16th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The Lord said to her in reply, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." - Lk 10:41-42

A message from Fr. David~

So, this is it, my first bulletin column. I've written many columns in my time as pastor. I see it as another way to reach out and guide my flock. I especially focus on the spiritual life in my columns and also practical matters and things I and parish staff are organizing or planning for you. Funny fact, just in the last 11 years (I did some research and the math proves. BTW I'm horrible at math, the whole counting backwards 7 from 100, I fail miserably) I have penned more total words than what is contained in the entire Bible (I'm pretty proud of that).

And so I begin my time in Crosslake and Emily with a quote that I hope will define my life, my work, my passion and these are not my words, but they come from a priest named Jean-Baptiste Henri Lacordaire. He was a French ecclesiastic, preacher, journalist, theologian and political activist. He re-established the Dominican Order in post-revolutionary France. Lacordaire was reputed to be one of the greatest pulpit orators of the nineteenth century. He lived from 1802-1861. Quote:

"To live in the midst of the world with no desire for its pleasures; to be a member of every family, yet belonging to none; to share all sufferings; to penetrate all secrets, to heal all wounds; to daily go from men to God to offer Him their homage and petitions; to return from God to men to bring them His pardon and hope; to have a heart of fire for charity and a heart of bronze for chastity; to bless and to be blest forever. O God, what a life, and it is yours, O Priest of Jesus Christ! Amen."

Talk show host Johnny Carson would have an illustration inserted in between segments that always said "more to come". You will notice that I will always end my bulletin column with this phrase. And so today I close with this because there will be "more to come", much more. Please take the time to read my column every week. I write it for you and for your spiritual edification. I hope and pray that I will be with you for a full term as your pastor, at least 10 years and maybe more. Next week I will tell you a little bit more about me.

More to come...

God bless and have a good week everyone! Fr. David

Duluth Diocesan Vocation Prayer

 by Bishop Dennis M. Schnurr

Almighty Father, we beg you for an increase in religious vocations and holy marriages in our diocese.

Help us to be generous in our response to Your call. Choose from our homes those who are needed for Your work and to strengthen us with the courage to say "yes" and to follow You.

Help us as a diocese, as a parish, as families to encourage and foster vocations to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, and consecrated life.

We commend our prayers to our patroness, Mary, Queen of the Rosary, and ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Be sure to check the parishes' calendar on their websites for up-to-date information.

Cluster and Area News

Take note! Our cluster daily Mass schedule has changed.

- Daily Masses at St. Emily's are now on Wednesdays and Fridays at 8:30 am. There is no daily Mass on Mondays.
- Daily Masses on Tuesdays and Thursdays at Immaculate Heart are now at 8:30 am.
- Before each daily Mass there will be a recitation of the Angelus at 8:00 am and the rosary will be lead at 8:05 am.

Welcomed into the Church through the waters of Baptism on July 2, was Isla Grace Schafer, daughter of Travis and Audrey.

It has come to our attention that people who have an email address ending in crosslake.net are no longer receiving the weekly update emails or the funeral arrangement notices. In talking with Crosslake Communications, they say that the only way to fix this is by contacting Justin at Crosslake Communications at 218-692-2777.

The Respect Life Ministry meets every third Thursday after the 8:30 am Mass in the social hall at Immaculate Heart. All are welcome to join in on the meetings. The purpose of this ministry is to educate and distribute the pro-life message throughout the community as we prayerfully seek to change hearts and minds. There is a display in the Immaculate Heart hallway, going to the social hall, where you can pick up information and brochures that list resources for pregnancy and family support throughout the Diocese. The same information can be found on the counter in the narthex at St. Emily's.

For our parishioners and visitors who have an allergy to gluten, we always have consecrated, low gluten hosts available. To receive a low gluten host, receive from the priest or deacon and simply tell them you need a low gluten host.

Interfaith Volunteers (formerly known as Lakes Area Interfaith Caregivers) is a charitable organization in the Brainerd Lakes area. We help senior citizens and people with disabilities live safe and independent lives in their own homes. Interfaith Volunteers has been in existence since 2001, and the majority of our volunteers come from communities of faith. If you can swing a hammer, reach a high shelf, drive a car, hold a hand, or simply listen and be a friend, we would love to hear from you! We hope you consider sharing your time with us! ## Immaculate Heart News

•Please remember that the calendar on the parish website (www.crosslakecatholic.com) is the most current source of information. Like us on Facebook (immaculateheart.crosslake.com).

Want an easy way to make your contribution without having to remember your checkbook? Scan the code and set up an account for Engage electronic giving. If you need help, call Mary Hagen in the parish office.

Did you know that Crosslake Food Shelf is busier than ever? Please consider donating to the food shelf, and especially on the third weekend of every month when we will have Food Shelf Weekend. Envelopes for donations by check or cash and tubs for donations of food will be available in the narthex for your donations. Thank you! This month's Food Shelf weekend will be this weekend.

The kiosk (that big, wooden, cylindrical unit in the corner of the narthex) is the place where you can find the current bulletin, sheets with the ministry schedule, the weekly prayer sheet, parish registration forms, envelopes for monetary donations to the Crosslake food shelf, sign-up sheets (when needed), prayer cards and informational pamphlets on such things as natural family planning, community services, and vocations. Check it out!

St. Emily's News

•Need info about the parish, a copy of the bulletin, or an up-to-date calendar of events or want to sign up for electronic giving? Visit our website at www.emilycatholic.com.

For an easy way to contribute online, scan the QR code and set up an account through Engage electronic giving. Here you can set up your account for a one-time donation or for a monthly donation (even an anonymous donation). You can designate your donation (general fund, Vision for the Future, UCA, etc.) from month to month (even week to week). No worry about envelopes and if you leave for the winter you can still help your home (or up-north) parish. If your circumstances change, it is easy to change your giving. Visit the site and see if this interests you.

The CCW bake sale held on Sunday, July 3, brought in $382.00 to be donated to the Emily Food Shelf. Thank you to all who donated goods, volunteered to help and to all who purchased for your generosity!

We will once again be collecting new backpacks and school supplies for the Mid Minnesota Women's Center. There will be a box in the narthex beginning this Sunday, July 17. Deadline to bring in your donations is Sunday, August 14.
