The Diocese of Wichita: Christmas Call to Sharing

We would like to thank you all for your generous contributions to the Diocesan collection, Christmas Call to Sharing. These funds will be used by the Bishop for the education of our seminarians and the support of our retired priests. If you have not had an opportunity to contribute to this collection please use one of the envelopes in the foyer and place it in the general collection basket. Thank you!!!

Total Assessed: $9,028.00 Total Collected: $7,065.00

Christ Is Anything but Ordinary

We're about to dive headlong into week two of Ordinary Time, and we need to admit, after the hustle and bustle of the holidays, things are indeed looking more ... ordinary, at least in our spiritual lives.

The transcendent highs of the Christmas season are flat lining a bit and the vivid imagery of the Nativity scene has faded. The solemn anticipation of the Advent season is by now a distant memory.

Are you bored yet?

Here's a secret: I think that Ordinary Time can actually be quite extraordinary, if we're really living out our baptismal call.

In today's Gospel, Jesus point-blank asks Andrew, who is following him after hearing John the Baptist's testimony: "What are you looking for?" He's asking us the same question.

What are you looking for? Why are you following me? Is it for the Christmas cookies and the Advent carols? Is it for the King's Cake on the Epiphany? Is it for the feeling we get on Christmas when we just know God has done a wondrous thing?

None of those things are bad, but they are not what Andrew was looking for, and they were not what Christ promised him when he said, "Come, and you will see." Andrew was looking for the Messiah – the One who makes even Ordinary Time extraordinary. The One who can sanctify the longest and dullest of to-do lists, on the longest and dullest of days. The One whose peace can reign in our homes on January 25, not just December 25.

Remember what you are looking for. Come, and you will see.

Men's Bible Study

Men's group will begin the book Consecration to St. Joseph by Fr. Calloway on February 12. Bishop Kemme has declared this to be the Year of St. Joseph, so this Lent would be the perfect time to devote oneself to the patron of husbands and fathers. Men's group meets Friday mornings at 5:30 am in the church classroom. Please let the church office know if you are interested so books can be ordered. The cost of the book is $15.
