Again in our readings this week we hear about those who have been called, Jonah from the Old Testament, and Peter, Andrew, James, and John by Jesus in the Gospel. All of us are called and given the grace to respond positively, but sometimes responding to that call isn’t easy. The apostles called by Jesus are examples of those that followed seemingly without hesitation, leaving everything behind. The former, Jonah, had a whale of a time responding to God’s call. (I’m sorry, I just had to do that!) Our bulletin this week is again full of great “calls”, invitations to live out our discipleship even more. I’m inviting you to take a look at these opportunities, and prayerfully consider how you might say “Yes! Hear I am, Lord! I come to do your will!” Be bold like the apostles! Don’t get swallowed up by fear of the new and unknown! (Sorry, again!)

Reach More Discipleship Workshop (THIS WEEK!)

We have been working the past few months with an organization called Evangelical Catholic (EC) to provide an opportunity for our people to grow in faith as disciples and in the confidence to help “Reach More” people for Christ! Mark Rose from EC will be joining HFB for a workshop at IC Lansing on Tuesday, January 26, at 7:00 pm. This session is open to all HFB parishioners, but is especially aimed for those that would be “leaders” in these small discipleship groups. Some of you have been hearing about this, so this is it . . . now is the time to say “Yes!” Don’t worry if you don’t really know what this is all about, or have never done anything like this before. Follow the words of Jesus and , “Come, and you will see!” Small groups within parishes are a great way to grow in your faith! Mark will also be available following the Wednesday morning Mass in Lansing on January 27 if you’d like to speak with him more.

Beauty in Christ: ON FIRE WITH THE HOLY SPIRIT!

Mark your calendars for 2021 Archdiocesan Women’s Conference, Saturday, January 30th from 9am - 1pm. Though virtual, this outstanding day will offer the same high quality we’ve come to expect: two national speakers; prayer opportunities; worship music; variety of vendors; conversation with other women! Featured speakers are Maria Vadia and Caroline Gambale-Dirkes, each inviting women into a deeper relationship with the Holy Spirit. To register go to the following website: www.archwomensconference.org

Archdiocesan Men’s Conference

This year, the 25th Archdiocese of Dubuque Men’s Conference will be held on Saturday, March 13, 2021, featuring keynote speaker Patrick Madrid, host of “The Patrick Madrid Show” on Relevant Radio. The day also includes breakout sessions, Mass with Archbishop Jackels, and more. Due to COVID-19, participants can register to join either virtually (via a live-stream) or in-person at Xavier Catholic High School, Cedar Rapids (where CDC guidelines will be followed). For more details and registration, visit: www.ArchMensConference.org. If you’d be interested in gathering locally to participate via livestream, or in traveling to Cedar Rapids via carpool, please contact Fr. Smith.

Eternal Rest

Leo Garin of Lansing died about 10 days ago and was laid to rest this week. We pray for the repose of his soul and the peace and comfort of the Holy Spirit for his family and friends.

Eternal rest, grant unto him, O LORD, And let perpetual light shine upon him.

May he rest in peace. Amen.

May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC):

For the past ten years, the Archdiocese of Dubuque has brought the largest delegation to this national event. At this time, I am asking for those currently in 8th-11th grade, who have ANY interest in attending this event to please email me by the end of January. An informational meeting will take place in February or March once all details are received from the Archdiocese. Although NCYC 2021 may look different than the past years. In November, we are looking forward to offering you a faith filled trip you will talk about for a lifetime! Please contact me at dbq216ym@dbqarch.org

Volunteer Opportunity!

A new year brings new opportunities for volunteering your time and give of yourself. Do you feel that God is calling you to a new opportunity? The CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) program is a great way to share your time and your skills with local children that need your help. Our next training session begins in April. For more information on this opportunity please contact:
