WHY DO WE DO THAT? - Catholic Life Explained:

~ *Is it right to sue someone?
Isn't it a way of getting revenge?* ~

Revenge is inflicting harm for harm's sake, the idea of an eye for an eye, a tooth for a tooth, and then some.

There is often a fine line between justice and mercy, between compensation and forgiveness. Unfortunately, things can happen to us that cause harm, suffering, and damage, regardless of people's intentions. When someone is hurt, especially in such a way that special care or treatment is required, the cost of that care needs to be paid. In a perfect world, those with special needs, handicaps, or disabilities would find the help and care they need, including those who are injured or hurt.

But justice is not always forthcoming, and people are not always fair. So, using the legal system to right a wrong is sometimes the only option. In some cases, it is the only way that people can get the help they need and deserve. However, frivolous lawsuits, or 'fishing for money' is not only unfair, but immoral as well.

The law is there to protect people and making use of it when necessary is a good thing.

LETTER AND SPIRIT:

featuring Scott Hahn and Mike Aquilina

VIA ZOOM or in the St. Teresa Parish Hall
SUNDAY'S @ 9:00am

(between 8:00am & 10:30am masses)

They will show us how it is that the Bible is 'for' the Liturgy and the Liturgy is 'for' the Bible.

And that's not all, they will also prove the Bible is 'about' the Liturgy and the Liturgy of the Mass is 'about' the Bible.

Please come join us after Friday 12:05pm Mass for a free lunch in the St. Teresa Parish Hall - 215 E. 5th Ave.

Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

• First Reading – Nehemiah 8:2-6, 8-10

In today's first reading, the ancient Israelites are asked to rejoice in the Lord for his abundant food, and to give a portion to those who had nothing. As Christian stewards, we are called to do the same.

• Psalm 19:8-10, 15

The psalmist proclaims that God's laws are perfect, trustworthy, right, clear, pure and just. As Christian stewards, we see the wisdom of His commands and strive to follow His precepts faithfully.

• Second Reading – 1 Corinthians 12:12-30

In this reading, St. Paul teaches that all disciples with their various gifts are part of the same body — the Body of Christ, the Church. We can apply this metaphor to our parish communion. What steps are we taking as Christian stewards to build up our parish to fulfill its mission of doing Christ's work?

• Gospel – Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

By reciting a passage from the prophet Isaiah, Jesus proclaims His own ministry of service. As Luke continues in his Gospel, we find Jesus is not accepted in His hometown. As disciples of Jesus, we should not be afraid to proclaim the Gospel, even in the face of opposition.

• Stewardship Thought

The U. S. Bishops' Pastoral on stewardship reinforces today's reading from 1 Corinthians: "Because its individual members do collectively make up the Body of Christ, that body's health and well-being are the responsibility of the members — the personal responsibility of each one of us. We all are stewards of the Church"

HIS Words

Receive One Another As Gifts

In today's Gospel, we see Jesus in his element, so to speak. He is in His hometown, among His family and neighbors, and in His home church. These people KNOW Jesus.

The people of Nazareth were some of the first to hear the good news — what a beautiful gift. How, do you suppose, did they receive that gift? Was there a sense of entitlement, because of their connection to Jesus? Did they take it for granted, because they had heard Jesus speak many times in the synagogue?

And how does this relate to the way we receive the gifts of our fellow parishioners?

Consider your reaction to your pastor, to the lector whose voice is too loud, to the musicians who sing everything too slowly. Is your pride and entitlement blocking the evangelizing they are attempting? Is your familiarity making it impossible for them to grow as disciples?

Pray today that God will humble your heart and allow you to embrace all you have been given in the people of your parish!

Young Adults

All young adults over 21 years of age are invited to meet and pray with scripture each Tuesday from 7-8 pm in the Holy Cross Chapel Cry Room

LIVE THE LITURGY- INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

People can easily lose a sense of the sacred and transcendent. When we lose a sense of God's special presence, we need to be brought back. Ezra brought people back to the word of God and they realized what they were missing. Jesus proclaims God's word in the synagogue with true conviction and tells those gathered that he is the fulfillment of all that Isaiah taught. Even though people get lost, distracted, discouraged, and often journey down the wrong path, God's timeless law remains. When we allow ourselves to truly hear God's word and act on it, that living word slowly, over time, changes us. It has the power to soften and mold us, creating within us a joyful spirit. We realize the truth in what God speaks and become open to God's love. Gradually and gently God leads us back where we belong. We discover again the sacred character of life and the wonder of God's power.

It is no wonder that Luke addresses his remarks to Theophilus. It is a name that means "beloved of God," a name that can be used by anyone who desires friendship with God.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

Plant Your Works in the Word

One of the things about Scripture is that even the smallest word and shortest phrase can be critical to the overall message. When you take a quiet moment to rest with the Word, you find how quickly the most mundane sentence can reach out and grab you, pulling you into a deeper contemplation of some truth you hadn't even considered until then. But we often fail to act as the Israelites in the Book of Nehemiah, standing before the Water Gate "listening attentively." Whether it's at Mass during the Liturgy of the Word or at home poring over the Bible, time after time we find ourselves less mindful than we could be. Our ears accept the sounds of the words and our eyes glance over the shape of the letters. But are we mindful — truly? The best answer is hopefully at least sometimes. There are always tasks to be completed, problems weighing on our minds that we can't quite give over to God. We lose ourselves in these things instead of in Scripture. We "clock in" with Bible reading instead of "diving in." We can never forget that the words of the Lord are spirit and life. They are the soil that quickens the seed of all stewardship. There is no mindfulness, no prayer, no graciousness, no gratitude or accountability or sense of commitment unless there is the Word.

So let us pray today for mindfulness, that our every action will be grounded in the law of God — giving it true spirit and life.

— Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
