WHY DO WE DO THAT? - Catholic Life Explained:

~ I've heard people call Jesus' conception by the Holy Spirit being "immaculately conceived." Is that what the Immaculate Conception is? ~

While these two events are often confused, they are not the same thing. We celebrated the conception of Jesus on March 25th, the feast of the Annunciation. While that was surely miraculous, it isn't what we refer to as the "immaculate conception." The Immaculate Conception is Mary's conception, and we typically celebrate it on December 8th. If the 8th happens to be a Sunday, the Church moves the feast to December 9th. It is a holy day of obligation. Why does the Church consider it so important to celebrate? Mary's conception is immaculate because she was conceived without original sin. The angel Gabriel acknowledges this when he hails Mary as "full of grace" (Luke 1:28). Scripture scholars identify several theological ideas that confirm this. In the Old Testament, the sacred, pristine Ark of the Covenant held the presence of God. The presence of God is now held within a new "arc" — the womb of Mary. Genesis 3 also prophesies of a woman who would oppose the devil and whose child would crush the devil's head. Christ is the "New Adam." This passage sets up Mary, then, as the "New Eve." Jesus and Mary are the beginnings of a new creation, one we all can participate in through the grace of our baptism. After all, God's love is more "original" than our sin!

Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

• First Reading – Jeremiah 1:4-5, 17-19
 God states that He knew Jeremiah even before He formed him in the womb, and dedicated him as a prophet before his birth. What a beautiful message for us, as faithful stewards, to use in defense of the Church's position on the sanctity of life.

• God strengthens the prophet to profess His Word to the leaders and people of his time. As Christian stewards, do we pray for God to give us the same courage to profess His Word today?

• Psalm 71:1-6, 15, 17

• What comforting words from the psalmist that God's strength is our rock and our refuge at all times.

• Second Reading – 1 Corinthians 12:31-13:13
 Love is the binding force that unifies us as mature Christian stewards. Out of this love, our Lord calls us to serve those in need.

• Gospel – Luke 4:21-30

Jesus reminds the people how the message proclaimed by the prophets is often rejected by those who should heed it. As faithful disciples of Christ, we believe that Jesus came so all may believe in Him.

• Stewardship Thought

Jeremiah declares that the Lord knew him before he was born, and dedicated and appointed him to his role as prophet even before he drew breath. We, too, are known and sent by the Lord.

What deeds of love and service are mine to perform?

STEWARDING OUR GIFTS:

"Fully Alive as Missionary Disciples"

Jer 1:4-5, 17-19/ 1 Cor 12:31-13:13/ Lk 4:21-30

We Are Still Called

When we think about how the crowds often reacted to Jesus's teachings as they did in today's Gospel, perhaps we find it difficult to comprehend how so many could reject him. Especially when we consider that he not only proclaimed the Word of God—he was himself the Living Word of God. And to think that Jesus was rejected mostly by those who thought they knew him best – those from his own native place – might seem all the more confounding and incomprehensible to us.

Yet, today we are still called to hear his message, in the words of Scripture and those who God has called to proclaim the Gospels. May we be as receptive of His gifts today as much as we would have expected ourselves to be over two-thousand years ago.

~ St. Teresa Stewardship Committee ~

LIVE THE LITURGY- INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

Prophets possess an intimate knowledge of God and act on their experience of God. Prophetic messages usually challenge the status quo and draw us up and out of ourselves, focusing us on the bigger picture. We often think of ourselves and our own needs first.

When we listen to someone speak, we judge the merit of the message by its degree of usefulness.

If the message or vision contains no personal benefit or profit but a call to stretch and grow, we can become indignant. Prophets are usually the ones whose message challenges us and calls us to see things differently and love more perfectly and deeply. God is love. When listening to St. Paul speak about love we witness the unfolding of this type of unconditional, other centered, self-sacrificial perfect God. It is an invitation to life, freedom, and happiness that can be offered to us only by God. Jesus, who is God and Love incarnate, calls us to this richer expression of love.

Are we ready to listen and be challenged and stretched?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Recognize God In Your Ordinary Moments

First Corinthians and the Stewardship of Social Media

"Love is patient, love is kind ..." As familiar as these words are, they never seem to stray into the territory of becoming trite or silly. At their core they communicate a truth about us and about our Creator that never fails to inspire. But despite the fact that you've probably heard it at many weddings over time, First Corinthians isn't just for newlyweds. It wasn't written for married folks. It's for every single one of us, in every state of life and every social situation, in every country and culture and language across the globe. Which means that

First Corinthians is even for the online world. It's for Facebook and Twitter and Instagram and all the other platforms I'm forgetting (there seems to be a new one every day, doesn't there?). A sense of division — whether rooted in politics, culture or anything else — is growing in our world, and it's never more obvious than when we observe interactions online. It is far easier, after all, to remember what love is when a human being of flesh and blood stands before us. When all we see is an avatar or a profile picture on a screen — especially accompanied by an opinion with which we vehemently disagree — even the most loving Christians can throw First Corinthians out the window. As everyday stewards we know that we are charged to be not only gracious but grateful. We receive others but we also give thanks for what they bring to us - even if that's an opportunity to "strive eagerly for the greatest spiritual gifts."

So before the next time you post anything online, I suggest giving First Corinthians a read — and remember, love never fails. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
