14th Sunday

IN ORDINARY TIME

"Nevertheless, do not rejoice because the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice because your names are written in heaven." - Lk 10:20

July 3, 2022
14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, “the condition or right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited.” That same dictionary defines liberty as, “the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to.” Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and simply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that “the only person who is free is the one who lives for Christ.” There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one’s soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one’s character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. “I am sending you like lambs among wolves,” Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That’s what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

Duluth Diocesan Vocation Prayer

 by Bishop Dennis M. Schnurr

Almighty Father, we beg you for an increase in religious vocations and holy marriages in our diocese.

Help us to be generous in our response to Your call. Choose from our homes those who are needed for Your work and to strengthen us with the courage to say “yes” and to follow You.

Help us as a diocese, as a parish, as families to encourage and foster vocations to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, and consecrated life.

We commend our prayers to our patroness, Mary, Queen of the Rosary, and ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Be sure to check the parishes’ calendar on their websites

Did you know that Crosslake Food Shelf is busier than ever? Please consider donating to the food shelf, and especially on the third weekend of every month when we will have Food Shelf Weekend. Envelopes for donations by check or cash and tubs for donations of food will be available in the narthex for your donations. Thank you! This month's Food Shelf weekend will be July 16-17.

The kiosk (that big, wooden, cylindrical unit in the corner of the narthex) is the place where you can find the current bulletin, sheets with the ministry schedule, the weekly prayer sheet, parish registration forms, envelopes for monetary donations to the Crosslake food shelf, sign-up sheets (when needed), prayer cards and informational pamphlets on such things as natural family planning, community services, and vocations. The CCW will be holding a bake sale after Mass this Sunday, July 3. All proceeds will be donated to the Emily Food Shelf. Be sure to stop by and take home some treats!

Sheets with our prayer list and a synopsis of the Sunday readings are available in the bulletin stand on the counter in the narthex.

God, source of all freedom, this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are Your gift to every human being. Help us to continue a good work begun long ago. Make our vision clear and our will strong: that only in human solidarity will we find liberty, and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth. Turn our hearts towards the family of nations: to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship, and to find safety only in the common good of all. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
