gladdened by children, and, when he prays, is heard. Whoever reveres his father will live a long life; he who obeys his father brings comfort to his mother. My son, take care of your father when he is old; grieve him not as long as he lives. Even if his mind fail, be considerate of him; revile him not all the days of his life; kindness to a father will not be forgotten, firmly planted against the debt of your sins—a house raised in justice to you.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

R. [Bless-ed are they,] bless-ed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord.

Text © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL. All rights reserved. Used with permission. Music: Owen Alstott, © 1977, 1990, OCP. All rights reserved.

Blessed is everyone who fears the LORD, who walks in his ways! For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork; blessed shall you be, and favored. R.

Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine in the recesses of your home; your children like olive plants around your table. R.

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the LORD. The LORD bless you from Zion: may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem all the days of your life. R.

Second Reading

Colossians 3:12-21

Brothers and sisters: Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. Wives, be subordinate to your husbands, as is proper in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and avoid any bitterness toward them. Children, obey your parents in everything, for this is pleasing to the Lord. Fathers, do not provoke your children, so they may not become discouraged.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Let the peace of Christ control your hearts; Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly.

Gospel

Luke 2:41-52

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him. After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers. When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety." And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them. He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit

Merry Christmas Christ the King Parish!

And happy Feast of the Holy Family!

I appreciated all those who stuck with the book we read together through Advent titled, "The True Meaning of Christmas". It was a difficult read and I'd have some critiques on how the book was organized, but overall, some really good information. I really appreciated two points: first, the development of our modern form of the celebration of Christmas, and the Old Testament connections he pointed out.

The first striking aspect this book pointed out in was the relatively recent emphasis that Christmas be a time of family gathering and service to the poor. These are modern (1800's) developments. Good developments, but "extra" to Christmas nonetheless. It has added to the pressure to have a picture-perfect Christmas seen only in Hallmark movies! When we, however, let go of the "perfect" Christmas we can better enjoy the celebrations we actually get, including worshiping God by going to Church and attending Mass. Sometimes it is good to have an "off" Christmas where we don't get what we planned as far as gifts, events and family gatherings. It can make us re-focus on the deeper meaning of this holy day.

But in our modern age we often do get what we want. But if we are attentive we will quickly know that it is not enough! The incompleteness we might feel after even the best of holiday gatherings should be a sign to us of our eternal longing. We desire something greater, more lasting, more definitive. This experience often happens right about now once the anticipation (Advent) is over, and Christmas day itself has gone and past. The "post-Christmas let down" should be experienced as a gift because it points out to us that we are made for more. This is the longing of Israel that the author of this same book pointed out in Chapter 2. Israel's journey through the Old Testament is full of waywardness, exile and longing for restoration. Israel's history is the story of fallen humanity: full of sin, repentance, and forgiveness. This is not unlike our own hearts even today, that long to be saved from the emptiness of a life without God.

I pray this Christmas season brings forth many blessings of spiritual renewal for you and your loved ones. We have a God who seeks and saves us right in the circumstances we are in. He comes near and enters our messiness. Jesus is God, but not satisfied to just save us from a distance, he chose to become one of us. I leave you with this quote from St. Bernard of Clairvaux, who says, "He wanted to come among us, when he could have simply settled for giving us help." This is the gift of the birth of Christ: God becomes one of us to save us.

Peace,
Fr. Samson

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Needed at Christ the King: Volunteers to bring Holy Communion to residents in nursing homes. This is a once a month commitment on Sunday mornings after the 8am Mass. Most of the nursing homes in Sioux Falls are within our parish boundaries! This is a ministry we would like to expand, but volunteers are essential! Contact Fr. Samson for training and guidelines. - frjordansamson@sfcatholic.org

Help Needed!: We are really in need of more people to sell certificates after mass! It is not a huge time commitment, only 5-10 minutes after Mass every few weeks! Please contact Jo Anne Cero if you'd like to help! Phone: (605) 339-3376.

