A message from Fr. David~

First, a bit about daily Mass and then a little more about myself.

One of the biggest goals of any parish priest and pastor is to increase the awareness about the necessity for all Catholics to love the Mass and the Eucharist and to “come to Him.” I believe there is enough weariness, depression, and chaos in our world to make a case for the absolute need to “come to Him” at Mass and allow Jesus to “come to us” in the Eucharist. The daily Mass is the only thing that stays the “hand of God” from exhibiting His wrath and justice against the evil in the world. It is the love of God which is shown to us every day, at every daily Mass, in every corner of the world. When Jesus comes down upon His altar and offers His body and soul and Divinity as a sacrifice for sinners and as an offering of mercy. This is the reality of a spiritual world of grace that stems the tide against Satan, sin, and temptation. The daily Mass builds us up with the gifts and fruits of the Holy Spirit. It inspires us to be strong and filled with wisdom and it nourishes our souls to go out and “spread the Kingdom” to the world by our words and actions. We need more disciples who understand this, take it seriously, and follow through. I will continue for a while to belabor more important points in future columns about the daily Mass and hope that you respond to my encouragement and shared knowledge to “come to Him” at the daily Mass.

Although the priesthood is my life, I do have other interests to balance my life a bit. I am a deer hunter. More of a “cowboy” than an “Indian” as I shoot rifle, not bow. I do like to fish, but don’t have a boat, so I don’t get out there much, if at all. I used to be on the order of a bigger fisherman, going to Canada to fish, including up into the Flin Flon where I caught a 31 ½” inch Walleye. By His Grace! Interesting that on that trip Fr. Ryan Moravitz was with me and a very young Fr. Drew Braun (who is my first cousin) was in the boat too (both were seminarians). In those days I had the perfect rig for what we were doing up there, but I have since sold my boat. Too busy and getting old.

Trapping was a thing, too, for a while. I have trapped a Grey Fox, a Red Fox, a Coyote, and two Ermine. These I have taxidermied along with that Walleye I spoke of earlier, a good sized Crappie, a Woodchuck, a Muskrat, a Bobcat, and a Buck. All that’s left on my list of animals that I want to taxidermy is a large Northern Pike and a Black Bear.

I get excited for doing some of this, but it doesn’t consume me. You know how the experiences you’ve had spoil the ones in the present and future? It’s kind of like that. I’m grateful for the things I have been able to do in the past and it does temper my desire to do more of the same kind of thing. I do like spear-fishing. I have not been real successful with it. I keep trying, though, and will try again this winter.

I like watching movies and some things on Netflix. I read only spiritual books. I can play and sing with the guitar. However, my ability to play the guitar is hampered by a broomball accident I had in ‘92 at college. I had a compound fracture of my left index finger bone which means I can’t play bass chords or hold all the strings down at once.

I have many tools for doing many projects around here and at my mom and sister’s place. I like working on things, seeing projects completed, and enjoying my handiwork. All these things take a back seat on the bus of my life to my priesthood... even eating.

More to come...

God bless and have a good week everyone! Fr. David

Cluster and Area News

This Sunday, July 31, there will be a small welcoming reception for Fr. David in each parish's social hall after the 8:30 am Mass at Immaculate Heart and after the 10:30 am Mass at St. Emily's. All are invited to come say hello and help to warmly welcome Fr. David to our cluster!

While we have Fr. John Paul visiting our cluster, daily Masses will be offered Monday-Friday at 8:30 am, at Immaculate Heart. Masses on Wednesdays and Fridays at Immaculate Heart will be in addition to the regular 8:30 am daily Masses at St. Emily's on those days. This will continue until Fr. John Paul leaves in September.

The Knights of Columbus monthly membership meeting for August will take place on Monday, August 8, at 5:30 pm, in the Immaculate Heart social hall.

The Respect Life Ministry is actively preparing a billboard South of Crosslake on route 66. Watch for it!

You can visit the display in the hallway to the social hall at Immaculate Heart where there is information and inspiration offered. Please help to distribute the brochure that is available there that features a list of resources of support, throughout the Diocese of Duluth and beyond, for pregnant women and families.

"Abortion is profoundly anti-women. Three quarters of its victims are women: half babies and all mothers." -St. Teresa of Calcutta

For our parishioners and visitors who have an allergy to gluten, we always have consecrated, low gluten hosts available. To receive a low gluten host, receive from the priest or deacon and simply tell them you need a low gluten host.

Donations of good, used furniture are needed for area families. Please call Doris at 692-1004.

Immaculate Heart News

•Please remember that the calendar on the parish website (www.crosslakecatholic.com) is the most current source of information. Like us on Facebook (immaculateheart.crosslake).

Want an easy way to make your contribution without having to remember your checkbook? Scan the code and set up an account for Engage electronic giving. If you need help, call Mary Hagen in the parish office.

Immediate opening for custodian at Immaculate Heart Church. Duties include normal cleaning and maintenance of building, grounds and equipment. Position is full-time and includes benefits. Applications are available at crosslakecatholic.com or by calling Fr. David Forsman or Mary Hagen in the parish office.

The kiosk (that big, wooden, cylindrical unit in the corner of the narthex) is the place where you can find the current bulletin, sheets with the ministry schedule, the weekly prayer sheet, parish registration forms, sign-up sheets (when needed), prayer cards and informational pamphlets on such things as natural family planning, community services, and vocations. Check it out!

St. Emily's News

•Need info about the parish, a copy of the bulletin, or an up-to-date calendar of events or want to sign up for electronic giving? Visit our website at www.emilycatholic.com.

For an easy way to contribute online, scan the QR code and set up an account through Engage electronic giving. Here you can set up your account for a one-time donation or for a monthly donation (even an anonymous donation). You can designate your donation (general fund, Vision for the Future, UCA, etc.) from month to month (even week to week). No worry about envelopes and if you leave for the winter you can still help your home (or up-north) parish. If your circumstances change, it is easy to change your giving. Visit the site and see if this interests you.

We will once again be collecting new backpacks and school supplies for the Mid Minnesota Women's Center. There will be a designated box in the narthex where you can place your donations.

Deadline to bring donations in is Sunday, August 14.

Sheets with our prayer list and a synopsis of the Sunday readings are available in the bulletin stand on the counter in the narthex. Also on the counter are monthly program guides for EWTN, prayer cards for different intentions and many resource guides and pamphlets for things like pregnancy resource centers, crisis helplines, and community resources.
