The desert enjoys no change of season

I spent part of last week in Iowa. A few times of year I visit the Jesuit retreat center for time of prayer and spiritual direction. One of the things I was talking about their with a long time employee I've know for years was the change of seasons. Iowa like Nebraska has some real extremes , -30 wind chill factor and two days later 50 and sunny! While it isn't always fun to live in this land of extremes Jeremiah invites us to sink our roots deep into God and be glad we don't live in the desert!

Most of our biblical authors came from the desert regions of the Middle East. For them the desert was a relentless series of hot dry days. While the desert does have some change of season it is small compared with ours. Change of season while difficult also brings relief. So too in the spiritual Life, we may experience seasons of suffering we also experience seasons of joy. The suffering is bearable when we know it won't last forever and joy in our life is sweet when we have know a season of sorrow. Yet no matter what the season we are experiencing let us be rooted in Christ who is Lord of all the "seasons," of our life for he will always walk with us!

EXPERIENCE JOY!

It's time to receive joy in a way that will refresh, energize, and inspire you. Join your brothers and sisters from across the Archdiocese of Omaha, and experience a celebration of community and faith at ArchOmaha Unite - Saturday, June 8, 2019.

God has more for you.
Receive more of what's been missing at Unite.
