St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Second Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy)

• First Reading – Acts of the Apostles 4:32-35
The early believers in Christ, in total stewardship, did not claim earthly possessions as their own. As Christian stewards, we likewise are called to share our blessings with the needy.

• Psalm 118:2-4, 13-15, 22-24

Good stewards, gratefully rejoice in the day the Lord has made and the strength and courage He gives us. His mercy and love is everlasting.

• Second Reading – 1 John 5:1-6

As good Christian stewards, we are born of God and love Him when we keep His commandments, which He promises are not burdensome. Thus strengthened in Him, we can conquer the world.

• Gospel – John 20:19-31

How many times in our stewardship journey do we find ourselves to be a “doubting Thomas” before we proclaim “my Lord and my God”?

Stewarding Our Gifts:

"Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples"
Acts 4:32-35 / 1 Jn 5:1-6 / Jn 20:19-31

EXTEND MERCY!

Today's first reading says that the early church “was of one heart and mind...they had everything in common.” This seems so foreign to us in 2021, where division abounds in most aspects of life!

On this Divine Mercy Sunday, let us come together and consider our stewardship of the mercy that our Heavenly Father has extended to us. It is said that we cannot give what we have not first received, so the first thing we disciples must do is slow down and take time to receive God's mercy. We can do this primarily through prayer and reconciliation. Let Him fill you up! Then, in an effort to cooperate with God's plan, we must go out and share the mercy we have received. In the Diary of Saint Faustina, Jesus says, “Take these graces not only for yourself, but also for others.” Extend mercy to those neighbors who have wronged you. Extend mercy to the complete strangers who might upset you in your daily routines. Extend mercy to those throughout the world who struggle with sin. Do not be a hoarder of God's mercy; instead, in love and humility, spread mercy everywhere it is needed.

This is discipleship!

• Stewardship Thought

The Christian community described in Acts understood and practiced total stewardship. St. Paul reports that the believers did not claim anything as their own, but held everything in common, and distributed to each whatever was needed.

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

- Catholic Life Explained:

Why are priests transferred from one parish to another? How is that decided?

Bishops take the appointment of pastors to parishes very seriously and the decision to assign or transfer priests is one of the most important decisions bishops can make, effecting the lives of everyone in the parish community.

In 1984, the bishops of the United States implemented a six-year term limit for pastors (which can be renewed by bishop); term limits for associate pastors vary from diocese to diocese. Sometimes a particular priest is assigned to a parish or chaplaincy to respond to specific issues (such as a parish merger, a fundraising campaign, or because he has special qualifications that make him a good fit for the community). In the case of new or recently ordained priests, the vibrancy and diversity, the presence of a school, or certain social programs offer invaluable training and ongoing formation.

In making their decisions regarding the placement of priests, most bishops rely on a priest personnel committee or a council of priests. There is also a period of dialogue with the priest(s) who will be moved, sometimes even including an extended period of discernment and self-assessment, helping to be as sure as possible that the assignment of a priest to a particular community will truly benefit the people and be a healthy one for the priest himself.

ADORATION - 2-3pm - Sun. April 11

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

Alleluia! Forgiveness has risen from the grave! What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. When experienced, we are moved to do all in our power to avoid sin and embrace the loving presence of our risen God. God stands ever ready to receive us and wants nothing more than for us to come home. How reluctant we are to believe this truth! We want proof, tangible evidence and absolute assurance that what we have been told is true. Jesus has risen from the dead and brings us peace. It is the gift of wholeness and holiness that is breathed upon us by God's life-giving and healing mercy.

May the rays of love that flow from the heart of Christ pierce ours!