Vocations: Attention Families and Prayer warriors! Sign up to bring the Christ the King Traveling Vocations Crucifix into your home and pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life! Commit to pray for a week for this intention and then return the Crucifix to Christ the King. If interested please contact Rosemary Evjen at ttrr@sio.midco.net or call 605-940-4178.

Catholic Family Services is Hiring!: Catholic Family Services is seeking a full time Clinical Counselor who is passionate about integrating their expertise in the psychological sciences with the Catholic vision of the human person.

Catholic Family Services is an outpatient mental health clinic that serves residents of eastern South Dakota and across its borders. Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter to Emily Leedom, Executive Director, 523 N Duluth Ave, Sioux Falls, SD 57104 or via email at eleedom@sfcatholic.org.

was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, Who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, Who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations: Lord Jesus, Son of the Eternal Father and Mary Immaculate, grant to our young people the generosity necessary to follow Your call and the courage required to overcome all obstacles to their vocation. Give the parents that faith, love and spirit of sacrifice which will inspire them to offer their children to God's service and to rejoice whenever one of their children is called to the priesthood and religious life. Let your example and that of Your Blessed Mother and Saint Joseph encourage both young people and parents to let Your grace sustain them. Amen.

Preparation Hymn: Good Christians, All, Rejoice

1. Good Christian friends, rejoice, With heart and soul and voice; Give ye heed to what we say: Jesus Christ is born today! Ox and ass before him bow, And he is in he manger now. Christ is born today! Christ is born today!
2. Good Christian friends, rejoice, With heart and soul and voice; Now ye hear of endless bliss; Jesus Christ was born for this! He has opened heaven's door, And we are blest for evermore. Christ was born for this! Christ was born for this!
3. Good Christian friends, rejoice, With heart and soul and voice; Now ye need not fear the grave; Jesus Christ was born to save! Calls you one and calls you all, To gain his everlasting hall. Christ was born to save! Christ was born to save!

Text: 66 77 78 55; Latin and German, 14th cent.; tr. By John M. Neale, 1818-1866, alt. Music: J. Klug's Geistliche Lieder, Wittenberg, 1535.

Communion Antiphon: Our God has appeared on earth, and lived among us.

Communion Hymn: What Child Is This

1. What Child is this, who, laid to rest, On Mary's lap is sleeping? Whom angels greet with anthems sweet, While shepherds watch are keeping?

Refrain

This, this is Christ the King, Whom shepherds guard and angels sing; Haste, haste to bring him laud, The babe, the son of Mary.

2. Why lies he in such mean estate Where ox and ass are feeding? Good Christian, fear: for sinners here The silent Word is pleading.

3. So bring him incense, gold, and myrrh, Come peasant, king, to own him; The King of kings salvation brings, Let loving hearts enthrone him.

Text: 87 87 with refrain; Bramley and Stainer's Christmas Carols New and Old, 1871; William C. Dix, 1837-1898. Music: Trad. English melody, 16th cent.; Bramley and Stainer's Christmas Carols New and Old, 1871.

(If you have a gluten allergy, go through Dcn. Boorman's line for Communion.)

Sending Forth: Angels We Have Heard On High

1. Angels we have heard on high Sweetly singing o'er the plains, And the maintains in reply Echo back their joyous strains.

Refrain

Gloria in excelsis Deo! Gloria in excelsis Deo!

2. Shepherds, why this jubilee? Why your joyous strains prolong? Say what may the tidings be Which inspire your heav'nly song.

3. Come to Bethlehem and see Him whose birth and angels sing; Come, adore on bended knee Christ, the Lord, the newborn King.

Text: 77 77 with refrain; trad. French carol, ca. 18th cent.; tr. From Crown of Jesus Music, II, London, 1862; tr. by James Chadwick, 1813-1882, and others, alt. Music: Trad. French carol.
