Come
AND YOU WILL SEE
(JOHN 3:19)

JANUARY 17, 2021: SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“Come, and you will see.”
(John 1:39)

Along with John’s disciples, Jesus invites us to come and see.

What will be our response to Jesus’ invitation? Will we go all the way to see where Jesus dwells, to know what Jesus does, and to discover the Messiah, the Anointed one? Or, will we continue to remain in our own dwelling places?

We must acknowledge where we are today. We hunger for the Messiah, the Anointed one, yet we settle for the messiahs we have created for ourselves. We want to know Jesus, hear Jesus, and encounter Jesus, but burdened by the noise of the world and personal preoccupations, we settle for the margins.

It is difficult to hear God’s voice. Samuel and Eli struggle too. They live in the temple, and still they struggle to hear God’s voice. It is only the third time that Eli instructed Samuel to say: “Speak, for your servant is listening.” This suggests that both remain in slumber until then, lost in the temporal voices.

We may be going to church, but may remain in absolute slumber—perhaps inwardly unwilling to open ourselves for the fullness of God’s revelation. Yet, it’s so comforting to hear Jesus saying: “Come, and you will see.” As we journey through this week, can we dare to go with Jesus and stay with Him?

PRAYER TO OVERCOME INDIFFERENCE

All too often, Lord, we turn away from the world's many problems, which seem too big, too complex, or too far away. Forgive us our indifference.

It is easier, Lord, to see only what is around us: our lives, our homes, our challenges.

Forgive us our isolation.

Help us to see with your eyes: eyes which notice one another and help us understand.

Help us to dream your dream: of communities that reach out and dialogue and where diverse people creatively cooperate.

Help us to be people of solidarity and action, so moved by prayer, encounter, and understanding that peace can become a reality.

Amen.

REFLEXION

"Ven y lo verás."

(Juan 1:39)

Junto con los discípulos de Juan, Jesús nos invita a venir y ver.

¿Cuál será nuestra respuesta a la invitación de Jesús? ¡Iremos hasta el final para ver dónde mora Jesús, para saber qué hace Jesús y para descubrir al Mesías, el Ungido? ¡O continuaremos permaneciendo en nuestras propias viviendas?

Debemos reconocer dónde estamos hoy. Tenemos hambre del Mesías, el Ungido, pero nos conformamos con los Mesías que hemos creado para nosotros. Queremos conocer a Jesús, escuchar a Jesús y encontrarnos con Jesús, pero agobiados por el ruido del mundo y las preocupaciones personales, nos conformamos con los márgenes.

Es difícil escuchar la voz de Dios. Samuel y Eli también luchan. Viven en el templo y todavía luchan por escuchar la voz de Dios. Es solo la tercera vez que Eli le dio instrucciones a Samuel para que dijera: "Habla, porque tu siervo escucha". Esto sugiere que ambos permanecen dormidos hasta entonces, quizás perdidos en las voces temporales.

Es posible que estemos yendo a la iglesia todos los días, pero aún permanecemos en un letargo absoluto, tal vez interiormente no estamos dispuestos a abrirnos a la plenitud de la revelación de Dios. Sin embargo, es tan reconfortante escuchar a Jesús decir: "Ven y verás". A medida que avanzamos en esta semana, ¿podemos atrevernos a ir con Jesús y quedarnos con Él?

Pax et bonum, Padre Chinna

JOURNEY TOWARDS ORDINATION

ACOLYTE INSTALLATION

Reflection by Jason Lee

On October 26th, 2020, I was installed as an acolyte by the Bishop of Fargo, John Folda. It was a beautiful ceremony in which my classmates and I were formally installed to serve at the altar of our Eucharistic Lord, Jesus. In this role, we are charged with the duty to serve at Mass, function as extraordinary ministers of communion, and purifying the chalice and ciborium.

*“Take this vessel with bread for the celebration of the Eucharist.
Make your life worthy of your service at the table of the Lord and of his Church.”*

In the rite of the institution of acolytes, the candidate kneels before the bishop while he offers the ciborium saying, “Take this vessel with bread for the celebration of the Eucharist. Make your life worthy of your service at the table of the Lord and of his Church.”

As I reflect on this experience, I found kneeling before the bishop humbling. It was a sign of freely submitting myself to God and the Church. Also, it was a moment for me to see how God was working in my life and enabling me to love Him better. This event was an affirmation by the Church that she recognizes in me a call to continue my formation towards the priesthood.

As a seminarian, a man undergoes a series of steps leading up to his ordination as priest. First, he becomes a candidate for ordination, followed by the reception of the ministries of lector and acolyte. Secondly, he is ordained a transitional deacon. Lastly, the seminarian is ordained as a priest.

My installation as an acolyte marks the last step before I receive Holy Orders as a deacon and then a priest. Know of my prayers for all of you. Please continue to pray for me as I continue my journey towards ordination as a priest.

