The Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

St. Oscar Romero (1917-1980) was a "Salvadoran Roman Catholic archbishop who was a vocal critic of the violent activities of government armed forces, right-wing groups, and leftist guerrillas involved in El Salvador's civil conflict (Encyclopedia Britannica)." As a voice of the voiceless, he was an outspoken champion of the poor who were the ones most affected by the civil unrest and violence. His advocacy provoked several attempts on his life. Nonetheless, St. Oscar Romero was convinced that before all else his faith in the resurrected Christ and the values of the Gospel trumped any earthly concern or worry. He walked with complete confidence and trust. On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was assassinated while celebrating Mass. Such is often the fate of those who challenge the socio-political agendas of the day.

We may look at the example of witness of St. Oscar Romero as something extraordinary. In one sense it is. Through the power of God, an ordinary human being did extraordinary things. But, in and of himself, St. Oscar Romero was simply a humble, loving servant of God. Oscar knew not only the power of love but the risk that comes when loving unconditionally. The beauty of God's message was able to shine in and through him because he was able to step out of the way and be a vessel. One can assume that for St. Oscar Romero, one's earthly life has no merit when faith, integrity, conviction, zeal and love are jettisoned. Fear and apprehension had no grip on this man who not only saw but spoke the truth.

Do we speak the truth? It makes us feel good to speak of God as love. But have we ever considered the ramifications of this radical message? There are assaults on human life occurring daily. More and more the value and worth of a human being is being reduced and minimized. We are becoming widgets in the production of life. In our whole simple humble ways, we too are called to be prophets. Knowing who you are and what is within your means to do, how can you make God's love real, stand up for what is right, and give witness to the sacredness of all that is around you?

Oh my Jesus, I firmly believe that you are in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love Thee above all things, and I long for Thee in my soul. Since I cannot now receive Thee sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I adore Thee in the Sacrament of Thy love, the ineffable Eucharist. Amen

Stewardship Reflection

Jeremiah declares that the Lord knew him before he was born and dedicated and appointed him to his role as prophet even before he drew breath. We, too, are known and sent by the Lord. What deeds of love and service are mine to perform?

SPIRITUAL PRACTICES: Eucharistic Adoration

Our Catholic faith contains a rich treasury of powerful words: beloved prayers, timeless creeds, scripture readings, and liturgical texts. Words of Faith is a growing collection of bulletin inserts structured around these amazing words that teach us who we are, what we believe, and how we are to live.

We Hear

Down in adoration falling,
Lo! the sacred Host we hail,
Lo! o'er ancient forms departing
Newer rites of grace prevail;
Faith for all defects supplying,
Where the feeble senses fail.

To the everlasting Father,
And the Son who reigns on high
With the Holy Ghost proceeding
Forth from each eternally,
Be salvation, honor, blessing,
Might and endless majesty.
Amen.

—Saint Thomas Aquinas, Tantum Ergo

We Practice

This simple hymn is known by its opening words in the Latin, Tantum Ergo. It is often sung during Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament and will be familiar in many parishes as the hymn we sing on Holy Thursday evening as we move in procession with the Blessed Sacrament at the close of Mass. The words of the hymn draw us into the heart of Eucharistic adoration—the worship of Christ present in the Blessed Sacrament.

Adoration is the act of worshipping or giving homage to someone or something. For Christians, adoration is reserved to God. While we venerate the saints and Mary, we adore God alone. In Eucharistic adoration then, it is not the consecrated host we adore but the presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. This adoration can take place in formal, communal settings when the consecrated host is placed in a monstrance or chalice, both sacred vessels used during Eucharistic celebrations. Yet we also practice Eucharistic adoration when we visit a church in order to pray and meditate in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament reserved in the tabernacle.

Adoration is different from prayer of thanksgiving or petition; it is about giving God glory or praise for who he is. We adore God when we honor him simply for being God. There are many different ways of adoring God. Some people, for example, adore the Lord in silence. Others sing charismatic songs or pray in tongues. However we offer worship, the central act of Eucharistic adoration is simply spending time with our Lord.

A BIT OF HISTORY

The origins of Eucharistic adoration in its liturgical form are usually associated with the establishment in 1264 of the Feast of Corpus Christi. This feast is now known as the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ and is celebrated in the United States on the second Sunday after Pentecost.

In fact, the Tantum Ergo comes from the last two verses of Pange Lingua, a hymn written by St. Thomas Aquinas for the feast of Corpus Christi. The simple spiritual practice of praying in front of the Blessed Sacrament is of course much older.
