GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

May 15, 2022 - 5th Sunday of Easter

“It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the Kingdom of God.” Many folks really work very hard to circumvent difficult situations. We prefer the easier way around something, rather than risk inconvenience, hurt or prolonged suffering. It’s no wonder euthanasia is rapidly becoming acceptable around the world. Through purely human eyes, there is no issue bypassing the inevitable, taking control and bringing things more swiftly to a place of peace. If this is the way God sees things, then why does Jesus make such a big deal helping us understand the experience of suffering and embrace it? God’s wisdom clearly takes us in another direction.

Imagine if we were able to eradicate ALL hardship and suffering. Where would we be? As we look at our own journeys, many of our solid more growth producing life lessons have been born of suffering, disappointment, inconvenience, darkness, and despair. There is something sacred about all of these experiences as God uses them to create something new. Envisioning a life without hardship and suffering brings us to a vision where everything is flat-lined and dull. As much as hardship and suffering are difficult crosses to bear, not taking them up runs the risk of us becoming shallow, empty, and lifeless. Helen Keller remarks that, “a happy life consists not in the absence but in the mastery of hardships.” What an incredibly wise insight! Many really successful people and saints were brought to their station in life because they suffered. Suffering teaches us about what’s important and propels us to search the depths of our souls for resources and strength we never would have known before.

This is especially true when we love as Jesus asks us to love. Love, perhaps above any other experience, can cause us great hardship, pain, and suffering especially when it’s authentic and unconditional. While it can thrust us into an incredible experience of God and life on one hand, it can bruise and wound us deeply on the other. Mastering the art of love is the secret to living life well, walking in the presence of God and investing in the joy of the Gospel. Love and suffering walk hand in hand. Compromising one will compromise the other. Maybe that’s why Jesus spent so much time convincing us to accept both.

REFLECTION

Question for Children: How do you make obvious that you love your family and friends?

Question for Youth: The world is full of examples of people who don’t love others. What are the results of hate that you see in the world? How would the world be different if we followed Jesus’ commandment?

Question for Adults: Jesus’ commandment to love another is a challenge. What will you do this week to deepen the love you have for those around you in life?

The Synod surveys have been collected, recorded, analyzed, and are being written up for a report to the Vatican and to the people in the Archdiocese. By way of a sneak peek, the laity, religious and clergy who responded were in agreement when it came to which markers of parish vitality are most important. The top five vote-getters include service of others, living stewardship, faith formation programming, Mass every weekend, and a sense of belonging.

Other contenders include parish financial stability, and good preaching (which received much attention by laity and religious, but not clergy... hmm). These results confirm the importance of our 4 ministry priorities: enhance Sunday Mass, strengthen faith formation, teach stewardship, and promote vocation. They also endorse what the Vatican says about what's needed for parish vitality: serve the poor, learn and teach the Gospel, prayer and worship.

It's worth repeating: the purpose of the survey is to identify markers of a vital parish community, not to signal parish closings. And that there is such strong agreement about those markers indicates that we are of one mind about parish vitality, and so can/should own the survey results. And as a consequence of that, we know where we need to up our game as individual parishioners, and as parish communities.

I hope it won't happen, but if any parish closes, it'll essentially be the decision of the parishioners, if they don't rise to the challenge of meeting those parish vitality markers. Some people think their parish is doomed to close because they don't have enough money or people. While numbers aren't key indicators, it is important to have... A large enough amount of money to cover the bills, and a large enough number of people for an appropriate sense of community, and to carry out ministry roles. And others think that if they don't have Mass in their parish on weekdays, or on every weekend, then it's on the chopping block; not so...

As long as parishioners are open to gathering for prayer, even though a priest isn't present or available. The Mass is of primary importance for Catholics, and we need Holy Communion; nevertheless, it's not feasible for priests here to say Mass every day in every parish.

We need more priests, so please pray for vocations to priesthood in the Archdiocese, especially praying in Eucharistic Adoration. There are often numerous priestly vocations in places where Eucharistic Adoration is practiced. That isn't magic, but is the consequence of... Contemplating Jesus, which fuels the desire to participate in Mass and Communion, which leads us to imitate Jesus in humble and loving service of others, and in wanting to do the will of God. Serra Club, Knights of Columbus, and the ACCW can be enlisted to help promote and organize Eucharistic Adoration for this intention in all our parishes.