Jason Lee is a seminarian from our parish.

CHRISTMAS IN EL SALVADOR

THANK YOU FOR BEING MEN AND WOMEN OF GOOD WILL!

Reflection by Milagro

On December 23, we had a beautiful gathering with the people of El Recreo. The spirit of Christmas was present in each of the 175 families who received the Christmas Food baskets from St. Boniface family.

The baskets included the following items: rice, oil, sugar, coffee, milk, oats, juices, cookies, pasta, sauces, soups and sardines. Each of the baskets had a Christmas message from Father Chinna and parishioners. We enjoyed this Christmas gathering and we forgot momentarily our daily routine, the fears and worries.

"Christmas was felt in every gesture of joy, in every word of thanks, and in every prayer of faith and hope in El Recreo."

We purchased the food items from the stores in Berlin. This purchase benefited the stores as most of the businesses have been economically affected by the pandemic. "This sale is a blessing" said the woman from the store where we made bought the food items, and she also provided work for three people to help with packing the food baskets.

The people of El Recreo were filled with joy and gratitude at the kindness and generosity of St. Boniface family. They send their greetings and prayers for health and safety. They hope that the delegates from St. Boniface will return soon and continue strengthening the fraternal relationship between the two communities.

Personally, I also thank St. Boniface Parish for its solidarity with the less fortunate, for making the "Birth of the Savior" a reality in our lives. Yes, Christmas was felt in every gesture of joy, in every word of thanks, and in every prayer of faith and hope in El Recreo.

Thank you Father Chinna. Thank you to the parishioners of St. Boniface for being men and women of Good Will during this time of the pandemic.

Milagro, a member of the El Recreo community, is employed by our parish as our "feet on the ground" in El Salvador.

ST. BONIFACE JOPPA MINISTRY

ENCOUNTERING CHRIST IN THE JOPPA CIRCLE OF FRIENDS

Reflection by Tracey Wilson

I don't know how I've been so blessed recently but today I had Angela on my route and she was receiving the gift cards donated to her. She asked me to share her thanks to everyone and couldn't believe how much Joppa and Circle of Friends has done for her.

Isaiah (5 yo), Angela, Tracey

She is hopeful [that with this transition into her new home] she will get her daughter back in the next month. I can't express the joy I felt today being part of this team and the ability to make a difference in someone's life. God bless you all.

WHAT IS THE JOPPA CIRCLE OF FRIENDS?

Circle of Friends is an opportunity for parishioners in the St. Boniface Joppa Ministry to connect with individuals who are transitioning into permanent housing from homelessness. Each client is assigned a group of volunteers who provide a variety of support once a week. For example:

- Delivering welcome baskets
- Sending cards
- Making phone calls to simply connect and listen

Friendship is such a blessing to those who are experiencing the immense change of a housing transition. To join the St. Boniface Joppa Ministry, contact Margaret Godwin at tedmargaretgodwin@gmail.com or Tom Hromatka at hromatka@mediacombb.net

CHRISTMAS CANNED GOODS COLLECTION UPDATE

Thank you to all who donated canned goods to Joppa. The volunteers at Joppa were excited and overwhelmed by the generosity of our St. Boniface parish family.

Food items will be given to the homeless in our communities. Thank you for your continued support to end homelessness!

FAITH FORMATION

ADULT FAITH FORMATION

The Search Lenten Small Groups

This Lent, explore and discuss with other adults, The Search, a seven-part video series that shares the Gospel in a way that ears can hear and with images that eyes can understand.

The series begins to answer our deepest and most pressing questions...about life, about God, and about the Church.

If your faith is already solid, The Search will help you to deepen it. If you're feeling unsure, it's for you too.

Limited space is still available in both daytime and evening virtual sessions facilitated by St. Boniface parishioners.

Watch the trailer, find out more, and register by Fri, Jan 22 at <https://stbonifacechurch.org/adults-learn>

This series powerfully expresses all the beautiful realities we often forget, and pulls them together in a way that logically shows us the love of God. This is so important for people of all ages! (Richard)

Whoa . . . the Catholic Church has an observatory in Arizona that's run by priests? Why is this not in the news? And Fr. Roger Bacon is the founder of the Scientific Method? I never knew!! I'm so excited to be a Catholic. (Theresa)

ALL HOUSEHOLDS, ALL AGES!

January theme. "Holy Families, Imperfect Families," is our Kitchen Table Faith theme for this month. Our families are similar in so many ways – we can find a bit of holiness and a bit of imperfection in each of our households. It's our traveling together as a faith community that helps us recognize how much we need each other on this journey.

Session replay. Our January LIVE! session included a brief and beautiful witness from parishioner and staff member Chris Bell with her son, Tommy. If you missed the session, you can find the January LIVE! session replay on our Faith Formation/Kitchen Table Faith/Main Dishes page.

