20th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus said to his disciples: "I have come to set the earth on fire, and how I wish it were already blazing!" - Lk 12:49

The Rosary is a very important part of my prayer and devotional life. I try to inspire and lead others to find in the Blessed Virgin Mary a true Mother, faithful, pure (undefiled), Immaculate and holy. Mary has been allowed by Her Son Jesus to continue the work of the Gospel in the world. Of particular importance are the apparitions of Mary at Guadalupe, Lourdes, and Fatima but there are hundreds of other apparitions (some approved some not approved or recognized by the Church). There is a wonderful book that chronicles every alleged, approved or disapproved Marian Apparition from the Fatima Apparition to today throughout the world. It is called The World of Marian Apparitions by Wincenty Laszewski.

Mary always implores us to pray the Rosary and to make reparation for sin in her apparitions. She is concerned for Her children. We are losing the way, the truth and the life. We are losing sight of Her Son and Jesus' love for the Father. She desperately wants to bring us back to the Holy Trinity and to the Church, "to Jesus through Mary" and the Rosary and acts of reparation accomplish these things.

When I preside at daily Mass, I always lead a Rosary. Usually once a day at the rectory, I pray a Rosary. Sometimes if a can't sleep I will repeat over and over the Hail Mary or the Memorare Prayer. My favorite time to lead or participate in the Rosary is with small children. Sometimes with kids a full Rosary is hard, but a decade is always doable. Little kids need to have the mysteries of the Rosary explained to them and adults need to be able to know (what day has what mystery during the week and what the mysteries are on that day). This is important because the Rosary is a prayer of meditation and you need to be able to sink into the moment of the mystery and participate in silent moments of love. So first for those who don't know the mysteries or the days they are attributed to, the following:

Sunday and Wednesday	The Glorious Mysteries
Monday and Saturday	The Joyful Mysteries
Tuesday and Friday	The Sorrowful Mysteries
Thursday	The Luminous Mysteries

Next what the titles of each mystery of the decade are:

The Glorious Mysteries: Resurrection; Ascension; Descent of the Holy Spirit; Assumption; Coronation

The Joyful Mysteries: The Annunciation; The Visitation; The Nativity; The Presentation; The Finding of the Boy Jesus in the Temple

The Sorrowful Mysteries: The Agony in the Garden; The Scourging at the Pillar; The Crowning with Thorns; The Carrying of the Heavy Cross; The Crucifixion

The Luminous Mysteries: The Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan; The Manifestation of Jesus and the Wedding at Cana; The Proclamation of the Kingdom of God; The Transfiguration; The Institution of the Eucharist.

I'm going to write about how to meditate with the rosary next time and not just "say" the rosary but "pray" the rosary.

More to come...

God bless and have a good week everyone! Fr. David

Cluster and Area News

Congratulations to Julia Keiffer, Kelsey Polchow and Mackenzie Merta on receiving this year's Education Awards. The awards are presented by the Knights of Columbus and the CCW from the Crosslake and Emily Knights Foundation. The awards were for $1,000 each.

Pick up your Family Activity Guide for the Vatican Unveiled Event, which is happening on August 19-21. This family activity guide is brought to you by the Diocese of Duluth's Office of Marriage and Family Life. It is full of activities for children to do before they arrive at the display. This book has pages to color, word finds, crossword puzzles, and a scavenger hunt to do at the collection. Children who work on the booklet and bring it to the display will be given a prize, donated by Perkins Restaurants when they show their booklet to the clerk. Not only will this be fun for the whole family, but your children will also learn more about our Church's history.

To all Brother Knights, their families, and widows of Knights: On Sunday, August 28, we will celebrate a Mass of remembrance at both parishes for all Brother Knights who have passed. The first few pews on the right-hand side at each parish will be reserved for Knights, their families, and widows of Knights. If you are a Knight, please remember to wear your red vest. After Mass at IHC, Knights, their families and widows of Knights will sit at reserved tables in the social hall. Those tables will be located by the windows closest to the parking lot. Coffee and rolls will already be set on the reserved tables so those with the Knights will not have to stand in line. The Knights' council will be making a good will donation to help cover the cost.. At St. Emily's, our Knight's council will be purchasing treats for the whole parish. Be sure to check the TVs at both parishes that Sunday as there will be a remembrance presentation running featuring obituaries and pictures of Knights from our council who have passed on. If you have any questions, you can contact Jim Lee 763-360-1151 or JimLee1@outlook.com.

Reflections for the Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time—Some preachers will tell people that if they make Jesus their Lord, everything will be fine and all will be well. That is not the message Jesus gave us. He was very clear that to follow Him would be difficult and bring us suffering and rejection. So why should we even try? The peace and joy that comes with our discipleship is not based on earthly things. It is found in trying to do God's will everyday. It comes from being in tune with God and trusting that no matter what happens, God's love and grace will be with us. It is in God's peace that our souls are secure and we know that all will be well no matter what is happening around us.

"Though I am afflicted and poor, yet the Lord thinks of me."
Psalm 40:17
