Father Joseph Westfall of Cross Catholic Outreach will be visiting our parish next weekend, June 18th and 19th, to speak at all the Masses on behalf of the poor in developing countries. Cross Catholic Outreach was founded to create a meaningful link between parishes in America and the priests and nuns working in the Church overseas in the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Central and South America.

Night of Eucharistic Praise & Worship -

Join us at St. Stanislaus for a different kind of holy hour on Tuesday, June 21! From 7-8pm, we will worship our Lord in Eucharistic Adoration through song. We will begin with Exposition at 7 and have a time of brief reflection before beginning praise & worship songs. We will conclude with Benediction at 8. This is a great opportunity for youth groups or for anyone who wants to start their summer right. All ages welcome! Also, prayerfully consider inviting loved ones of other faith backgrounds to join us. While they may not be familiar with the Eucharist, this could be a great way to introduce them to this belief in a more relaxed environment than the Mass.

The Most Holy Trinity • John 16:12-15

Saint Germaine Cousin | June 15

Saint Germaine was born in Pibrac, France in 1579 to poor parents. Her story is a heart wrenching one. She was born with a deformed right arm and hand, and her mother died when she was an infant. Her father remarried, but her stepmother brutally abused and neglected her.

As a child Germaine suffered from scrofula, a disfiguring form of tuberculosis which causes swelling and lesions on the side of the neck. Already sick, abused, and starving, she was forced to sleep in barn with sheep she tended.

Despite everything, Germaine lived each day tending her flock with joy and in prayer. Mary and Jesus became her friends. She shared what little she had and taught the children of the village about God's love. A rosary made of string knots was her constant companion. She attended Mass every day, leaving her sheep in care of guardian angels. Her flock was never attacked by wolves and never wandered. Some claimed to see the waters of the flooded river part so she could get to Mass.

She is often portrayed with an apron full of flowers because one winter day her stepmother accused her of stealing bread from the house and hiding it her apron. But when she was seized and forced to open the apron an abundance of spring flowers tumbled forth. It was this incident that compelled the villagers and even her parents to recognize her holiness.

Germaine died at 22, her poor body was found by her father, in the barn where she slept. She was buried in the village church. More than forty years later, her body was accidentally exhumed and found to be incorrupt. She was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867 and inscribed into the canon of virgins.
