LITURGY GUIDE—Third Sunday of Lent

Welcome to the Cathedral of St. Joseph and thank you for joining us for the celebration of Holy Mass today! Please silence your cell phones and refrain from eating, drinking or chewing gum in the Cathedral. Please help keep our Cathedral tidy by utilizing the waste baskets found near the main entrances. Also, please refrain from taking pictures once Mass has begun. You are welcome to take pictures after Mass has concluded.

INTROIT

(At 9:15 & 11AM, the Introit is sung by the choir during the entrance procession.)

*Oculi mei semper ad Dominum, quia ipse evellet de laqueo pedes
meos: respice in me et miserere mei, quoniam unicus et pauper sum ego.
(Verse) Ad te Domine levavi animam meam: Deus meus, in te confido, non erubescam.*

My eyes are always on the Lord, for he rescues my feet from the snare. Turn to me and have mercy on me, for I am alone and poor. (Verse) Unto you, O Lord, have I lifted up my soul; O my God, I trust in you, let me not be put to shame.

OPENING HYMN (4PM & 7:30AM) ERHALT UNS HERR 620 Lord Jesus, As We Turn from Sin

PENITENTIAL ACT

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, (striking breast three times) through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; Therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Ex 3:1-8a, 13-15
Moses was tending the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian. Leading the flock across the desert, he came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There an angel of the LORD appeared to Moses in fire flaming out of a bush. As he looked on, he was surprised to see that the bush, though on fire, was not consumed. So Moses decided, "I must go over to look at this remarkable sight, and see why the bush is not burned."

When the LORD saw him coming over to look at it more closely, God called out to him from the bush, "Moses! Moses!" He answered, "Here I am." God said, "Come no nearer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground. I am the God of your fathers," he continued, "the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob." Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God. But the LORD said, "I have witnessed the affliction of my people in Egypt and have heard their cry of complaint against their slave drivers, so I know well what they are suffering. Therefore I have come down to rescue them from the hands of the Egyptians and lead them out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey."

Moses said to God, "But when I go to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your fathers has sent me to you,' if they ask me, 'What is his name?' what am I to tell them?" God replied, "I am who am." Then he added, "This is what you shall tell the Israelites: I AM sent me to you."

God spoke further to Moses, "Thus shall you say to the Israelites: The LORD, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, the God of Jacob, has sent me to you. "This is my name forever; thus am I to be remembered through all generations."

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 103:1-4, 6-8, 11

Text: Refrain trans., Lectionary for Mass, © 1989, 1991, 1997, ICEL; verses, New American Bible, © 1970, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine; Music: Michel Guimont, © 1994, 1998, GIA Publications, Inc.

(Refrain sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name.
Bless the Lord, O my soul, and never forget all his benefits R.

It is the Lord who forgives all your sins, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with mercy and compassion. R.

The Lord does just deeds, gives full justice to all who are oppressed. He made known his ways to Moses, and his deeds to the children of Israel. R.

The Lord is compassionate and gracious, slow to anger and rich in mercy. For as the heavens are high above the earth, so strong his mercy for those who fear him. R.

SECOND READING

1 Cor 10:1-6, 10-12

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud and all passed through the sea, and all of them were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. All ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink, for they drank from a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was the Christ. Yet God was not pleased with most of them, for they were struck down in the desert.

These things happened as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil things, as they did. Do not grumble as some of them did, and suffered death by the destroyer. These things happened to them as an example, and they have been written down as a warning to us, upon whom the end of the ages has come. Therefore, whoever thinks he is standing secure should take care not to fall.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Please Stand

(Sung first by cantor, then congregation repeat)

Repent, says the Lord; the kingdom of heaven is at hand. R.

GOSPEL

Luke 13:1-9

Some people told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with the blood of their sacrifices. Jesus said to them in reply, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were greater sinners than all other Galileans? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did! Or those eighteen people who were killed when the tower at Siloam fell on them—do you think they were more guilty than everyone else who lived in Jerusalem? By no means! But I tell you, if you do not repent, you will all perish as they did!"

And he told them this parable: "There once was a person who had a fig tree planted in his orchard, and when he came in search of fruit on it but found none, he said to the gardener, 'For three years now I have come in search of fruit on this fig tree but have found none. So cut it down. Why should it exhaust the soil?' He said to him in reply, 'Sir, leave it for this year also, and I shall cultivate the ground around it and fertilize it; it may bear fruit in the future. If not you can cut it down.'"

PROFESSION OF FAITH

Please Stand

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
(bow here) and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us,
make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go

CLERGY REFLECTION

The question has come up why liturgies in Lent seem like one, long “Good Friday.” It’s a good question. So we start with the underlying theological principle of the nature of our redemption: Jesus chose to suffer and die to win the crown of glory. The Resurrection was just the reward, albeit the ultimate one.

During the Winter Olympics, I was checking on the medal count when I came across this story: Athletes who win the gold, and then come back in subsequent Olympics to compete again, find that it’s more difficult to compete a second or third time. It takes more self-motivation and mental astuteness to harness the energy needed to prepare a second or third time. As one athlete put it, “once you’ve been to the top, you wonder why you would want to put yourself through all the pain and suffering to prepare for it again.” Most of them found that preparing a second time was more difficult than the first, the third time more difficult from the second, and so on. Yet, the satisfaction of winning increased with each subsequent medal.

It’s no different than the nature of grace at work in the complexities of our life. When we are in the midst of trial and temptation, it’s difficult to see the Lord through the lens of our testing; but once the trial is over, we see the victory due to God’s overflowing grace. And then, when another trial happens again, it usually returns with a vengeance, but the satisfaction of getting back up again and confronting it with what we have learned makes it all worthwhile. We’ve grown from the experience and we know that we can depend upon the grace of God that much more.

We win the gold, so to speak, when we see God’s hand in the trial and end up better for it. The Resurrection story is analogous to this: To appreciate it and internalize it, we relive the trials and tragedy that got us here – the Passion and Death of Our Lord. It’s not fun. It’s not supposed to be fun. It’s supposed to be reflective, introspective, prayerful, penitential. Every liturgy in Lent is supposed to feel like “Good Friday” because we want to be intimately connected with what brings us everlasting life. It’s our fallen human nature which would rather skip the meat and vegetables and go right to the dessert. We can prefer the “warmth of the womb,” then, rather than the “adventure of rebirth.” And that is what Lent is all about...the arduous task of preparing ourselves for “rebirth.”
