AUGUST 29, 2021: 22nd SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Our Need for God & Others

"A permanent temptation in us is "to situate the origin of evil in an exterior cause." Many modern ideologies deep down have this presupposition: since injustice comes "from outside," in order for justice to reign, it is sufficient to remove the exterior causes to prevent it from being achieved. This way of thinking—Jesus warns the Pharisees—is ingenuous and shortsighted. Injustice, the fruit of evil, does not have exclusively external roots; its origin lies in the human heart, where the seeds are found of a mysterious cooperation with evil."

"Man is weakened by an intense influence from the society, which wounds his capacity to enter into communion with the other. By nature, he is open to sharing freely, but he finds in his being a strange force of gravity that makes him turn in and affirm himself above and against others: this is egoism, the result of original sin. Adam and Eve—snatching the mysterious fruit against the divine command—replaced the logic of trusting in Love with that of suspicion and competition; the logic of receiving and trustfully expecting from the Other with anxiously seizing and doing on one's own, experiences, a sense of disquiet and uncertainty."

So the question is: "How can man free himself from this selfish influence and open himself to God's love?" God has paid for us the price of the exchange in His Son, a price that is truly exorbitant. Before the justice of the Cross, man recognizes his insufficiency and the need for another. Conversion to Christ means "to exit the illusion of self-sufficiency in order to discover and accept one's own need—the need of others and God, the need of His forgiveness and His friendship!"

REFLEXION

"Más allá de la cuestión inmediata relativa a los alimentos, podemos ver en la reacción de los fariseos una tentación permanente del hombre: la de identificar el origen del mal en una causa exterior. Muchas de las ideologías modernas tienen, si nos fijamos bien, este presupuesto: dado que la injusticia viene "de fuera", para que reine la justicia es suficiente con eliminar las causas exteriores que impiden su puesta en práctica. Esta manera de pensar —advierte Jesús— es ingenua y miope. La injusticia, fruto del mal, no tiene raíces exclusivamente externas; tiene su origen en el corazón humano, donde se encuentra el germen de una misteriosa convivencia con el mal. Lo reconoce amargamente el salmista: "Mira, en la culpa nací, pecador me concibió mi madre" (Sal 51,7).

Sí, el hombre es frágil a causa de un impulso profundo, que lo mortifica en la capacidad de entrar en comunión con el prójimo. Abierto por naturaleza al libre flujo del compartir, siente dentro de sí una extraña fuerza de gravedad que lo lleva a replegarse en sí mismo, a imponerse por encima de los demás y contra ellos: es el egoísmo, consecuencia de la culpa original. Adán y Eva, seducidos por la mentira de Satanás, aferrando el misterioso fruto en contra del mandamiento divino, sustituyeron la lógica del confiar en el Amor por la de la sospecha y la competición; la lógica del recibir, del esperar confiado los dones del Otro, por la lógica ansiosa del aferrar y del actuar por su cuenta (Gn 3,1-6), experimentando como resultado un sentimiento de inquietud y de incertidumbre. ¿Cómo puede el hombre librarse de este impulso egoísta y abrirse al amor?

En realidad, aquí se manifiesta la justicia divina, profundamente distinta de la humana. Dios ha pagado por nosotros en su Hijo el precio del rescate, un precio verdaderamente exorbitante. Frente a la justicia de la Cruz, el hombre se puede rebelar, porque pone de manifiesto que el hombre no es un ser autárquico, sino que necesita de Otro para ser plenamente él mismo. Convertirse a Cristo, creer en el Evangelio, significa precisamente esto: salir de la ilusión de la autosuficiencia para descubrir y aceptar la propia indigencia, indigencia de los demás y de Dios, exigencia de su perdón y de su Amistad.

Se entiende, entonces, como la fe no es un hecho natural, cómodo, obvio: hace falta humildad para aceptar tener necesidad de Otro que me libere de lo "mío", para darme gratuitamente lo "suyo". Esto sucede especialmente en los sacramentos de la Penitencia y de la Eucaristía."

PRAYERS FOR HAITI

Second Collection

This weekend, we will be having a second collection to help our brothers and sisters in Haiti recover from a devastating earthquake that happened on August 14, 2021. Below are photos of some of the damage left behind from the earthquake and Tropical Storm Grace. Donations made will go towards helping with the many needs of the community. Contributions can also be made online by visiting dmdiocese.org/giving.

OUTREACH

School Supply Drive Update

Thank you for all who donated to this year's School Supply Drive! Your generosity supported 11 schools across 2 school districts. You helped 141 children! In addition to physical supplies, $687 in cash donations were collected and as well as a $400 donation from the Knights of Columbus. All of these dollars were used to purchase additional supplies.

The backpacks that the students received were supplied from a single donation. Special thanks to parishioners Phil and Janice Harrington who supplied the backpacks for all our students!

St. Boniface is a giving community! It's no more evident than our annual school drive.
