LITURGY GUIDE—Holy Family of Jesus, Mary & Joseph

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Please help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances. Also, please refrain from taking pictures once Mass has begun. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass has concluded.

God the Fa - ther. A - - men. A - - men.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Sirach 3:2-6, 12-14

God sets a father in honor over his children; a mother's authority he confirms over her sons. Whoever honors his father atones for sins, and preserves himself from them. When he prays, he is heard; he stores up riches who reveres his mother. Whoever honors his father is gladdened by children, and, when he prays, is heard. Whoever reveres his father will live a long life; he who obeys his father brings comfort to his mother. My son, take care of your father when he is old; grieve him not as long as he lives. Even if his mind fail, be considerate of him; revile him not all the days of his life; kindness to a father will not be forgotten, firmly planted against the debt of your sins—a house raised in justice to you.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 128:1-5

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Bless-ed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways.

Blessed are all who fear the Lord, and walk in his ways! By the labor of your hands you shall eat. You will be blessed and prosper. R.

Your wife like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house; your children like shoots of the olive around your table. R.

Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord. May the Lord bless you from Sion. May you see Jerusalem prosper all the days of your life. R.

SECOND READING

Colossians 3:12-17

Brothers and sisters: Put on, as God's chosen ones, holy and beloved, heartfelt compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness, and patience, bearing with one another and forgiving one another, if one has a grievance against another; as the Lord has forgiven you, so must you also do. And over all these put on love, that is, the bond of perfection. And let the peace of Christ control your hearts, the peace into which you were also called in one body. And be thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, as in all wisdom you teach and admonish one another, singing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with gratitude in your hearts to God. And whatever you do, in word or in deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia.

Music: A. Gregory Murray, OSB, © 1988, The Grail, GIA Publications, Inc., agent

Let the peace of Christ control your hearts; let the word of Christ dwell in you richly. R.

GOSPEL

Luke 2:41-52

Each year Jesus' parents went to Jerusalem for the feast of Passover, and when he was twelve years old, they went up according to festival custom. After they had completed its days, as they were returning, the boy Jesus remained behind in Jerusalem, but his parents did not know it. Thinking that he was in the caravan, they journeyed for a day and looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances, but not finding him, they returned to Jerusalem to look for him.

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions, and all who heard him were astounded at his understanding and his answers.

When his parents saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you done this to us? Your father and I have been looking for you with great anxiety."

And he said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Did you not know that I must be in my Father's house?" But they did not understand what he said to them.

He went down with them and came to Nazareth, and was obedient to them; and his mother kept all these things in her heart. And Jesus advanced in wisdom and age and favor before God and man.

HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,

(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.

He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Please Stand

PARISH NEWS

New Year's Mass & Office Schedule

- The Cathedral Parish Office will be closed on Friday, Dec. 31, in observance of New Year's Day.
- Although the feast of Mary, Mother of God is not a Holy Day of Obligation this year because it falls on a Saturday, there will be a special vigil Mass on Friday evening, Dec. 31, at 6:30pm. Saturday's liturgical schedule will run as normal.

As good Christian stewards, we receive God's gifts gratefully, cultivate them responsibly and share them lovingly. I cannot thank you enough for sharing them so generously with the Cathedral during the course of this past calendar year, 2021. Please, when you are considering charitable end-of-the-year giving, don't forget about your parish. God bless you for the good you have done for our parish, and the good you have done for the Lord in the process! — Fr. Morgan, Rector

FAITH FORMATION

Family Program on break for Christmas

Family program and Confirmation classes will not meet again until January 2022. Please contact Abigail in the parish office (abudan@sfcatholic.org) if you have any questions about the schedule. Have a wonderful Christmas!

Volunteers needed to help with gift card sales for O'G

We need volunteers to help sell gift cards (Catholic School Certificates/formerly SCRIP) after the Sunday morning Masses. We've taken an extended hiatus with after-Mass sales due to the pandemic but we would like to get this program back up and going again. If you'd like to help sell gift cards after Mass, please email pamelaboyum@gmail.com.

Special Delivery of warm winter gear

John and Barbara Lockwood delivered the hats and gloves to the St. Francis Mission while on their way to Colorado. The items were donated by parishioners and collected by the Cathedral Community Outreach Committee. Thank you to all who donated items for this very special and important cause!

REMINDER — If you are sick/coughing/sneezing, please stay home

Please remember that if you are coughing, sneezing or just not feeling well, you are not expected to be at Mass. Please, for the good of yourself and the good of your neighbor in the pew, stay at home and catch Mass on TV. We want you back at Mass healthy ... and everyone around you at Mass to "stay" healthy as well. Peace in Christ. ~ Fr. James Morgan

CLERGY REFLECTION

As we know, the timing of Christmas Day is variable. This year we celebrate the Birth of Christ and the Feast of the Holy Family back to back. The mystery of the Incarnation is so much more than just a historical event. Christmas is not the first day of a liturgical count down of Jesus' chronological life, because the Church has always interpreted the mysteries of Christ in light of God's plan for redeeming the human race. Within these events, these mysteries, what we celebrate is the truth of our existence. We are created in the image and likeness of God. So celebrating Christmas and the Holy Family so close together seems natural. A child born to parents constitutes family. The Christian family is that image on earth of the Holy Family in Heaven. We attempt to live and love and serve God as they did, as imperfectly as that may play out at times. Christmas today, and down through the centuries, has always spelled family. Think about the themes of the many Christmas songs or the themes of the many Christmas books and movies. Reuniting with family, with the ones we love, reminds us of the love that Jesus, Mary and Joseph had for one another. It really puts a human face on the Birth of Christ. There is the story of a priest who, at the end of Christmas Mass, stood in the doorway to wish everyone a Merry Christmas. As people left the church, along came a little girl hardly two feet tall, a human cherub if there ever was one. She looked up at the giant priest and said something he could not hear, so he bent down as far as he could, and tilted his ear toward her face and asked her to repeat what she said. In a piping voice she asked: "What color are God's eyes?" Without a moment's hesitation the priest replied: "Blue. Just like yours." The little girl was flattered. She blinked, smiled, and then toddled away to tell her mother. By being family – the nuclear family as well as a "church family" – we recognize and honor the Holy Family. We honor and recognize the Birth of Christ. May He continue to be born in our hearts as we celebrate this sacred season. From Fr. Norfolk, my office staff and me, and from all who represent the Cathedral, a Merry and Blessed Christmas to you and yours!
