A FLOOD of Kindness!

I'm sure part of us doesn't want to think about or see anything else on the flood. For some this has been one of the harder moments in their life. I recently got a call from the Catholic News Service and EWTN their reporter was asking for help to show Catholics outside of Nebraska how to help but also how people have stepped forward and lived their faith. In so many communities across the country there are natural disasters. Often times this can bring out the best and the worst in people. Sometimes it can reinforce how disconnected we are in this digital age. Small town Nebraska has a lot to teach the outside world about coming together and helping.

We cant always choose the kind of Lent we will have but we can choose what we will do when it comes to us. In so many ways I see all of you being such amazing examples of what it means to be a Christian family. As the saints teach us, "To give and not to count the cost, to labor and not to seek for rest." Remember that God the Father sees all the things we do big and small and He can use all things .
