Remember St. Patrick in your last will and in memorials

COVID-19 and the DERECHO that hit Cedar Rapids on August 10, 2020 has negatively affected parish giving. One nice way for parishioners to help St. Patrick Parish who are 72 years and older is to include St. Patrick part of your required IRA distribution at the end of this calendar year. This is an excellent way to support your parish and lower your tax bill. Please consult your financial advisor for more information. We also encourage everyone to remember St. Patrick parish in your last will and estate. Building our parish endowment is important to the long-term future of St. Patrick Parish.

From the Pastor's Desk

Over my lifetime, Divine Mercy Sunday has grown in popularity within the Church, in particular because of the devotion of Pope St. John Paul II to St. Faustina Kowalska, the Polish nun to whom Christ revealed the mystery of his Divine Mercy. On the day of her canonization — April 30, 2000, the Second Sunday of Easter — John Paul added Divine Mercy Sunday to the General Roman Calendar, to be celebrated every year on the Octave of Easter. Priests like myself refer to ourselves as "John Paul II priests". I first started learning about the Divine Mercy when I was a young priest at Sacred Heart Parish in Waterloo. We sang the chaplet of Divine Mercy each Sunday Evening during a young adult holy hour. That started over 25 years ago. The message of Divine Mercy has been with me most of my priesthood since 1992.

We continue to celebrate the Lord's Resurrection throughout the eight day octave of Easter. As Christians we rejoice at the Resurrection of Our Lord Who died on the Cross to save us from our sin. However, while we Catholics receive forgiveness from our sins when we go to Confession, and all our eternal punishment due to sin is removed. Yet, we have to understand that the temporal punishment due to those sins may still remain on our souls. This means after we die, we go to Purgatory to be purged of our remaining impurities before we can enter Heaven 'where nothing impure shall enter (Revelation 21:27).' This temporal punishment remains if our contrition is imperfect, that is, if we go to Confession without truly repenting of our sin or out of fear of hell. Perfect contrition is extremely difficult to achieve; it's hard for us not to be attached in some way to our sins. Which is why we keep committing them!

Is There Another Way to Be Cleansed? In his book, Understanding Divine Mercy Father Chris Alar, MIC, a priest with the Marian Fathers of the Immaculate Conception, writes, "For those unable to have all temporal punishment remitted in this life because they don't have perfect love, perfect contrition, or perfect detachment from sin, all hope is not lost." Fr. Alar goes on to explain the extraordinary grace of Divine Mercy Sunday. "If you have ever wished you could wipe your slate clean and start over, this is your chance! … All sins and punishment are removed by the grace of this one day, Divine Mercy Sunday, when we fulfill the conditions of a valid Confession and worthily receive Holy Communion."

How to Receive the Grace of Divine Mercy Sunday? For Catholics who can attend church, first, go to Confession before or on Divine Mercy Sunday – or any time during Lent will do. The important thing is to be in a state of grace on that day, meaning that you are aware of no mortal sin on your soul. The last act is to receive Holy Communion with the intention of receiving this promised grace along with praying for the Holy Father.

Are All My Sins Taken Care of and that punishment due to sin on the Feast of Divine Mercy? The extraordinary promise of Divine Mercy cleanses us of everything up to and including our participation in Divine Mercy Sunday. It does not remove punishment for sins committed after that date. We have to wait until the next year to receive these amazing graces. All the more reason to take advantage of them this year! We may not be alive come next year.

We are hosting Divine Mercy devotions here at St. Pat's on Divine Mercy Sunday in our Parish Center. Confessions will be heard starting at 2:00 p.m. and will continue through 4:00 p.m. A prayer service will begin at 2:30 p.m. A chaplet of Divine Mercy will be recited at 3:00 p.m. We will have eight priests present to hear confessions started at 2:00 p.m. Each penitent will be given the option of going face to face or behind the screen. The relics of St. Faustina and Blessed Michael Sopocko will be available for veneration. Please enter the Parish Center on the northwest corner near 6th Street. For those people who go to Mass on Divine Mercy Sunday and receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation on Divine Mercy Sunday along with praying for the Holy Father (1 Creed, 1 Our Father, 1 Hail Mary and 1 Glory Be) will be extended a plenary indulgence (the full remission of their sins and the punishment due to their sins up to that point in their lives). Many of us have not been to confessions in years. Take advantage of this beautiful experience and purify your life.

Celebrate God's Greatest Attribute On
DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY
April 11, 2021

On Divine Mercy Sunday, an image of The Divine Mercy will be blessed and displayed in the sanctuary as requested by Jesus. The image represents the Risen Christ bringing Mercy to the whole world. Please take a moment and, with gratitude and trust in God's Mercy, recall the mystery of the Passion, Death and Resurrection of Our Lord while viewing the image. In this way the image will be venerated as Our Lord asked.

"I want the image [which he instructed St. Faustina to have painted as she saw him] to be solemnly blessed on the first Sunday after Easter, and I want it to be venerated publicly so that every soul may know about it.

By means of this image I shall be granting many graces to souls." (341)

On the Feast of Mercy

"All the divine floodgates through which graces flow are opened." (699)

Join the hundreds of thousands across the world who have responded to this message of God's mercy and have found hope, healing and answers to many prayers. The Feast of Mercy is a day when we should approach the Lord with great Faith and Trust and Appreciation. Don't be afraid to ask for great things, spiritual as well as temporal. Rejoice in Our Lord's unfathomable mercy!

"My mercy is so great that no mind, be it of man or of angel, will be able to fathom it throughout all eternity."

INTRODUCTORY RITES

Entrance Antiphon

– Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, alleluia.

. Greeting

Penitential Act

ALL: I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done, and what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

Gloria

Fr. Ivan: Glory to God in the highest,

ALL: and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father. Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us; you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us. For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had everything in common. With great power the apostles bore witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus, and great favor was accorded them all. There was no needy person among them, for those who owned property or houses would sell them, bring the proceeds of the sale, and put them at the feet of the apostles, and they were distributed to each according to need.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

R. (1) Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Let the house of Israel say,
"His mercy endures forever."
Let the house of Aaron say,
"His mercy endures forever."
Let those who fear the LORD say,
"His mercy endures forever."

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

I was hard pressed and was falling,
but the LORD helped me.
My strength and my courage is the LORD,
and he has been my savior.
The joyful shout of victory
in the tents of the just:

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done;
it is wonderful in our eyes.
This is the day the LORD has made;
let us be glad and rejoice in it.

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Second Reading

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John

Beloved: Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God, and everyone who loves the Father loves also the one begotten by him. In this way we know that we love the children of God when we love God and obey his commandments. For the love of God is this, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome, for whoever is begotten by God conquers the world. And the victory that conquers the world is our faith. Who indeed is the victor over the world but the one who believes that Jesus is the Son of God? This is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ, not by water alone, but by water and blood. The Spirit is the one that testifies, and the Spirit is truth.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia

Gospel: The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."

Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."

Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed."

Now Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Homily

Profession of Faith

ALL: I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life. who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the Faithful

Let us pray to the Lord . . .

Lord, hear our prayer.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Presentation of the Gifts and Preparation of the Altar

ALL: Blessed be God for ever.

ALL: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Prayer over the Offerings

Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.
Lift up your hearts. We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right and just.

Holy, Holy, Holy

ALL: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Sign of Peace

Lamb of God

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us. Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Communion

Behold the Lamb of God,
Behold him who takes away the sins of the world,
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

ALL: Lord, I am not worthy
that you should enter under my roof,
but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.
