Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. (Acts 2:46)

Psalm:

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting. (Ps 118)
Or Alleluia.

Second Reading:

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. (1 Pt 1:3)

Gospel:

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." (Jn 20:19)

Live The Liturgy
Inspiration of the Week
Doubting Thomas is a mood, and we've all had it. We hang our every hope on this sign, that proof. We challenge God: "Make me believe." To each of us he extends his wounded hand, to each of us he shows his pierced side. He will always meet us in our unbelief.

Observances for the week of April 16, 2023

- Sunday: 2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy)
- Friday: St. Anselm, Bishop and Doctor of the Church
- Saturday: Earth Day
- Next Sunday: 3rd Sunday of Easter

Saint of the week

Venerable Cornelia Peacock Connelly overcame incredible adversity caused by her husband and other men in her life to go on to form a wildly successful congregation – the Society of the Holy Child Jesus – which still operates in spiritual works of mercy in 14 countries to this day.

Prayer

The Prayer of Cornelia
Let us love one another and pray,
Let us love one another and be faithful,
Let us love one another and be humble,
Let us love one another and be filled with the charity of God.
Let us love one another with God, in God, and for God,
And we shall thus be one with God for all eternity.

(Written by Cornelia Peacock Connelly, Foundress, Society of the Holy Child Jesus)

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A young, engaged couple sat on the couch in front of me as we chatted about their upcoming marriage. The young lady was struggling to trust her future husband. She told me her father had been unfaithful to her mother. She said of her fiancé, "I want him to prove to me that he won't cheat on me." The young man looked at me helplessly, raised his eyebrows and shrugged his shoulders. What evidence could he possibly give to validate such a proof? Nothing. All he could do was invite her to trust him.

We all are wounded by experiences of imperfect love. We also are tempted to demand from God proof of His fidelity and goodness. We are like St. Thomas the Apostle who, on that second Sunday of Easter, demands proof of the Lord's resurrection. "Unless I see the mark of the nail ... I will not believe." Our science, technology and mathematics can indeed prove a great deal. But there are some things that require trusting another person. We prove promises of love only by trusting.

St. Thomas indeed saw the wounds of Jesus and believed. But there is an even greater blessing for us who simply trust Him — and all the truths the Church proclaims — because of the trustworthiness of the Risen One who speaks. This week let's trust Jesus without seeing him.

— Father John Muir

Camp Savio 2023

The Diocesan Office of Youth Ministry is thrilled to announce that Camp Savio will be held at its new location, Conception Abbey, this year. This facility provides the physical space needed to maintain Camp Savio activities like bubble soccer, archery tag, low ropes course, and more while also offering access to the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception for Mass and adoration.

"We look forward to our youth enjoying the fun of camp and growing in their faith while witnessing monastic life in the monks and this beautiful place of prayer and God's presence." -Bishop James Johnston

We hope to send 40 Saint Charles youth to camp this year and NOW is the time to register! You must register each individual camper at campsavio.com and select "Week 1: June 5th-10th."
