13th Sunday

IN ORDINARY TIME

[Jesus] answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." - Lk 9:60

From the Deacon's Desk~

"Brothers and sisters: for freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.

For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters.

But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

Galatians:5:1, 13-14

My sisters and brothers, God has given us freedom, and a free will to choose or reject this freedom. Unless we choose to love our neighbors with a love so unselfish that it is the same as we would shower upon ourselves knowing that we are beloved children of our heavenly father, we are not free but serving the command of the evil one. God is love; we are children of love; the Spirit invites us to live this love by serving one another in love. We don't need to complicate it; we simply have to live it.

My brothers and sisters, I close this with a prayer written by St. John Henry Cardinal Newman. It goes like this:

May the Lord
support us
all the day long till the shades
lengthen
and the evening
comes,
and the busy world
is hushed,
and the fever of life
is over
and our work is done.
Then, in his mercy,
may he give us
a safe lodging
and a holy rest
and peace at the last.

Jesus said, "Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you." I believe this is the peace that is mentioned in the above prayer. This is the peace of a life well lived.

Jesus loves you; I love you; love one another.

-Deacon Barry

Duluth Diocesan Vocation Prayer

 by Bishop Dennis M. Schnurr

Almighty Father, we beg you for an increase in religious vocations and holy marriages in our diocese.

Help us to be generous in our response to Your call. Choose from our homes those who are needed for Your work and to strengthen us with the courage to say "yes" and to follow You.

Help us as a diocese, as a parish, as families to encourage and foster vocations to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, and consecrated life.

We commend our prayers to our patroness, Mary, Queen of the Rosary, and ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Be sure to check the parishes' calendar on their websites for up-to-date information.

Cluster and Area News

You have heard about it, now it's time to experience the largest Papal artifacts collection outside of Rome! Father Richard Kunst will be unveiling the curated collection August 19-21, 2022, at the DECC in Duluth. This is the closest that most people will get to the Vatican or meeting the Pope. General exhibit hours are from 9:00 am– 5:00 pm, on Friday and Saturday, 10:00 am– 4:00 pm on Sunday. Early bird tickets available now at VaticanUnveiled.com or call 218-724-6201. Tickets are $20.00 per person, $18.00 for seniors, $40.00 for a family.

Immaculate Heart News

•Please remember that the calendar on the parish website (www.crosslakecatholic.com) is the most current source of information. Like us on Facebook (immaculateheart.crosslake).

Want an easy way to make your contribution without having to remember your checkbook? Scan the code and set up an account for Engage electronic giving. If you need help, call

Mary Hagen in the parish office.

The kiosk (that big, wooden, cylindrical unit in the corner of the narthex) is the place where you can find the current bulletin, sheets with the ministry schedule, the weekly prayer sheet, parish registration forms, sign-up sheets (when needed), prayer cards and informational pamphlets on such things as natural family planning, community services, and vocations. Check it out!

Did you know that Crosslake Food Shelf is busier than ever? Please consider donating to the food shelf, and especially on the third weekend of every month when we will have Food Shelf Weekend. Envelopes for donations by check or cash and tubs for donations of food will be available in the narthex for your donations. Thank you!

St. Emily's News

•Need info about the parish, a copy of the bulletin, or an up-to-date calendar of events or want to sign up for electronic giving? Visit our website at www.emilycatholic.com.

The CCW will be holding a bake sale after Mass next Sunday, July 3. All proceeds will be donated to the Emily Food Shelf. Be sure to stop by and take home some treats!

Sheets with our prayer list and a synopsis of the Sunday readings are available in the bulletin stand on the counter in the narthex.

St. Emily De Vialar consecrated her life to the poor, whom she welcomed into her home. In 1832, together with her fellow sisters in Gaillac, France, she founded a new form of religious life devoted to the service of all the poorest of the poor - caring for them in their every sort of misery - as well as attending to the education of young girls. The congregation she founded would be called the Sisters of St. Joseph of the Apparition. The support of the Archbishop of Albi, François-Marie de Gaully, would eventually give this institute great momentum. Despite many difficulties, persecutions and poverty, they managed to found 42 houses from North Africa to Burma. Today, her sisters are present on all five continents.

In 1951, the Church proclaimed her a Saint, and transferred her remains to Gaillac in 1972, where they are now offered for veneration.

St. Emily de Vialar died on August 24, 1856, the day on which she is celebrated in Marseille, where she worked for a many years. She was canonized on June 17, 1951, by Pope Pius XII. Her feast day is August 24 on the General Calendar, though in her communities she is celebrated on June 17.
