LITURGY GUIDE—8th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Please help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances. Also, please refrain from taking pictures once Mass has begun. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass has concluded.

INTROIT

(At 9:15 & 11AM, the Introit is sung by the choir, followed by the opening hymn.)

*Factus est Dominus protector meus, et eduxit me in latitudinem: saluum
me fecit, quoniam voluit me.*

(Verse) *Diligam te Domine fortitude mea: Dominus firmamentum
meum, et refugium meum, et libera-tor meus.*

The Lord became my protector. He brought me out to a place of freedom; he saved me because he delighted in me. (Verse) I will love you always, O Lord my strength; the Lord is my support, my refuge and my deliverer.

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

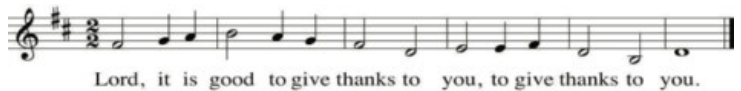

Sir 27:4-7

When a sieve is shaken, the husks appear;
so do one's faults when one speaks.
As the test of what the potter molds is in the furnace,
so in tribulation is the test of the just.
The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had;
so too does one's speech disclose the bent of one's mind.
Praise no one before he speaks,
for it is then that people are tested.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 71:1-6, 15-17

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you, to give thanks to you.

Text: The Revised Grail Psalms, © 2010, Conception Abbey and The Grail, admin. by GIA Publications, Inc.;
refrain tr. © 1969, ICEL.
Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, GIA Publications, Inc.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your loving mercy in the morning, and your truth in the watches of the night. R.

The just will flourish like the palm tree, and grow like a Lebanon cedar. Planted in the house of the Lord, they will flourish in the courts of our God. R.

Still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green. To proclaim that the Lord is upright. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. R.

SECOND READING

1 Corinthians 15:54-58

Brothers and sisters:

When this which is corruptible clothes itself with incorruptibility and this which is mortal clothes itself with immortality, then the word that is written shall come about:

Death is swallowed up in victory.

Where, O death, is your victory? Where, O death, is your sting?

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law. But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brothers and sisters, be firm, steadfast, always fully devoted to the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Please Stand

Shine like lights in the world as you hold on to the word of life. R.

GOSPEL

Luke 6:39-45

Jesus told his disciples a parable, "Can a blind person guide a blind person? Will not both fall into a pit? No disciple is superior to the teacher; but when fully trained, every disciple will be like his teacher. Why do you notice the splinter in your brother's eye, but do not perceive the wooden beam in your own? How can you say to your brother, 'Brother, let me remove that splinter in your eye,' when you do not even notice the wooden beam in your own eye? You hypocrite! Remove the wooden beam from your eye first; then you will see clearly to remove the splinter in your brother's eye. "A good tree does not bear rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree bear good fruit. For every tree is known by its own fruit. For people do not pick figs from thornbushes, nor do they gather grapes from brambles. A good person out of the store of goodness in his heart produces good, but an evil person out of a store of evil produces evil; for from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks."

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER FOR THE SYNOD

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong
path nor partiality influence our actions.

Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.

Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

Our reading from the Book of Sirach and our Gospel reading from Luke today, compare the sort of fruit a tree bears and the sort of fruit we bear in the words we speak. Sirach says; "The fruit of a tree shows the care it has had; so too does one's speech disclose the bent of one's mind". Likewise, in Luke's Gospel Jesus tells us that "a good tree bears good fruit and a bad tree bears bad fruit". He goes on to say; "from the fullness of the heart the mouth speaks".

Recently I took a young boy and his Grandfather on an informal tour around the cathedral. During the tour I pointed out to them the image of a dove in the baldacchino over the ambo and the altar. Of course the image represents the Holy Spirit and is a reminder to priests and deacons to guard their mind, heart and mouth in the Liturgy of the Mass, the reading of Sacred Scripture and the subsequent homily (and, of course, at every other time as well). Those images are also a reminder that it is the Holy Spirit that guides and inspires the hearts and minds of all of us as we gather to pray together in the sacred space of the cathedral. That is what Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to do with, and for, all of us.

The condition of our mind, mouth and heart are wonderful things to ponder as we prepare for the season of Lent this coming Wednesday. How might we use Lent to grow closer to "the fullness of heart"?

Lent isn't about making ourselves miserable. Nor is it about patting ourselves on the back for doing something that takes some extra effort on our part. Lent is intended to be a time of self-examination on where we might be falling short in our life of faith and what we can do to draw closer to God in our daily lives. The Holy Spirit is always available to help us grow closer to God in our thoughts, words and deeds. In these final days before Lent let us seek the counsel of the Holy Spirit to live a Lent that will bear good fruit for us and for all those near to us and then, let us lean on him for support in remaining steadfast in what we feel called to do these coming days.

Come Holy Spirit!!!
