Opening Hymn: We Three Kings

1. We three kings of Orient are; Bearing gifts we traverse afar field and fountain, Moor and mountain, Following yonder star.

Refrain

O star of wonder, star of night, Star with royal beauty bright;
Westward leading, still proceeding, Guide us to thy perfect light.

2. Born a King on Bethlehem's plain, gold I bring to crown him again, King forever, Ceasing never over us all to reign.

3. Frankincense to offer have I: Incense owns a Deity nigh;
Prayer and praising gladly raising, Worship him, God on high.

4. Myrrh is mine; its bitter perfume breathes a life of gathering gloom; Sorrowing, sighing, Bleeding, dying, Sealed in the stone-cold tomb.

5. Glorious now behold him arise, King and god and Sacrifice; "Alleluia, Alleluia!" sounds through the earth and skies.

Text: 88 44 6 with refrain; based on Matthew 2:1-11. Text and music: Carols, Hymns and songs, 1863; John H. Hopkins, Jr., 1820-1891, alt.

Entrance Antiphon: Behold, the Lord, the Mighty One, has come; and kingship is in his grasp, and power and dominion.

Gloria Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
We give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father. Lord
Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading*Isaiah 60:1-6

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory. Nations shall walk by your light, and kings by your shining radiance. Raise your eyes and look about; they all gather and come to you: your sons come from afar, and your daughters in the arms of their nurses. Then you shall be radiant at what you see, your heart shall throb and overflow, for the riches of the sea shall be emptied out before you, the wealth of nations shall be brought to you. Caravans of camels shall fill you, dromedaries from Midian and Ephah; all from Sheba shall come bearing gold and frankincense, and proclaiming the praises of the LORD.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

O God, with your judgment endow the king, and with your justice, the king's son; He shall govern your people with justice and your afflicted ones with judgment. R.

Justice shall flower in his days, and profound peace, till the moon be no more. May he rule from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth. R.

The kings of Tarshish and the Isles shall offer gifts; the kings of Arabia and Seba shall bring tribute. All kings shall pay him homage, all nations shall serve him. R.

For he shall rescue the poor when he cries out, and the afflicted when he has no one to help him. He shall have pity for the lowly and the poor; the lives of the poor he shall save.
R.

Second Reading*Ephesians 3:2-3a, 5-6

Brothers and sisters: You have heard of the stewardship of God's grace that was given to me for your benefit, namely, that the mystery was made known to me by revelation. It was not made known to people in other generations as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage.

Gospel*Matthew 2:1-12

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." When King Herod heard this, he was greatly troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.
Assembling all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, He inquired of them where the Christ was to be born. They said to him, "In Bethlehem of Judea, for thus it has been written through the prophet:

*And you, Bethlehem, land of Judah,
are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
since from you shall come a ruler,
who is to shepherd my people Israel."*

Then Herod called the magi secretly and ascertained from them the time of the star's appearance. He sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. When you have found him, bring me word, that I too may go and do him homage." After their audience with the king they set out. And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was. They were overjoyed at seeing the star, and on entering the house they saw the child with Mary his mother. They prostrated themselves and did him homage. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they departed for their country by another way.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Profession of Faith:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

Weekly Offering ..... not available at print
Weekly Average Needed .....
Weekly Over/(Short).....

Christmas was Last Saturday ... we received our Messiah, but in a manner that we did not expect ... and so some of us received the “Season,” but did not receive our Messiah in person in our hearts. Christmas was not just a week ago ... it is NOW! We have a second chance to receive our Lord and Savior if we can reset our hearts to do so. Last Sunday we were also given the Holy Family ... Jesus, Mary and Joseph (J+M+J) ... to show us the importance of the family as the smallest unit of the Catholic Church, a family that we can closely associate with. On the first of this year we also received Our Mother Mary. We are no longer outcasts in the world, but we now have a family ... the family of the Church, the Body of Christ, but also membership in the family of heaven and with the Holy Family ... Mary is our Mother! So much Joy awaits us, so much Joy is experienced Now! With more to come. We celebrate Christmas not on one day alone but for an OCTAVE (that’s Eight days). We also celebrate the “Season of Christmas” until the Baptism of the Lord on the 9th of January. So, you see, we are still celebrating Christmas. If you took down your tree, put it back up!

We Catholics are Christians, but we are strange Christians. Even though we celebrate Christmas as a time of Joy, we also recognize it as a time of sacrifice and suffering. As Catholics we are not “either/or” but we are “both/and” ... we combine, and quite naturally so, Joy and Suffering, Life and Death. In fact, we recognize “death” as a new life, a new beginning in the Joy of joining God in heaven. Death is not the end, it is not something to be feared, but something to be embraced and we celebrate that even during the joy of Christmas ... even during the Octave of Christmas.

