Loving God—All Consuming Love!

Loving God is an all-consuming love. Is it possible to talk about such love without reducing it as something political or merely psychological—or as more than pious or ideological, and (however closely they are connected) even as different from love of neighbor? Yes, we can if we first experience God's love for us.

Mary Healy explains that Jesus uses four terms to signify the whole person....The heart (kardia) is the inner depths of a person, the wellspring from which all our decisions and actions flow. The soul (psyche) is our whole self as a living being, that which Jesus said we must be willing to give up for his sake and which he will give up for our sake. Jesus adds mind to emphasize that even our thoughts and reasoning must be animated by love for God. The last phrase, with all your strength, emphasizes that love for God is not a sentiment that arises spontaneously, but a commitment that calls for every ounce of our energy" (Healy, 247 p)

In "Raising Saints," Pat Stahr reminded the parents to love their children. Being loved is the greatest gift, perhaps the priceless gift that parents can offer to sons and daughters in a world that at times imposes unrealistic expectations and fills them with pressures that disallows them to have this stability: love. As Stahr shared his personal journey, there were moments of pain, absence, and peace. In all this, he kept emphasizing the importance of love and admonishing parents and grandparents to leave this precious gift.

This Love, as Saint Paul describes in First Corinthians, "bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things. Love never fails" (1 Cor 13:7-8). We need to let the Incarnate Savior love us; expose our fears and vulnerability to the transformation of His love. Loving God more and more empowers us to become the face of this love right where we are—in our homes, workplaces, and community!

Amar a Dios es un amor que lo consume todo. ¿Es posible hablar de ese amor sin reducirlo a algo político o meramente psicológico, o más que piadoso o ideológico, y (por muy conectados que estén) incluso como diferente del amor al prójimo? Sí, podemos si primero experimentamos el amor de Dios por nosotros.

Mary Healy explica que "Jesús usa cuatro términos para significar la persona completa ... El corazón (kardia) es la profundidad interior de una persona, la fuente de la cual fluyen todas nuestras decisiones y acciones. El alma (psique) es todo nuestro ser como un ser vivo, lo que Jesús dijo que debemos estar dispuestos a renunciar por él y que él renunciará por nosotros. Jesús agrega mente para enfatizar que incluso nuestros pensamientos y razonamientos deben estar animados por el amor a Dios. La última frase, con todas tus fuerzas, enfatiza que el amor a Dios no es un sentimiento que surge espontáneamente, sino un compromiso que requiere cada gramo de nuestra energía." (Healy, 47 p)

En "Raising Saints", Pat Stahr les recordó a los padres que amen a sus hijos. Ser amado es el regalo más grande, quizás el regalo invaluable que los padres pueden ofrecer a sus hijos e hijas en un mundo que a veces impone expectativas poco realistas y las llena de presiones que les impiden tener esta estabilidad: el amor. Mientras Stahr compartía su viaje personal, hubo momentos de dolor, ausencia y paz. En todo esto, siguió enfatizando la importancia del amor y exhortando a los padres y abuelos a dejar este precioso regalo.....!

Este Amor, como describe San Pablo en 1 Corintios, "todo lo sufre, todo lo cree, todo lo espera, todo lo soporta. El amor nunca deja de ser "(1 Cor 13, 7-8). Necesitamos dejar que el Salvador encarnado nos ame; exponer nuestros miedos y vulnerabilidad a la transformación de Su amor. Amar a Dios cada vez más nos empodera para convertirnos en el rostro de este amor justo donde estamos: en nuestros hogares, lugares de trabajo y comunidad!

FAITH FORMATION

SAFETY TEAM

Thank you to all who have served or are scheduled for a safety team shift! Is it fun? You bet! You get to wear a bright yellow vest, flash a glow-in-the dark light saber, carry a walkie talkie, and meet other St. Boniface parents! If you've not yet signed up yet, visit <https://stbonifacechurch.org/register>

To keep all our kids safe this year, we need a minimum of one adult from every household to sign up as a safety team member for at least one two-hour shift. Each shift includes a safety captain from the Knights of Columbus along with three parents. At the beginning of your shift, you report to a "captain" in the faith formation office and receive your instructions. Thanks for being a part of our team!

FAITH FORMATION

ST. BONIFACE CATHOLIC CHURCH

ST. BONIFACE Remembers

Each year, on All Souls' Day, we pray for our deceased loved ones. Our prayerful remembrance is an act of love so they can be cleansed from their sins and be made ready to see God face to face. For those who are able to join us, All Souls' Day Mass is on Tuesday, November 2nd, at 6:30 PM. We will live-stream this Mass via the St. Boniface Facebook page, too.

As in past years:

- Families of parishioners who passed away in the past year will be presented with a white candle. They are invited to place this candle at the altar in remembrance of their deceased loved one.
- Everyone attending in person is also invited to carry a candle in remembrance of their loved ones and place it at the altar.
- Everyone attending via live-stream can request to have a candle placed at the altar. Contact Sara Krohnke in the Parish Office, skrohnke@stbonifacechurch.org or 515-987-4597.

Building on our traditions:

- For those who are attending Mass, we welcome you to bring a 5x7 or smaller framed photo to place near your candle.
- During this Mass, we will read the names of parishioners who passed away in the past year, those names for which our parish family has made a special offering, and invite everyone to pray for them.

May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace!

For more information about this special liturgy, please contact Sara Krohnke in the Parish Office, skrohnke@stbonifacechurch.org or 515-987-4597.

MAY THEY REST IN PEACE!

CALLED TO SERVE

NATIONAL VOCATIONS WEEK NOVEMBER 1-7

SAINT JUNIPERO SERRA, the Franciscan priest who founded nine of California's missions, was a model of perseverance and strong faith. Despite a chronic foot infection, Serra walked more miles in his career than the expeditions of Lewis and Clark and Marco Polo combined, all to spread the Good News.

It was perhaps providential that the founders of Serra International, the organization of lay Catholics who promote vocations, chose Fr. Junipero Serra as their patron in 1935. Now, even more than then, the work of promoting vocations requires perseverance and strong faith.

Please continue to pray for an increase in vocations to priesthood, sisterhood, and brotherhood, and for all vocations to the consecrated life.

PRAYER IS A MOVING FORCE in vocation development. Prayer is effective; prayer is powerful; prayer is essential. Few are called to priesthood or religious life, but all are called to pray for vocations.

"Lord, your Church is in need.

Touch the hearts of many within our parish with the desire to serve you.

Call forth from this community sisters, brothers, deacons, priests and lay leaders.

Help us to live lives that will nurture childhood trust into adult commitment.

May this parish be a source of hope and a source of ministers for your Church, your people and your world. Amen."
