DIOCESE OF SIOUX FALLS

Most Reverend Donald E. DeGrood, Bishop

LITURGY GUIDE—Second Sunday of Lent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Please help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances. Also, please refrain from taking pictures once Mass has begun. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass has concluded.

INTROIT

(At 9:15 & 11AM, the Introit is sung by the choir during the entrance procession.)

*Reminiscere miserationum tuarum, Domine, et misericordiae tuae,
quae a saeculo sunt: ne unquam
dominentur nobis inimici nostri:
libera nos Deus Israel ex omnibus
angustiis nostris.*

*(Verse) Ad te, Domine, levavi
animam meam: Deus meus in te confide, non erubescam.*

Remember your compassion,
O Lord, and your merciful
love, for they are from of old.
Let not our enemies exult
over us. Redeem us, O God
of Israel, from all our distress.

(Verse) Unto you, O Lord,
have I lifted up my soul; O
my God, I trust in you, let me
not be put to shame

OPENING HYMN

781

ERHALT UNS HERR

The Glory of These Forty Days

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

Gn 15:5-12, 17-18

The Lord God took Abram outside and said, "Look up at the sky and count the stars, if you can. Just so," he added, "shall your descendants be." Abram put his faith in the LORD, who credited it to him as an act of righteousness. He then said to him, "I am the LORD who brought you from Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land as a possession." "O Lord GOD," he asked, "how am I to know that I shall possess it?" He answered him, "Bring me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old she-goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove, and a young pigeon." Abram brought him all these, split them in two, and placed each half opposite the other; but the birds he did not cut up. Birds of prey swooped down on the carcasses, but Abram stayed with them. As the sun was about to set, a trance fell upon Abram, and a deep, terrifying darkness enveloped him. When the sun had set and it was dark, there appeared a smoking fire pot and a flaming torch, which passed between those pieces. It was on that occasion that the LORD made a covenant with Abram, saying: "To your descendants I give this land, from the Wadi of Egypt to the Great River, the Euphrates."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 27:1, 7-9, 13-14

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1989, 1981, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The Lord is the stronghold of my life; whom should I dread?
R.

O Lord, hear my voice when I call; have mercy and answer me. Of you my heart has spoken, "Seek his face." It is your face, O Lord, that I seek. R.

Hide not your face from me. Dismiss not your servant in anger; you have been my help. Do not abandon or forsake me. R.

I believe I shall see the Lord's goodness in the land of the living. Wait for the Lord; be strong; be stouthearted, and wait for the Lord! R.

SECOND READING

Phil 3:17-4:1

Join with others in being imitators of me, brothers and sisters, and observe those who thus conduct themselves according to the model you have in us. For many, as I have often told you and now tell you even in tears, conduct themselves as enemies of the cross of Christ. Their end is destruction. Their God is their stomach; their glory is in their "shame." Their minds are occupied with earthly things. But our citizenship is in heaven, and from it we also await a savior, the Lord Jesus Christ. He will change our lowly body to conform with his glorified body by the power that enables him also to bring all things into subjection to himself. Therefore, my brothers and sisters, whom I love and long for, my joy and crown, in this way stand firm in the Lord.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard:
This is my beloved Son, hear him. R.

GOSPEL

Luke 9:28b-36

Jesus took Peter, John, and James and went up the mountain to pray. While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As they were about to part from him, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good that we are here; let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah." But he did not know what he was saying. While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." After the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. They fell silent and did not at that time tell anyone what they had seen.

PROFESSION OF FAITH*Please Stand*

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, (bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

I shall meditate on your commandments, which I greatly love; I will extend my hands towards your
commandments which I love.

OFFERTORY ANTIPHON (11AM)

*Meditabor in mandatis tuis, quae
dilexi valde: et levabo manus meas
ad mandata tua, quae dilexi.*

I will meditate on your
commandments which I love
exceedingly; I will lift up my hands towards your
commandments which I love.

Celebrant: Pray brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

R. May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER FOR THE SYNOD

We stand before You, Holy Spirit,
as we gather together in Your name.
With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;
Teach us the way we must go
and how we are to pursue it.
We are weak and sinful;
do not let us promote disorder.
Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path
nor partiality influence our actions.
Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life
and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.
All this we ask of You,
who are at work in every place and time,
in the communion of the Father and the Son,
forever and ever.
Amen.

CLERGY REFLECTION

As we watch with shock and horror at the events playing out in Ukraine, we cannot help but feel pity for the Ukrainian people, especially suffering civilians – and anger at the leader of Russia for his hubris and total disregard for human life. Though we are so far away from it all, it is still terrifying and disturbing. Life, which seemed so normal just a few weeks ago, is now tottering on the unthinkable.

To make a correlation in the context of our faith, this is the reality of Christ's passion and death. One minute they are welcoming Him into Jerusalem as the Messiah; the next, they are marching Him off for crucifixion. Think of Jesus' Mother and His disciples who couldn't comprehend or bear what was happening before their eyes. Shortly before, they were celebrating and singing during the course of the Passover Meal. But in a moment, everything changed. The complete and utter bewilderment they experienced at the madness and insanity of an unpredictable event.

The movie The Passion of the Christ vividly depicts the insanity and savagery so well, and the bewilderment. I remember an edition of the Children's Stations of the Cross which I prayed at Holy Spirit Parish for school stations that had a line that went something like this in regards to the brutality of the soldiers and the watching crowds: "...it was like the whole world had gone crazy..."

It did that day, 2000 years ago. And it's pretty crazy right now. So we shouldn't be surprised that evil can rear its ugly head so quickly and violently. We must keep our heads about us, and our eyes fixed on Christ. What is happening in Ukraine is a lens into the vivid imagery we embrace as we follow Jesus to Calvary every Lent.
