Entrance Antiphon: All the earth shall bow down before you, O God, and shall sing to you, shall sing to your name, O Most High!

Gloria Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, We give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, Almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, You take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; You take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; You are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, You alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 62:1-5

For Zion's sake I will not be silent, for Jerusalem's sake I will not be quiet, until her vindication shines forth like the dawn and her victory like a burning torch. Nations shall behold your vindication, and all the kings your glory; you shall be called by a new name pronounced by the mouth of the LORD. You shall be a glorious crown in the hand of the LORD, a royal diadem held by your God. No more shall people call you "Forsaken," or your land "Desolate," but you shall be called "My Delight," and your land "Espoused." For the LORD delights in you and makes your land his spouse. As a young man marries a virgin, your Builder shall marry you; and as a bridegroom rejoices in his bride so shall your God rejoice in you.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Sing to the LORD a new song;
sing to the LORD, all you lands.
Sing to the LORD; bless his name. R.

Announce his salvation, day after day.
Tell his glory among the nations;
among all peoples, his wondrous deeds. R.

Give to the LORD, you families of nations,
give to the LORD glory and praise;
give to the LORD the glory due his name! R.

Worship the LORD in holy attire.
Tremble before him, all the earth;
Say among the nations: The LORD is king.
He governs the peoples with equity. R.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 12:4-11

Brothers and sisters: There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom; to another, the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit; to another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, gifts of healing by the one Spirit; to another, mighty deeds; to another, prophecy; to another, discernment of spirits; to another, varieties of tongues; to another, interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: God has called us through the Gospel to possess the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel

John 2:1-11

There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited to the wedding. When the wine ran short, the mother of Jesus said to him, "They have no wine." And Jesus said to her, "Woman, how does your concern affect me? My hour has not yet come." His mother said to the servers, "Do whatever he tells you." Now there were six stone water jars there for Jewish ceremonial washings, each holding twenty to thirty gallons. Jesus told them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim. Then he told them, "Draw some out now and take it to the headwaiter." So they took it. And when the headwaiter tasted the water that had become wine, without knowing where it came from — although the servers who had drawn the water knew —, the headwaiter called the bridegroom and said to him, "Everyone serves good wine first, and then when people have drunk freely, an inferior one;

Sunday the 16th (today, if you are reading this at Sunday Mass) will be the third annual “Last Collar Standing” put on the by our diocese. Priests (myself and Fr. Tyler included) will be competing online doing trivia, games and using strategy to survive and not get voted off the game. I was involved in the first series and I was surprised how many people actually watched it. And not only watched it, but stuck it out for 3 hours! They are promising to keep it at 2 hours this time. We will host a watch party in the community center here at Christ the King if you’d like to enjoy some popcorn and watch it on the big screen. Or you can find it online at home and watch it in the comfort of your own house.

As I said above, I’m always surprised that people enjoy this show! This show highlights priests interacting as brothers with humor and revealing personal interests and abilities. For instance, on this show we priests will likely reveal our level of knowledge of pop-culture, our indifference or expertise in sports, or our frustration with technology as we navigate the zoom call.

There is something about the humanity of the priest that can still surprise us. In a positive light, this reveals a great respect for priests and their sacred role as a sacramental minister and spiritual father. But our surprise at the humanity of a priest might also be an idealization of who God calls to this role. I know as a child I kind of just thought priests fell out of the sky. And then I became one, and it was very clear to me, there was no descending from on high during my path to ordination. It is a high calling, and it is a calling meant for human men from our own human families right here at Christ the King and within our diocese.

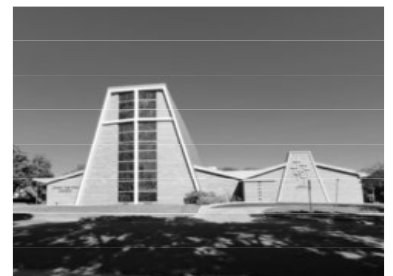

You may have noticed that each Sunday we alternate between praying for vocations and praying for families. I love the first line in our prayer for families that reads, “We bless your name, O Lord for sending your Son Jesus to be born of Mary to become part of a human family, so that, as he lived and grew, he would experience the sorrows and joys of family life.” Jesus chose to become part of a human family, just as our priests come from human families.

Finally, one of the spiritual fathers in my life has been Fr. Luigi Giussani. He said,

“To be a good priest, you must, above all else, be from among men. If you are men, feel in yourself those things that are proper to men, the needs and problems typical of men; live the relationship with everything which become present. Live the truth of your humanity. Cry because you need to cry – or you are afraid, because the problem is difficult and you feel the inadequacy of your strength. Be human; live your humanity as an inspiration, as a sensitivity to the problems, as a risk to face, as a faithfulness to what God makes urgent in your soul. In this way, reality will appear to your eyes in a true way.

The reality of our humanity is not to be shunned or stuffed for the sake of being “spiritual”, but rather lived to its fullness. Pray for priests and religious. They come from our families. Let’s live the drama of these times with an openness to Christ, always welcoming him into our families, our homes and our hearts that he would bring about a good in every circumstance. And may we all see the path of holiness we are called to today.

-Peace,
Fr. Samson

Are Your Children Misbehaving at Mass?

First of all, we love having kids at mass! Bring them! Even if they are noisy, parents often over-estimate the perceived disruption. Some even apologize to me after Mass, but rarely do I know what they are even talking about because I didn't notice. In my mind, there ought to be a low roar going on because there are so many kids moving, complaining, and crying! It is the sign of a healthy parish and not having you and your children here would be sadness for us all.

There is a threshold I suppose. There is a point where the tantrum has reached fever pitch and you just need to leave the church. Here at Christ the King we don't have a cry room exactly. However, we do have spaces for parents to retreat if needed! First, please feel free to use the bridal room located at the 26th street entryway. It even has a bathroom. You are also welcome to step into the Campus Ministry lounge located at the South entryway.

Bring your children. Use these spaces as you need to. But don't deprive the rest of us of you and your child's presence at Mass!

Communion Antiphon: You have prepared a table before me, and how precious is the chalice that quenches my thirst.
