THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

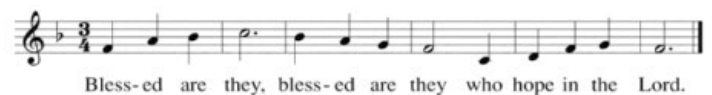

Jeremiah 17:5-8

Thus says the LORD: Cursed is the one who trusts in human beings, who seeks his strength in flesh, whose heart turns away from the LORD. He is like a barren bush in the desert that enjoys no change of season, but stands in a lava waste, a salt and empty earth. Blessed is the one who trusts in the LORD, whose hope is the LORD. He is like a tree planted beside the waters that stretches out of its roots to the stream: it fears not the heat when it comes; its leaves stay green; in the year of drought it shows no distress, but still bears fruit.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 1:1-4, 6

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Bless-ed are they, bless-ed are they who hope in the Lord.

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1969, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

Blessed indeed is the man who follows not the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the path with sinners, nor abides in the company of scorners, but whose delight is the law of the Lord, and who ponders his law day and night. R.

He is like a tree that is planted beside the flowing waters, that yields its fruit in due season, and whose leaves shall never fade; and all that he does shall prosper. R.

Not so are the wicked, not so! For they, like winnowed chaff, shall be driven away by the wind; for the Lord knows the way of the just, but the way of the wicked will perish. R.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 15:12, 16-20

Brothers and sisters: If Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some among you say there is no resurrection of the dead? If the dead are not raised, neither has Christ been raised, and if Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins. Then those who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are the most pitiable people of all. But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION*(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)*

Rejoice and be glad: your reward will be great in heaven. R.

GOSPEL

Luke 6:17, 20-26

Jesus came down with the Twelve and stood on a stretch of level ground with a great crowd of his disciples and a large number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the coastal region of Tyre and Sidon. And raising his eyes toward his disciples he said: "Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours. Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man. Rejoice and leap for joy on that day! Behold, your reward will be great in heaven. For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will grieve and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way."

PROFESSION OF FAITH*Please Stand*

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE SYNOD

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.

Amen.

Being silent, waiting, and listening for God to speak – with nowhere to go, no agenda to keep, and no superficial social contact is the key ingredient for communicating with God. The beauty of the grounds also helps dispose oneself to hearing the Lord speak. Remember, Elijah did not find God in the earthquake, hurricane, or fire, but in the quiet breeze. (1 Kings 19:12). CLERGY REFLECTION

Blessed are the Comfortable?

Is the above motto the vision you live by? It is easy to fall into the mindset that when I'm comfortable, life is good. In today's Gospel, Luke chapter 6, Jesus "raising his eyes toward his disciples" teaches them a vision of life that is contrary to comfort being the driving force. Let's remember that He looks at us and teaches us as He taught His 1st century disciples the same message:

“Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours. Blessed are you who are now hungry, for you will be satisfied. Blessed are you who are now weeping, for you will laugh. Blessed are you when people hate you, and when they exclude and insult you, and denounce your name as evil on account of the Son of Man.”

He just taught us that we are blessed to be poor, to be hungry, to weep and to be hated and insulted. This is not the usual list of what we think of when we define being blessed. Why would Jesus define blessedness/happiness in this way? When we are physically and spiritually hungry there is an invitation to turn to Him in our need. When we are weeping and experiencing grief there is an invitation to experience grief and sadness with Him. When we are insulted and even hated by others we are invited to know Christ with us as He also experienced in His earthly life hatred and rejection. This interior shift in mind and heart is necessary to be able to persevere in running the race of faith until our last breath. Learning to "rejoice and leap for joy on that day!" when we experience such trials is only possible by living in God's grace daily. We begin to see and accept that our true and full comfort will come from eternal life in Heaven as Jesus teaches, "Behold, your reward will be great in heaven." As He challenges the vision we have for our lives and for what it means to be blessed and happy He cautions why it is dangerous to let comfort be our life's principle.

"For their ancestors treated the prophets in the same way. But woe to you who are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you who are filled now, for you will be hungry. Woe to you who laugh now, for you will grieve and weep. Woe to you when all speak well of you, for their ancestors treated the false prophets in this way.”

Finding our comfort and happiness in Jesus Christ is a daily decision. Life throws many challenges at us and only in Christ can we see there is a purpose and value in those suffering. Jesus, thank you for the challenge and invitation to let our vision of life be inspired and formed by Your vision for our lives.
