Dear Parishioners,

I pray you will have a safe and blessed 4th of July. We celebrate our independence as a nation. It's a time when we can give thanks for the blessings we have received due to the sacrifices of others who believed in the cause of freedom and patriotism. There are some who are questioning whether we should be proud of our nation's history or ashamed of it. Undoubtedly there have been things which were done that were unjust and even evil. There is a long list of faults which we could point to, but we shouldn't allow that to keep us from celebrating and being proud of the good things which our country has done and stands for. I think our own experience and history of our Catholic faith can help us understand that when people are involved there is always going to be some problems and disfunction. Even though the Church is divinely instituted there are still individuals and groups of individuals who have failed to live up to what the Church truly stands for and strives to be. There are similarities with the American project. Just because there have been missteps along the way, doesn't mean we should get rid of the whole institution. There is a lot of revisionist history being done where we look back on our forefathers... on the founding fathers... and the major events of our history and judge them by today's standards. This can be an easy thing to do, because we come at things from our current understanding. But this idea that we need to pay restitution for the past is a problematic. It leads to blaming the past for our current decisions or faults. It proposes an impossible standard to live up to. I think we would be better served by trying to take responsibility for our own lives and our own generation. To do this well, we should study history and learn about the good and the bad of our past as a nation. It's okay to admit mistakes were made and to learn from them... but it's creating an unbearable burden if we think we need to take responsibility for things which we really didn't have any control over (meaning the past). We would be yoking ourselves to an unfixable problem... because there is no way for us to fix the past, only Jesus can do that. So, let's try to celebrate the good that our country stands for. We may not agree totally on everything, but we can continue dialoguing and working together.

The over turning of the Roe vs. Wade decision brings to the fore tension within our nation that we will continue to deal with. As a Catholic I rejoice in this change of events. I pray it will save innocent lives...and I also hope it will spur dialogue about how we can support life in all it's stages. The issue of abortion has deeply divided our nation. It will continue to do so, but we have the opportunity now to keep working it out in the public forum. I pray and hope that we will be able to reason through this together.

In Christ,
Fr. Eli

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

WORDS FROM BISHOP FELTON

“ Dear Brother Knights,

Ever since my ordination and installation as the Bishop of Duluth, I have been impressed with the Catholic zeal and hard work of the different councils of the Knights of Columbus here in the Diocese of Duluth.

I personally want to thank those Knights who give of their time and talent to build up the Church and make our world a better place.

Also, I am certainly aware of and appreciative of the efforts of the Knights, both individually and collectively, to support church vocations, especially vocations to priesthood and the permanent diaconate. I know the priests and permanent deacons of the diocese are grateful to the Knights for their encouraging words and actions. As shepherd of 73 parishes and 44,000 Catholics scattered over 22,000 square miles in 10 northeastern Minnesota counties, I am counting on the Knights to assist me in celebrating our Catholic heritage and promoting Gospel value in a world searching for the truth.

Blessings upon you and those you serve,

Bishop Daniel J. Felton

Let us take a moment to remember all those people in the world who are not free to seek life, liberty or happiness.

O God, you willed that the Jewish people be free from slavery by their Egyptian captors.

You will that all people should be free to worship you without fear and to celebrate their religious beliefs freely, even if they have not yet found you.

Grant that those of us who live in this great nation will thank you daily for our freedom, and work for the freedom of others around the world that do not yet have the freedom to practice their faith openly and proudly.

We seek your wisdom where hatred abounds, and ask for humility to offer our good works to others who live in fear and bondage.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who frees us from sin and death through the wood of the cross. Amen.