We celebrate Christmas, the nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ on the 25th of December, but we also celebrate the martyrdom of St. Stephen (one of the first seven deacons of the Church) on the 26th (when it is not on Sunday as it is this year) our First Saint and Martyr. We also celebrate the martyrdom of the Holy Innocents on the 28th and the martyrdom of St. Thomas Beckett on the 29th. Just as we rejoice and mourn at once, in the Birth and in the Passion of Our Lord; so we both rejoice and mourn in the death of martyrs. We mourn for the sins of the world that has martyred them; and we rejoice, that another soul is numbered among the Saints in Heaven.

That is why it is so fitting that we celebrate these martyrs around Christmas. Christ who was of heaven was born on earth so that those of the earth might be able to be born into heaven. Again: Christ was born to die so that those who unite their death to His might be born again into eternal life. Life and death. We must have death to have new life. This creation must end to have the joy of the new creation.

This Sunday we celebrate the Epiphany. We recognize the public recognition of Jesus as Lord and Savior, but by way, also, of recognizing His suffering and death to come through the gifts of the Magi as they visit the Christ Child ... Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh. Gold to recognize the new King, royalty. Frankincense to recognize Jesus’ Godhead. But Myrrh to shadow His death to come. Joy and death are celebrated by Catholics almost equally ... there should be no fear of either in our worship, but an expectation of both to come and yet both are always present. We are a people whose lives are an Alleluia ... we are a people who wrap death with our joy.

-Dcn. James Boorman

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Marriage and Family Ministry: Monthly Prayer and Potluck will be held January 2nd from 4:45-6:45pm in the School Gym. Families are welcome to come and join in prayer and community!

Needed at Christ the King: Volunteers to bring Holy Communion to residents in nursing homes. This is a once a month commitment on Sunday mornings after the 8am Mass. Most of the nursing homes in Sioux Falls are within our parish boundaries! This is a ministry we would like to expand, but volunteers are essential! Contact Fr. Samson for training and guidelines. - frjordansamson@sfcatholic.org

Help Needed!: We are really in need of more people to sell certificates after mass! It is not a huge time commitment, only 5-10 minutes after mass every few weeks! Please contact Jo Anne Cero if you'd like to help! Phone: (605) 339-3376.

Vocations: Attention Families and Prayer warriors! Sign up to bring the Christ the King Traveling Vocations Crucifix into your home and pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life! Commit to pray for a week for this intention and then return the Crucifix to Christ the King. If interested please contact Rosemary Evjen at ttrr@sio.midco.net or call 605-940-4178.

Catholic Family Services is Hiring!: Catholic Family Services is seeking a full time Clinical Counselor who is passionate about integrating their expertise in the psychological sciences with the Catholic vision of the human person.

Catholic Family Services is an outpatient mental health clinic that serves residents of eastern South Dakota and across its borders. Interested applicants should submit a resume and cover letter to Emily Leedom, Executive Director, 523 N Duluth Ave, Sioux Falls, SD 57104 or via email at eleedom@sfcatholic.org.

*(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, Who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, Who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayer for Families: We bless your name, O Lord, for sending your Son Jesus to be born of Mary to become part of a human family, so that, as he lived and grew, he would experience the sorrows and joys of family life. We ask you, Lord, to bless, protect, and watch over our families at Christ the King. Keep, we pray, in a bond of love all husbands and wives who are united in the covenant of Marriage, so that, as you make their love fruitful, they may overcome every obstacle and become witnesses to your love for the world. Bless our children, that our homes might be places of safety and peace, where we learn to love and forgive. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Communion Antiphon: We have seen his star in the East, and have come with gifts to adore the Lord.

Communion Hymn: The First Nowell

1. The first Nowell, the angel did say, Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay; In fields where they lay keeping their sheep, On a cold winter's night that was so deep.

Refrain

Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Nowell, Born is the King of Israel.

2. They look-ed up and saw a star Shining in the east, beyond them far; And to the earth it gave great light, And so it continued both day and night.

3. And by the light of that same star three wise men came from country far; To seek for a king was their intent, And to follow the star wherever it went.

4. This star drew nigh to the northwest, O'er Bethlehem it took its rest, And there it did both stop and stay, Right over the place where Jesus lay.

5. Then entered in those wise men three, Full rev'rently upon the knee, And offered there, in his presence, Their gold and myrrh and frankincense.

6. Then let us all with on accord sing praises to our heav'nly Lord; Who with the Father we adore and Spirit blest for evermore.
