Jesus Christ, Our Life and Resurrection

Maybe not since the first Easter and that first joyous and totally surprised exclamation RESURREXIT SICUT DIXIT – He is risen even as He said, has there ever been a day in our Western, once called Christian, society, when we have had such a great need for true and lasting joy. The Good News of Christ’s victory needs to resound in our land. We need to hear and come to understand, that Jesus has vanquished forever what holds us down, namely that burden of sin and death. Leaving all else aside, we need to be blessed with that Easter Proclamation and respond with our whole-hearted Alleluia! Yes, indeed Christ is truly Risen!

I wish for you all here at St. Mary’s in Salem that kind of great joy, joy filled with hope, hope in Christ’s great victory. We believe and proclaim that He and He alone, the Lord Jesus, has led and continues to lead us out of darkness into His own wonderful Light!

We are truly fortunate this Easter Sunday to have our church in Salem open and not locked down as in many other places. The premise is on hand for us to enjoy freedom of worship without restrictions. That is certainly one, though not the only one of the characteristics of true religious liberty. There are countries around the world and even cities and states here in the United States, where unbelieving people in power, hungry for ever more control over society, use the excuse of a pandemic to block people’s way to Sunday Mass on this glorious day of Resurrection, there are other officeholders who forbid singing and musical wind instruments not to keep us safe, but to dampen our spirits.

Sing with me a quiet, little alleluia this Easter, not just in thanks for the freedom of expression, which is ours, but in hopes that our joy in the Risen Christ might be the principal contagion which spreads far and wide, filling hearts to overflowing with joyful confidence and unbounded hope in Jesus, Who saves us and raises us up now unto glory. Yes! RESURREXIT SICUT DIXIT!

Presentation Description: If you ask 50 different financial advisors how to plan for a secure retirement, you will get 50 different opinions. Their opinions are likely to be sub-optimal. "Paychecks to Playchecks": Retirement Solutions for Life" is a guide for retirement that is built for uncertain markets like the one we are in today. The strategies in this presentation are based on a mathematically and scientifically proven approach that will enable you to create a secure retirement, no matter how long you live. You will learn how to retire with enough guaranteed lifetime income to cover your basic expenses and how to optimize the rest of your portfolio to make sure you receive your "paychecks."