Scripture Focus. This month we focus on the stories of the infant and child Jesus, including:

- Luke 2:22-40, The Presentation of Jesus in the Temple, the stories of Simeon and Anna
- Matthew 2:13-23, The Flight to Egypt, the Massacre of the Innocents, the Return from Egypt
- Luke 2:41-52, The Boy Jesus in the Temple

Discussion. Read the scripture stories and discuss in your household this month:

- When and how do you see Jesus in your life?
- What is Jesus calling you to as an individual? As a household?
- To whom do you commit yourself in love each day?

FAITH FORMATION

Menu items. Kitchen Table Faith includes these menu items, which can all be found on our website at stbonifacechurch.org/faith-formation:

- The “main course,” our monthly LIVE! session on Zoom. (Replay available.)
- “Side dishes” that fit your household members’ ages and interests.
- One or more “dessert” items, like our saint focus, Catholic traditions, or faith in action opportunities.

Parish Connection. Remember to send your words of wisdom and family photo to Amy Slick at aslick@stbonifacechurch.org

Comment card. Please share your thoughts about Kitchen Table Faith by answering three short questions at <https://forms.gle/FVqq85bEoH5H97jw9>.

FIRST RECONCILIATION & FIRST HOLY COMMUNION 2nd Graders

We are preparing for and will soon have details about our upcoming small group parent-child sessions on the Sacrament of Reconciliation. We hope to offer several sessions in late February or March, both virtually and, if possible, in person.

In the meantime, keep up the great work, parents! Continue to:

- Bring your child to Mass (or watch Mass online)
- Share with your child who Jesus is to you, and the importance of the Eucharist in your life
- Watch and discuss the monthly parent and child videos on our Faith Formation/First Reconciliation & First Holy Communion website page.

As soon as we have more details, we’ll share with you opportunities for celebrating First Reconciliation, hopefully in April. (Parents who feel their child is ready may also want to consider bringing their child to one of our parish reconciliation opportunities during Lent – watch for available dates as Lent nears.)

Questions? Please contact Amy Slick, Director of Youth Faith Formation, at aslick@stbonifacechurch.org or 515-850-1883.

CONFIRMATION: PURPOSE 9th Graders

Thank you to all Confirmation candidates, sponsors, and parents this year who are preparing for the sacrament and attending our monthly PURPOSE sessions on Zoom! We also appreciate our Confirmation Coordinators, Craig & Tracey Wilson for their commitment to our 9th graders. PURPOSE Confirmation sessions meet virtually the second Wednesday of each month.

Questions? Visit our Faith Formation/Confirmation website page or contact Amy Slick, Director of Youth Faith Formation, at aslick@stbonifacechurch.org

FAITH FORMATION SHOP & DONATE!

We have decluttered and reorganized the faith formation main office, storage spaces, and classrooms!

After appropriately disposing of useless items and recycling what we could, we created a “Shop & Donate” space in classrooms 8-10. The rooms are now open by appointment for shopping! Donations of any amount are appreciated.

All are invited! So that we may practice social distancing, please sign up for a spot the weeks of January 18 or 25 at <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/60B0E48ABA828AAFA7-faith>

Questions? Please contact Nora Morales in the parish office at 515-987-4597.

FAITH FORMATION

SAINT AGNES: JANUARY 21

St. Agnes is said to have suffered martyrdom at age 12. The cruelty that did not spare so young a child was hateful, but the power of faith in the child was greater. Was there room for a wound in that small body? The sword could barely strike her, yet she had the inner strength to strike back.

The executioner used both threats and allurements to try to change her mind. He encouraged young men to beg her to marry them. But she answered, "I already have a spouse, and I will not offend him by pretending that another might please me. I will give myself only to him who first chose me. So, executioner, what are you waiting for? Destroy this body that unwanted eyes desire."

Agnes stood and prayed. Then she bent down her neck. The executioner trembled as though he himself had been condemned. His right hand shook and his face grew pale, but the virgin showed no fear at all.

St. Agnes's death was "a new kind of martyrdom!" She taught us the meaning of valor while she was still a child. Agnes hurried to the place of her execution more joyfully than a bride goes to her wedding. And she was adorned not with plaited hair, but with Christ himself.

PARTICIPATE IN THE “9 DAYS FOR LIFE” NOVENA

9 Days for Life is a novena for the protection of human life. Each day's intention is accompanied by a short reflection and suggested actions to help build a culture of life.

Begin on January 21 with the prayer, Every Life is Worth Living.

Heavenly Father,
thank you for the precious gift of life.
Help us to cherish and protect this gift,
even in the midst of fear, pain, and suffering.
Give us love for all people, especially the most vulnerable,
and help us bear witness to the truth that every life is worth living.
Grant us the humility to accept help
when we are in need,
and teach us to be merciful to all.
Through our words and actions,
may others encounter
the outstretched hands of Your mercy.
We ask this through Christ, our Lord.
Amen.
