Dear Catholics of Northeast KCK,

Thanks to all who made our Family Film Night a great success. Despite the rain, we enjoyed lots of good food, Bingo, and Gene Wilder's offbeat Wonka persona!

Up to bat for September 26th is The Sandlot, a tale of young baseball players in 1962. As we round 2nd base and come to the middle of our series, come help us hit a homerun and enjoy this 1990 classic movie.

Bring your lawn chair and your mask, enjoy some great food from our vendors Taste of Brazil and Tasty Unicorn. Win some Bingo prizes and make new friends.

A concession stand will offer fresh popped popcorn and cold adult beverages. This is a great way to support the school and parish. Bring your friends, family, and neighbors. If you receive the Facebook eVite, share it with your friend list! We have handicapped parking, and we can assist people who need it with moving chairs or walking across the street. The restroom in the church hall is open for use but those who enter the building should wear a mask.

If you have any questions or suggestions contact the CTK Social Lights at:

Father Nick Blaha

Queridos Católicos del Noroeste de KCK,

Gracias a todos los que hicieron de nuestra Noche de cine familiar un gran éxito. A pesar de la lluvia, disfrutamos de mucha buena comida, bingo y ¡la extraña personalidad de Wonka de Gene Wilder!

Para el 26 de septiembre está The Sandlot, una historia de jóvenes jugadores de béisbol en 1962. Mientras rodeamos la segunda base y nos acercamos a la mitad de nuestra serie, ayúdanos a pegar un homerun para disfrutar de esta película clásica de 1990.

Traiga su silla de jardín y su máscara, disfrute de una excelente comida de nuestros proveedores Taste of Brazil y Tasty Unicorn. Gana algunos premios de Bingo y haz nuevos amigos.

<https://www.facebook.com/tastyunicornkc>

Un puesto de comida ofrecerá palomitas de maíz recién hechas y bebidas frías para adultos. Esta es una excelente manera de apoyar a la escuela y la parroquia. Traiga a sus amigos, familiares y vecinos. Si recibe la eVite de Facebook, ¡compártala con su lista de amigos! Tenemos estacionamiento para discapacitados y podemos ayudar a las personas que lo necesiten moviendo sillas o cruzando la calle. El baño en el salón de la iglesia está abierto para su uso, pero quienes ingresen al edificio deben usar una máscara.

A MESSAGE FROM DR. O'NEILL

This is our first weekend for our new “sing the Mass” initiative, beginning with the simple “and with your spirit” and “Amen” responses. Since school started, I’ve been taking time to teach the students these responses, and already some beautiful things are happening. For one, because they are short and simple, the younger kids can easily learn them and sing them confidently. The kindergarteners are particularly enthusiastic with them and are appreciating that they have an important role to play. With all classes, I am insisting on 100% participation in both English and Spanish, regardless of what Mass they attend on the weekend. That means that the English-speaking children are confident singing “Y con tu espíritu,” and the Spanish speakers “and with your spirit.” Ideally, as we move forward, all students will be proficient in moving back and forth between the two languages when singing the Mass. We are grateful that our priests are all learning the same tone to use, for the sake of consistency in our community. The “Amen” (an ancient Hebrew word that has always been left untranslated in the Mass) is the same in both languages. That and the consistency of the tone give them a sense of the unity of the Roman Catholic Church. One challenge of having separate Masses in English and Spanish is that the parish community can be seen as divided; measures like this aim to tackle that problem.

Singing texts both elevates the words, and makes them more memorable, so these children are likely to remember these important words of the Mass their entire lives. The Holy Spirit is at work among us. Deo gratias!

UN MENSAJE DEL DR. O 'NEILL

Este es nuestro primer fin de semana para nuestra nueva iniciativa “canta la Misa”, comenzando con las simples respuestas “y con tu espíritu” y “Amén”. Desde que comenzó la escuela, me he tomado el tiempo para enseñarles a los estudiantes estas respuestas, y ya están sucediendo algunas cosas hermosas. Por un lado, debido a que son cortos y simples, los niños más pequeños pueden aprenderlos fácilmente y cantarlos con confianza. Los niños de kindergarten están particularmente entusiasmados y aprecian que tienen un papel importante que desempeñar. Con todas las clases, insisto en una participación del 100% tanto en inglés como en español, independientemente de la misa a la que asistan el fin de semana. Eso significa que los niños de habla inglesa se sienten seguros cantando “Y con tu espíritu” y los hispanohablantes “and with your spirit”. Idealmente, a medida que avancemos, todos los estudiantes serán competentes en moverse de un lado a otro entre los dos idiomas al cantar la Misa. Estamos agradecidos de que nuestros sacerdotes estén aprendiendo el mismo tono para usar, por el bien de la coherencia en nuestra comunidad. El “Amén” (una antigua palabra hebrea que siempre se ha dejado sin traducir en la Misa) es el mismo en ambos idiomas. Eso y la consistencia del tono les dan un sentido de la unidad de la Iglesia Católica Romana. Un desafío de tener misas separadas en inglés y español es que la comunidad parroquial puede verse dividida; medidas como ésta tienen como objetivo abordar ese problema. Cantar textos eleva las palabras y las hace más memorables, por lo que es probable que los niños recuerden estas importantes palabras de la Misa durante toda su vida. El Espíritu Santo obra entre nosotros. Deo gratias!
