DEACON'S PEN ...a word from the heart of Dcn. Joe Whiston

In the 1950's there was a "black and white" TV series called, "And You Are There." I know, I'm really dating myself but it is what it is. Anyway, it was an historical/educational show that set the scene in a famous happening of the past and somehow they lowered the camera slightly and made it mobile. That must have taken some doing because in the early days of TV, the camera was the size of a Volkswagen Beetle. Anyway, the idea was that the camera was "you" and therefore you were at the center of the action of whatever event that was being portrayed as it occurred in its place in history. Well the educational value worked on me because from those shows, I became very interested in history.

Try and put yourself in that mode for a moment, being transported back in time to the words of Our Lord at the Last Supper in our Gospel reading, "And You Are There." How would we have reacted to Jesus' final discourse with His disciples? This should have been a time for a festive meal, but for Jesus it would lead quickly to His arrest, sentencing and crucifixion. This surely would have marked a sense of fear in the hearts of the disciples. After all, they had abandoned their families and their means of making a living in order to follow Him.

The question of "Now what?" must have haunted them all. Who and what is this Spirit and how will this "guidance take place?" Where will we go, what will we do? Well, we know that in the end, everything works out as the Spirit, the other shepherd from the Father, will guide them to "all truth."

That's not unlike what we are experiencing now. Our shepherd, who has guided us through some very difficult financial times, leading the "parishioners without boarders" to help rebuild the campus in ways that we could not have envisioned, will be leaving us soon. And as the disciples would learn, this is not an end but rather a new beginning.

Although our hearts may be heavy at the prospect of Fr. Don leaving, we will not be left alone to fend for ourselves as we will have a new shepherd to continue guiding us.

We will thank Fr Don for the benefits that he left us with by his more than capable guidance and continue to grow in the direction by which he led us. It is a time to look back on the accomplishments regarding financial, campus expansion and particularly our spiritual journey, personally and bound together over these past 6 years. This is a time for thanksgiving, not remorse. As the disciples would learn through the power of the Holy Spirit and all that Jesus had led them too, the resources they had and the wisdom that they would now receive will set them on their mission to be closer to God in faith and to bring His Word to all nations.

From our hearts, thank you Fr. Don for all that you have done for and with us as we are truly happy that we can say "We Were There!" God Speed by the one true Good Shepherd and the power of the Holy Spirit on your continued journey to the spiritual benefit of many more.

God Bless,
Dcn Joe

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Life can leave us feeling very distracted and detached. Perhaps this is why many people seek things that make them "feel good," wrongly believing those things actually provide a sense of meaning and purpose. In truth, they are simply more distractions. When we discover real silence, we can realize that the stirrings and impulses in our hearts desiring connection, meaning, and purpose are really God desperately trying to pull us toward His Divine Heart. Once we submit to God's pull, we are led to the beauty of God's presence. This holy presence carries us to the heights of mountains, the vastness of ocean depths, the beginning of things and their end, and the majesty of universal wonder. We meet the Father. Then, gently carried to the tenderness of compassion, love, mercy, and forgiveness we touch the innocence and vulnerability of life. We see the poor and those who are broken. We meet the Son. Finally, we are directed toward the seasons that change, the ebb and flow of life, the inspirations that surprise, and the wonder, awe, and joy of life. We embrace the Holy Spirit.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Saint Germaine was born in Pibrac, France in 1579 to poor parents. Her story is a heart wrenching one. She was born with a deformed right arm and hand, and her mother died when she was an infant. Her father remarried, but her stepmother brutally abused and neglected her.

As a child Germaine suffered from scrofula, a disfiguring form of tuberculosis which causes swelling and lesions on the side of the neck. Already sick, abused, and starving, she was forced to sleep in barn with sheep she tended.

Despite everything, Germaine lived each day tending her flock with joy and in prayer. Mary and Jesus became her friends. She shared what little she had and taught the children of the village about God's love. A rosary made of string knots was her constant companion. She attended Mass every day, leaving her sheep in care of guardian angels. Her flock was never attacked by wolves and never wandered. Some claimed to see the waters of the flooded river part so she could get to Mass.

She is often portrayed with an apron full of flowers because one winter day her stepmother accused her of stealing bread from the house and hiding it her apron. But when she was seized and forced to open the apron an abundance of spring flowers tumbled forth. It was this incident that compelled the villagers and even her parents to recognize her holiness.

Germaine died at 22, her poor body was found by her father, in the barn where she slept. She was buried in the village church. More than forty years later, her body was accidentally exhumed and found to be incorrupt. She was canonized by Pope Pius IX in 1867 and inscribed into the canon of virgins.

Second Collection

June 18 & 19

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Catholic Communication Campaign (CCC) works to spread the Gospel through the media in all its forms. Its work is funded by an annual collection through which the faithful can support their local diocesan communications efforts, while also supporting national and international initiatives.

Please prayerfully consider making a donation to this worthy cause. More information may be found online on the diocesan website.

Planned Giving

Remember you can pay it forward! You have a wonderful Catholic heritage. Just as we plan to ensure financial health for our families, we must plan for the health of our faith families. Your planned gift to our parish will support our ministries now and for years to come. Stocks and bonds, especially if appreciated in value over the years, can produce significant capital gains taxes. They can also make substantial gifts to Saint Charles Borromeo and result in a tax saving. Please consider a securities gift during your lifetime or in your will.

The Scrip Program is back to help generate money for Borromeo Academy. Scrip Cards are gift cards that you purchase and proceeds from the gift card value comes back to us. There are a variety of gift cards available for purchase including some of your favorite restaurants and places you shop weekly. You can purchase gift cards in person after all the Masses on the first weekend of the month. You can also go online www.shopwithscrip.com and use the enrollment code: C84D834C44L9 to purchase your gift cards. E cards can be downloaded directly to your phone and used within minutes of purchase.

LOL

One Saturday, a priest decided to go garage sale hunting. At the first sale, he noticed a nice looking lawnmower for $20. He asked the owner, "What's wrong with it? $20 is a steal, if it works."

The owner replied, "It works great if you can get it started, but you got to cuss it a few times." The priest responded, "I've been a priest for 32 years and I'll have you know its been so long I've forgotten how to cuss." The owner responded, "Pull that string a few times and it'll come back to you."
