LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

When the greeting "Peace be with you" is sincerely offered to a person, it can resonate very deep within, bringing comfort and reassurance. When someone possesses the power to bring peace, it brings us to a place of safety and fills us with joy. The resurrected Christ has this power. God can open our minds so that we can more fully understand the meaning of Sacred Scripture and God's compassionate, loving, tender, and untiring embrace constantly present and offered to people throughout history. Without the anchor of truth that only God can provide, we can easily become startled and terrified at the sight of what life brings us. Being open to God's offer of peace, we can turn away from old habits and short-sighted vision and experience the gladness and joy of God's gift. Only then can what is wounded and broken be mended and reconciliation achieved. We are the resurrection witnesses called to proclaim the Good News.

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

Third Sunday of Easter

• First Reading –

Act of the Apostles 3:13-15, 17-19

As Christian stewards, we are grateful that God our Father, through Jesus Christ, Offers us the gift of eternal salvation if we repent of our sins, change our ways, and follow His commandments.

• Psalm 4:2, 4, 7-9

The Lord gives peace to those stewards who are faithful.

• Second Reading – 1 John 2:1-5

True Christian stewards understand that Jesus offered Himself for our sins and the sure way to follow Him is to keep His commandments.

• Gospel – Luke 24:35-48

Jesus encourages us to draw close to Him through the Scriptures. To be His disciples, let us ask Jesus to open our hearts and minds to His Word.

• Stewardship Thought

The disciples in today's Gospel came to know Jesus in the breaking of the bread. When we share what we have with those who are in need, we, too, will discover Jesus in our midst

Stewarding Our Gifts:

"Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples"

Acts 3:13-15, 17-19 / 1 Jn 2:1-5a / Lk 24:35-48

THE UPPER ROOM

In today's gospel, we see Jesus, yet again, gathered with the apostles in the Upper Room. This sacred space serves as the backdrop for several defining moments in the ministry of these first disciples...and for ours, as well. It was in the upper room that Jesus instituted the Eucharist and the sacrament of Reconciliation. It was to that room that Jesus beckoned his disciples and fueled them with the energy to go into the mission field! As disciples of the Risen Lord, let us also draw close to Him in the upper room. Let us enter into that holy space with Him so that we can go forth and share His good news with the rest of the world!

WHY DO WE DO THAT?

- Catholic Life Explained:

Do children need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before their First Communion?

For centuries the Catholic Church has taught that a person needs to be in a state of grace (free from mortal sins) in order to worthily receive the Eucharist. To that end, Catholics should make an effort to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation any time they recognize the need for the sacrament (and in keeping with the precept of the Church that asks that we celebrate this sacrament at least once each year).

In the case of children preparing for their First Communion, the Code of Canon Law is very clear that they should also celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Eucharist for the first time: "It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession" (Canon 914).

While some might question the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation — especially in the case of children who might not fully understand the reality of sin or the meaning of the sacrament itself — a child's "First Confession" can be a wonderful time for families to reflect together on the quality of their relationships, how they put their faith into practice, and, when it is possible, to celebrate the sacrament as a family. In the end, the celebration of these two sacraments marks important moments in the spiritual journeys of children and we hope their "First Confession" and "First Communion" help instill in them a love of the sacraments of the Church.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments
How to Fail Your Way to Heaven

You know what are some of my favorite moments in Scripture? The little “Easter eggs” of Jesus’ humanity, things like Jesus falling asleep, Jesus drawing in the sand, Jesus playing with kids. And how about Jesus rising from the dead, appearing to his disciples and saying, “So, have you got anything to eat?”

It’s right for us to always keep in mind that Jesus is God. But we also have to remember that he was man. He got hungry. He cried when he felt sad and laughed when he felt happy. He got tired. He got bored.

Because he was God, none of those feelings ever led him into sin, like they do us. He never spent a car ride trying to pass the hours by seeing how annoyed he could make his older sister. He never smacked Peter over the head for saying something really stupid. But he did unleash some Biblically righteous anger on those traders in the temple, didn’t he? And he wasn’t shy about calling Peter “a Satan” when his friend tempted him to take the easy way out.

It’s the tightrope-walk we all try to balance
every day, honoring our human emotions
while still answering God’s call to be better.
Being perfect isn’t the domain of the Christian — that’s the domain of Christ only.

Trying and failing, then trying again
(and failing again) and again and again?

That’s the domain of the Christian.
